-1.Introduction

Hello my account name is Dragon Angel X2. I made this FAQ back in February 2004. I was like 15 at the time so I am sure I made a lot of typo's and such so I am going to go through this FAQ to correct everything. I'm also going to do that with my other one as well. I haven't played this game in ages but it was a pretty good game when I did. Hope this helps.

Sunday, February 9, 2004 -

Well right now its version 1 because I haven't updated it yet. I will hopefully be able to update it next Friday or Saturday.

Saturday, May 2nd 2009 -

A little over 5 years since I made this. I am just going to fix the typos that I made and try and make it more readable.

4. Unlockables

Lowemon: Obtain him when you beat the game with any two characters. The human form of him is Koji's brother, Koichi. He has a ball of chaos that comes out of his chest that he uses to destroy his enemy. He also has a sword like Lobomon's. He's a dark type Digimon that is very strong.

ExLobomon: The same as Lobomon, only when he digivolves he turns into Beowulfmon. His attacks are super fast. He has a sword that can summon a wolf that does light attacks to trap people in and destroy them. In order to obtain this Digimon you must beat the game with all six characters and have Lobomon, Beetlemon or Lowemon get over 800 points

ExAgunimon: I don't have this Digimon yet so I don't have any info about it. In order to get him though, you must beat the game with all 6 characters, and have Agunimon, Kumamon, or Kazemon get over 800 points.

5. Story

Several children get a message on their cell phones saying if they would like their lives to change. Some say yes and some say no. Five Children that say 'Yes' get chosen to go to the Digital World. They turn into Digimon using their spirits. Can they beat the evil Kerpymon and save not only the Digital World, but our world as well?

6. Digimon Battles

You first start out choosing your character. You can choose Agunimon, Lobomon, Kazemon, Kumamon, or Beetlemon (or Lowemon if you have him). After you've chosen what character you want you go into battle mode, where you start your fight with the other Digimon.

First match: The first match either starts with Beetlemon or Kazemon. Let's say I start with Beetlemon. Beetlemon is your basic electric Digimon that has mighty attacks that can cause death instantly. He's not to be taken lightly. He likes to use his Thunder Fist attack a lot so be careful. Be sure to get lots of D-Spirits to. Beetlemon is an excellent Digimon that can easily beat the whole game. He's kind of slow, that is his weakness. Go behind him and then attack him.

It's fun doing, what I call, the Loop-de-loop. Jump over him with any Digimon. He'll turn around and face you. Jump over him and attack, he's slow so it should work. Definitely hit him from high angles. The longer you charge, the better. Charging is amount of attack power in one hit. You should always run when he slide evolves. He can hit you from far distances with homing attacks, meaning they won't miss. Always try and hit him from behind. There are a lot of platforms in this game so that is good. Attack the Leafmon and take their points as well. This match is pretty easy to beat. Jump over Beetlemon's head because he's so clumsy and slow you'll be able to attack him really easily. Keep doing this until you get a lot of D-Spirits.

Level of Difficulty

Second match: If you didn't get Kazemon in the first match then you'll get her in the second one. She has swift attacks that can sweep you off your feet. She likes to use her legs to do her dirty work. Her Hurricane Wind attack is an attack you better be sure to dodge. It is hard to dodge because it goes fast and usually she uses it after she kicks you, and you can't escape. She likes to fly around and do sneak attacks. She also likes to get real close to you so be careful. Be sure to run from her Digivolved form Zephyrmon. She can easily slide evolve and take your D-Spirits. She loves jumping on the top platform and lure you up there to be attacked and you'll fall and she'll take your D-spirits because they're all up there with her and you're on the bottom. Be careful of that!

Just shoot from long distances because she likes to kick. I always try and stay on the bottom, towards the middle; this ensures that she won't do any sneak attacks. She loves to jump around and do her little kicking attack. Also, being towards the middle means that she can't do her High Jump kick. She does do this a lot so be careful. If you're going for a lot of D-Spirits, then stay towards the sides and not the top. Only go towards the top if you're hiding because when she tries to go up there, she usually falls. If she does try to go up there, then it's a good time to hit her because she is clumsy, all of them are.

Level of Difficulty

Third match: Now you're against the ice Digimon, Kumamon. He has a gun that shoots ice blocks at you. He's stage is also hard because you can slip and run into the Candlemon. This battle is fairly easy because Kumamon slips to and that's where you attack. Be careful if Kumamon Digivolves though. This guy will shoot axes at you, which hurts. Watch out for his axe attack. They go pretty far. If you're running and you see a Candlemon, be sure to jump onto the platform. The easiest way to get past this level is to get on the second platform. Kumamon doesn't really go up there. From there you can easily attack and defeat him. The slipping in sliding you must work to your advantage. Let's say you are not really good in this level and you want to get better.

Then follow these instructions. Wait for the moment when Kumamon is about five feet in front of you. Run a little to get some speed and attack, he'll then go flying and lose some D-Spirits. After you hit him just jump up so you won't slide. When you jump it makes it so you can't slide. Also there are a lot of Candlemon, like I said before, so be sure not to jump on them. They will slide at times to so be careful. You don't really have to pay attention to the Candlemon, just Kumamon. Also be careful of his Ice gun. He can shoot long distances. For safe keepings, just keep jumping and dodge all attacks, and then do a nice aerial attack. Also, he will freeze you sometimes, and that you can't avoid, he'll hit you, so don't get to close

Fourth match: The next Digimon is Lobomon. His stage makes it hard to use special attacks. Lobomon will use his sword to quickly attack you. He'll sometimes use his gun to attack, but that's easy to dodge. Be careful of the Goblimon though, they're hard to see. I suggest going on the top platform and defeat those Goblimon. Then when you can, jump down and look for Lobomon, chances are that he's on the ground. Shoot him from far away because he'll use his sword. He loves staying at the edges of places so he can spy on you. It's hard to see him in this level though. When you're not looking he'll shoot you far away with his gun.

When you get to close he'll use his sword. I suggest attacking from above. Charge up your power and jump on his head to do an enormous amount of damage. He'll get right back up though so be fast. Lobomon is a very slick and Sly Digimon. When he digivolves into KendoGarurumon, he'll be even faster. He is not an easy Digimon to defeat. He mainly uses light speed attacks; hence that's why he's a light Digimon, because he moves at light speeds. Also because that's the way the writers made him. The only thing Lobomon can't do, is teleport.

Level of Difficulty

Fifth match: Now you have to fight Agunimon. His level is so annoying because Agunimon likes to jump around and use Pyro Tornado. It's easy to counter because you can just jump in the air and attack him back, and then take his D-Spirits. It's real easy to Digivolve in this level because Agunimon is fairly easy to hit. Be sure to dodge the Digimon that fall from the sky. The easiest way to defeat him is to go on either the right or left side and wait for him to come near you. Then when he's on your side, jump up, go behind him, and keep on attacking. He usually loses about 10-15 D-Spirits. This is an easy method to beat this level. Agunimon loves using the other Digimon to do his dirty work to.

When the Digimon that fall from the sky come down and hit you, Agunimon will rush over and take your points. Agunimon seems like a brave Digimon, but he runs away a lot to get D-Spirits. But the guy is easy. Just be sure to trap him in a corner and don't stop hitting "B". He'll lose so many D-Spirits this way. Also you will be able to Digivolve real easy in this level, so Digivolve when you can. When you digivolve, more D-Spirits fly out, meaning it's an easier way to win.

Level of Difficulty

Sixth match: The last match before the Final Battle is with Lowemon. He is a dark Digimon that uses his chest as a mighty, dark attack. It's hard to see Lowemon because the background is black, just like him. When he digivolves his power grows even more. This guy will now use his claws to attack. They're two platforms in this stage so you can dodge the blats that he shoots at you. A good method is to go on the very bottom and wait for him to attack. Then jump up and he won't see you. Then attack! Be sure to run because he'll use his dark electric attack to hurt you and take back his points.

There's not to much more to say about him. When he hits you he'll sometimes run after and get the points. He also likes to walk back and fourth and wait for you to come out so he doesn't have to chase after you. Ya, he's kind a lazy. Just really gatta do some attacks from underneath him. That's the sure way to victory. Like Lobomon, Lowemon will move very fast so watch out. Ohh and if you're wondering, that's a train in the background

Level of Difficulty

Final Battle: The last fight is with the all mighty mega Digimon, Kerpymon. This is the strongest Digimon in this game. Don't worry, even though you're just a champion who can turn into an ultimate and he's a mega, anyone can beat him. He likes to use his rocks to do his dirty work. He can teleport a round to dodge your attacks, but after he does his little rock attack, you can use your attack and hurt him. He can also use this black power ball to suck you in and spit you out. You have a limited amount of life and time. If you can't beat him, just keep trying. After he disappears, he'll use his electric shock that comes out of the sky to hurt you so be sure to hide under the platforms. A good Digimon to defeat him is Beetlemon because he knows "Thunder Fist". The strongest attack in this game. Below is a list of attacks you should use for each Digimon:

Agumon: Pyro Tornado, Jump and hit "B".

Kazemon: Double Jump and hit "B".

Beetlemon: Thunder Fist, Jump and hit "B".

Kumamon: Wait for Kerpymon to come near you and hit up and "B".

Lobomon: Howling Laser, up and hit "B".

Lowemon: Dark Lightning, up and "B".

When you're not fighting him, the electricity does. Like I said before it'll hurt you. But it's also a great way to die. Just hide under a platform and jump when it comes near you. It's easy to dodge. The lightning only strikes 5 times per time he's in the sky. So after the fifth time, jump on the platform and attack him. When he summons the wind to make you come to him, just hold on right or left button (depending which side you're on) and if you see a rock, be sure to dodge it. Wait for him to summon those rocks before you hit him because he'll hurt you.

Good-Luck!

7. Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Do you have this game?

A. Duh!!

Q. How long until I beat this stupid Boss!?!

A. Just keep saying you can do it and you will.

Q. Should I get this game or Digimon Battle Spirit?

A. If you like rookie Digimon like Agumon, Guilmon, and Impmon then get the first one, also it has more levels.

Q. What are tags???

A. Tags are, well after you beat the game you will get a new one, Rookie, Champion, Ultimate, or Mega, Mega meaning the best. If you get Mega, then you rule the game!

Q. How do you pronounce Kerpymon?

A. Its Chee-ruu-pi-mon, don't know why they made it like that.

Q. What Does Q and A mean?

A. Q means question, A means answer.

8. Digimon Shoot

Digimon Shoot is a mini-game you get when you beat the game. It's kind of fun. I've only beaten about 5 levels of the mini-game so I haven't mastered it yet. When I do beat it, I'll be sure to update it. Anyway you choose a Digimon to be and you just shoot yourself at the other Digimon. After every level you beat, another guy comes in to fight. Like if I was on the third level and I was fighting 4 guys, the next level would have 5 guys. It's actually a pretty good game.

9. Digivolution

Execute! Spirit evolution!!!

Yes Digimon can digivolve! When you get enough hits you will be able to slide evolve into a Digimon so you can attack an enemy with a much more powerful attack, depending on your Digimon, some attacks can knock off two times as much D-Spirits.

Agunimon - Emperergreymon - When he digivolves he uses fire to attack, like Agunimon. Only this time it's much more powerful! He can also fly a little way and shoot out fire.

Emperergreymon -

Type - fire

Attacks:

Up + b = Flame Sphere

Jump + up + b = Fire shoot

Jump + b = Fire shoot

Speed + b = pyro master

Down + b = Flame Blitz

B = pyro punch

Lobomon - KendoGarurumon (BladeGarurumon) - Lobomon know turns even more into a dog, now he has 4 legs. He shoots wolf blasters out of his mouth and feet to eliminate anyone. He is also very fast!

KendoGarurumon -

Type - light

Attacks:

Up + b = Wolf roll

Jump + up + b = Charging attack

Jump + b = wolfo lance
Speed + b = blade sprint
Down + b = Light beam
B = punch

Kazemon - Zephermon - This little bird type thing can now summon wind, powerful wind, over 60 MPH. You'll go flying, trust me! She is extremely fast, the fastest of any Digimon in the whole game.

Zephermon -
Type - wind
Attacks:
Up + b = terra twister
Jump + up + b = zepher blaster
Jump + b = tempest wind
Speed + b = confusion kick (Kazemon)
Down + b = wing blaze
B = punch

Kumamon - Orikakumon - A beast type Digimon that looks like a Yetimon. He throws Avalanche axes at you, as well and frozen arrowheads that come from the back of his head. This Ice Digimon can throw his axes very far, so be careful!

Orikakumon -
Type - ice
Attacks:
Up + b = Yeti punch
Jump + up + b = Avalanche axes
Jump + b = axe hit
Speed + b = ski dunk (Kumamon)
Down + b = terra axe
B = ice punch (Kumamon)

Beetlemon - MetalKabuterimon - Beetlemon ha become a tank type Digimon. He now shoots an electric blast from his cannon. This guy is brute strength, but kind of slow. He is so strong he'll knock a ton of D-Spirits out of you, making him the strongest Digimon in the game.

MetalKabuterimon -
Type - electric
Attacks:
Up + b = Bolton Blast
Jump + up + b = moving charge attack
Jump + b = Beetle kick (Beetlemon)
Speed + b = charge
Down + b = Homing missle
B = punch
