

Version 0.1 [2005/06/30] 66K

The debut of this guide. It contains sufficient information for people who just recently begun playing the game. Basically, I added only fundamental characters who only appears in Mineral town. For those who are very advanced in the game, don't be hasty on me, I'm working my ass on it. I had to remove myself from MapleStory and my other favorite entertainments just to do so. T_T

Version 0.2 [2005/08/15] 75K

This version is more complete than version 0.1
The guide was fully edited and all under progress chars from the last version are now available.

I'm prolly back to finish what I've started after a long pilgrimage in the "ocean of hardship". This guide will now restart engaging itself in a race to completion. And good news! Someone more determined and fiercer than me decided to lend me a hand. We're officially two people working on this. I believe all has been said.

Version 0.22 [2006/07/22] 78K

Very well. Where to begin? I-am-an-indignant-bastard. There! I said it. Yes, I deserve to be yelled at for making numerous insane HM fans, especially women, wait for the latest release. What excuse do I have for such insubordinate and incompetent behavior? Erh. Well, no one is perfect. I'm not a machine, so please give me a break. T.T
My spared time has been consumed by work and other errands. 'Nuff said. I will now resume my incomplete journey along with a new partner named Sorana. Just call her Sora for short. My other partner Timmy is no longer reachable. I can't seem to contact her. Little choice do I have but to continue this project without her. Although Tim, you'll will be preserved in the credit section. Moreover, on the guide front page too. If you want to come back, feel free to ask.
For this release, just minor improvements in the Bachelors section. Sora and I will undertake a week or two to exercise ourselves "to stand back up on our feet". Also, I'm working on the boy version currently. It is nearly at its completion. So why not finish it now? Please accept my deep apologies for this inconvenient, dear HM fans. Happy harvesting.

Please note that most information are taken from my character guide of the original version of this game (boy version). Does it cause a problem? I had this assumption that both version are similar in the domain of character analysis excluding some new events. Sadly, I was a bit wrong. Fear not though. It is only minor inaccurate information which result nonexistant harm. Once again, do not be alert. I'm currently working on this problem to replace inadequate data. It will be completely fixed by the release of version 0.30. For now, I have simply worked on the rival section. I'm taking this smoothly. Next stop, the Mineral town residents.

I. INTRODUCTION

NOTICE: PLEASE READ THE VERSION HISTORY NOTICE 0.22 and 0.25 FIRST!

FEW WORDS FROM KIRBY:

The unending tale, once again, is written by me. If you liked the character guide I made for the original version but also lest it will not be concluded for a hella of time, then fear not. This time, the guide shall be more enjoyable and ultimately be worked on almost everyday unlike what I used to do with the FOMT guide. Well, this only concerns those who knows me on the Harvest moon forum on GameFAQs. They know the speed of my work. Perhaps one second less of difference. Who knows? >_>;
So umh, the purpose of this guide is to aid players who wish to acknowledge certain characters or to make them like you. It will also help in triggering events (Cutscenes) of all characters. Note: Things in quotation are brief translations to make things shorter. Otherwise it is an awkward interpretation undefined or to demonstrate the importance of that word.

Insanely having an urge of contacting me? Just e-mail me. :3

Nevertheless, please follow these simple rules below:

1. Remember that grammar and spelling are your friends. Meaning, use them.
2. Write in the empty subject textbox something related to Harvest Moon.
3. Make your message readable as possible.

If one of these rules haven't been well respected, I'll innately delete the mail regardless looking at the content. Why? Simply because I've been receiving lots of Junk emails, so I'm getting the hang of instant deletion. One more thing, helpful tips and correction are greatly welcome and thus the result of you being in the credit section if the emails is valid in my taste.

Before proceeding, I might have said it numerous times, but CTRL+F is there whenever you need it. That is what the Keyword section is all about. Furthermore, enjoy the guide~!

II. CHARACTER GUIDE

A. BACHELORS

Unlike the original version, you only had 6 persons available that you'll spending your life with. Now, Natsume decided to add 3 more extra people in the bachelor list. Although, those threesome persons won't really change the outcome of your decision. Personally speaking though. Just see them for yourself and you'll know what I mean. Well, it depends on your taste of course. Normally, most girls wouldn't go for them. Nonetheless, physique doesn't really matter does it? All is about the personality.

Those guys aren't yours for granted unfortunately. Other gorgeous women are working in the shadow to find a way to charm them as well. So, you'll have to assert great effort in order to crush them and strike for their heart.

Sadly, nothing brutal is permitted.

How does one seduce them? Simple. Just give them a gift once per day. Plus, encounter many events related to them. That's how you woo them in this game. You might have noticed throughout the game that their heart icon sometimes change into another color. The color determines their level of affection towards you. Here痴 how it goes:

- Gray - Level 1
- Purple - Level 2
- Blue - Level 3
- Green - Level 4
- Yellow - Level 5
- Orange - Level 6
- Red - Final Level

Once you get to the final level, a blue feather will appear in the supermarket which will allow you to propose to one of the bachelors for marriage. If one refuses your proposal, it means you haven't done all the requirements for him to accept you. You must have:

- The big Bed
- Seen all their heart events
- The bachelor must have his heart icon to red color

BIRTHDATE: Summer 6 WHERE HE RESIDE NOW: At the Church
HOMETOWN: In the City RIVAL: Ann
SEXUAL REF: Male NATURE: Quiet
PARENTS: Unknown PROFESSION: Traveler
SIBLINGS: Unknown

MADLY FOND ABOUT: Curry rice and Sandwich.
ATTACHMENT FOR: Stew and Miso soup.

APPEARANCE: Long brown haired dude wearing a brown coat.

Cliff is a foreigner who recently moved in Mineral Town. He left his family because he thought something else, somewhere out there was destined to him so as his intuition foretold him. So he went out in a pilgrimage hoping to find soon his purpose for his existence. When he came across Mineral Town, he decided to settle down his encampment there. Little did he know once he stepped inside the premise of the town, he felt an enigmatic pulse. 'Twas a pulse which brought him deep curiosities and interest in this town. Now, he awaits for something particular that will either give him good fortunate or despair. Cliff spends his day at the Church. He doesn't really wander outside because he is rather an anti-social type. Although, he is able to perfectly talk with Carter. During the night, he goes to the Inn where your rival Ann resides. Thus began their first first interaction that will turn out into a adorable relationship.

HOW TO WOO CLIFF FOR BEGINNERS UNTIL AT PURPLE HEART:

Unfortunately, Cliff is extremely hard to seduce in the beginning since most of his liked items come originally from the kitchen. So you have to work your way through with gifts which have little effect on his affection points.

During Spring, mother nature provides you Bamboo Shoot. Umh, I assume our only option is to give it to Cliff huh? So everyday, go give Cliff one and the rest should go to the shipping bin. This won't probably make his heart to purple, but remains necessary for later. If you want, you can wrap the gift from the Supermarket. It gives extra points.

During Fall, this time, mother nature provides you Mushies. So use those Mushrooms as reference gift for the season. Next year, you should have the kitchen as well as the utensils. Food conquers all! When that day finally comes, charming will be a lot easier.

BLACK HEART EVENT

Simply walk inside the Church on a Tuesday or Thursday during. Carter will express happiness once he sees you. Without further ado, he will ask you if you could accomplish a certain troublesome task for him. The pastor implores you to seek an "opening" in Cliff's worrisome heart. He looks very preoccupied in his thoughts which is already complicated for Carter. When you walk to meet up with the quiet one, Cliff will look at you with three dots, trying to figure out what you want him.

GR4EJY5

BIRTHDATE: Winter 6	WHERE HE RESIDE NOW: At the Inn
HOMETOWN: In the City	RIVAL: Mary
SEXUAL REF: Male	NATURE: Serious
GRANDFATHER: Saibara	PROFESSION: Blacksmith employee
PARENTS: Unknown	EXTRA LOVE PTS: Buy jewelry
SIBLINGS: Unknown

MADLY FOND ABOUT: All ores except Junk ores
ATTACHMENT FOR: Baked Corn, Potato, Bodigizer, TurboJolt, Branches.

APPEARANCE: Orange haired guy wearing a blue cap.

Chosen to be Saibara's successor, Gray moved to Mineral Town to learn the arts of Blacksmithing from his grandfather himself. Little did the young Gray know that his grandfather will show him merciless hardship. Doing a great job and showing good discipline, Saibara never praise him, not once. Only demanding for being acknowledge by Saibara, Gray suddenly began to feel different from what he used to be. He became a little arrogant as time passing by only with the thought "Please gramps, see me as a man!". One day, his bad inner self will vanish as Gray begins to know the sensation of tenderness and kindness after meeting Mary. During the morning, Gray will leave the Inn to head to the Blacksmith. Afternoon, he heads out to the library where he can sooth his soul by reading books, and of course, be with Mary.

HOW TO WOO GRAY FOR BEGINNERS UNTIL AT PURPLE HEART:

During Spring, simply go dig in the Spring mine for ores. All ores are fine excluding Junk ores. You could also give him some medicine boost up like Bodigizer, but it depends whether you have plenty of money or not. You better save up for the near future if I'd be you. So give him an ore everyday. Also buy jewelry for extra love points. Repeat the same routine for 20 days. His heart should go up approximately around those days.

If you started wooing Gray in Summer, use a potato as an offering. You can still stick with Ores if you wish if you truly want to save up. For the remaining seasons, ores are the main option.

When Gray notices your presence, he acts like an irreverent fool towards you. Not truly his fault due to pressure from his grandfather. After realizing his action towards an innocent girl, Gray will apologize and ask for your forgiveness.

BIRTHDATE: Fall 19	WHERE HE RESIDE NOW: At the Clinic
HOMETOWN: Mineral Town	RIVAL: Elli
SEXUAL REF: Male	NATURE: Serious/ambitious
PARENTS: Unknown	PROFESSION: Doctor
SIBLINGS: Unknown	EXTRA LOVE PTS: Get examined.

MADLY FOND ABOUT: Relaxation tea, Elli's leaves and Hot Milk.
ATTACHMENT FOR: All grasses and Milk.

APPEARANCE: Is wearing an optical device on his head.

The doctor runs obviously, the Clinic, with the support of his personal nurse,

Elli. The doctor is a disciplined man who wishes to seek power in order to help those in need. In his childhood, he was an unhappy kid who wasn't treated like normal kids. His parents didn't treat him with the fundamental ingredient called "affection". Thus why the reason you don't usually see him smile. Since his parents were doctors, they never had time to spend with their son. Their son deprived them until he became also a doctor. He felt their burden which is having this huge responsibility of being a savior. When he knew this feeling, he felt guilty for being such an ass to his parents and he asked for redemption by trying to help as much of people as possible. Yet, he thinks this wasn't sufficient enough to calm his thirstiness.

HOW TO WOO THE DOCTOR FOR BEGINNERS UNTIL AT PURPLE HEART:

Every season, mother nature provides grasses. Use them as a gift for the doctor. Therefore he will be at Purple heart very easily. You could also give him milk, that is unless if you have purchased a cow. Also, get regular checkups to raise extra affection points. This routine should take 20 days depending on your action taken.

HOMETOWN: In the City	RIVAL: Popuri
SEXUAL REF: Male	NATURE: Pimp
PARENTS: Unknown	PROFESSION: Chef Cook
SIBLINGS: Unknown

MADLY FOND ABOUT: Pineapple and (L) fish.
ATTACHMENT FOR: All Summer crops and Flour.

APPEARANCE: Tan guy wearing a purple bandana.

Kai is only available on Summer. Before the first day of Summer, use the road of your farm which leads to town between 2PM-7PM. You'll meet up with him and engage yourself in a smooth conversation along with May and Popuri later on. If you missed this opportunity, fear not. He will come by at your farm tomorrow morning to introduce himself.

Kai is good when it's about women. A "pimp" would be the appropriate word. Every young woman in town finds him rather good-looking. That also includes married women. When Rick heard about this rumor involving Popuri, her sister, flirting with Kai, he swore to protect his sister from that outrageous hood by all means. Despite Rick being a abominable threat, Kai always managed to overcome him.

HOW TO WOO KAI FOR BEGINNERS UNTIL AT PURPLE HEART:

Kai is most likely the hardest person amongst the bachelors to captive since Summer is the only occasion to seduce. We have to make it hasty and attack with full power. Our option is to give him gifts which he seems really fond about. Get your pineapples ready as soon as possible. In the meantime, while waiting for your summer crops to bloom, either give him Flour or a (L) fish. He likes them very much.

SIBLINGS: Popuri	EXTRA LOVE PTS: Get 8 Chickens

MADLY FOND ABOUT: Egg dishes and spa-boiled eggs.
ATTACHMENT FOR: Pudding, Chicken feed, Corn and honey.

APPEARANCE: Rick is an orange haired, nerdy looking kind of guy.

Rick lives at the poultry farm with his sister Popuri and his mother Lillia. At the morning, he spends his time by sitting in the bench near the supermarket with Karen. Afterwards, he works all day long at the poultry farm, taking care of chickens.

Rick hates Summer because that is when Kai arrives in town. In Rick's point of view, he thinks Kai only comes to Mineral town just to flirt with women, especially his little sister Popuri. He makes any necessary precautions for her sister to avoid him. Unfortunately for Rick, all his plans failed. Aside from having a heavy grudge on Kai, he also despise his father, not as much as Kai though. When his father left the house, Rick always prayed that his father will come back someday. But after several years, his faith began to fade away along with the admiration he had for him 'til he finally stopped believing in him.

HOW TO WOO RICK FOR BEGINNERS UNTIL AT PURPLE HEART:

Very simple. Get yourself a chicken NOW! When you do have one, head to the hot spring and toss your egg in the hot water. Do not be anxious, it doesn't count for littering. I hope so >_>...Anyhow, you'll gain a new egg called the spa-boiled egg. Afterwards, go give it to him. Repeat the same routine for 15 days and his heart should go purple.

APPEARANCE: A blonde girl with deep shining green eyes, wearing a purple blouse.

Karen lives at the grocery store with her parents Jeff and Sasha. She doesn't really help around the store though. She only wanders around in her room, and occasionally near the paper wrap.

Karen is a bad cooker. As a matter of fact, she doesn't even notice it herself. She isn't really aware that when she cooks for others, they start acting weird because of bad food indigestion. No one seems to bother to tell her that her meals are despicable though. I guess due to her magnificent beauty, people are afraid to sadden her. Moreover, she is an alcoholic. She goes to the inn at night to drink a bit. Perhaps another reason why people are afraid to confront her. Regardless those default, she still remain an awesome girl.

The person whom she trust the most is Rick. Why? They are childhood friends. They used to play a lot together, especially in kindergarten. Nowadays, they simply wander around town to have gossip about the old days or exciting news. So obviously, Karen would be your rival for Rick.

Rod is Rick's male founder. To be more concise, his father. He doesn't comprehend why he left their family, especially when his mom is in a dire condition. For now, Rick is feeling a bit tormented after telling what he had inside his chest. Slowly grabbing Rick's hands, Karen will tell him consoling words which will make this last more confident and reassured. "Right, the most important treasure is my family. BIRTHDATE: Spring 16 WHERE SHE RESIDE NOW: Clinic
HOMETOWN: Mineral Town TARGETED MAN: The Doctor
SEXUAL REF: Female NATURE: Free-caring
GRANDPARENTS: Ellen PROFESSION: Nurse
PARENTS: Unknown
SIBLINGS: Stu

MADLY FOND ABOUT: Perfume, Moon Dumplings, Elli's leaves.
ATTACHMENT FOR: Milk, Hot milk,

APPEARANCE: Brown haired girl, wearing a nurse/maid outfit.

Elli works at the Clinic as a nurse along with the "doctor". All she does is sell remedies against falling stamina and fatigue. Her goals in life is to become a great nurse. The source of her motivation is from the possibility of helping her dearest ones at full potential. Why has she set her motivation from that? Years ago, her grandmother Ellen has lost her two legs (paralyzed) and has been this way until now. How? No official storyline has covered this yet. However, I think it's due to "that" syndrome which I can't recall the name that makes your legs's muscles tired. It can still be caught nowadays at an early age. Don't worry, vaccination has this covered this up. No problem. Back to Elli now! Thus, Elli felt guilty for being powerless when one of her dearest desperately needed help. Ever since her parents has passed away, she dedicated herself to Stu's safety.

In the following days after the debute of her career, Elli grew this admiration toward the doctor's hardworking personality. Her admiration will soon convert into sparkles of love. She is your nemesis for the Doctor's heart.

BLACK HEART EVENT

Head to the Clinic on a Monday or a Tuesday whenever you want. Inside, you'll see Elli and the doctor talking to each other. Elli complements the doctor for his good work. The doctor also made the same remark for her. However, he is also worried about how she is pushing herself more than her limit.

Elli is happy about the Doctor's concern. Yet, she sensed that the doctor's concern was dedicated about her position as a nurse, not as Elli. She was a little upset, but remained quite casual nonetheless. "Eh. She seemed upset, what did I do?" struggled the doctor within his mind.

BIRTHDATE: Unknown WHERE HE RESIDE NOW: In the city

SEXUAL REF: Female PROFESSION: Unknown
FATHER: Duke
MOTHER: Manna

Aja is actually Duke and Manna's daughter. She left Mineral Town because her father and mother are always fighting each other. She especially hates to get involved in their quarrels. So she took the initiative to get the hell out home and move to the big city. She hopes that her absence left them a second thought on why they shouldn't fight. Unfortunately, Duke and Manna still fight each regardless of Aja's effort. Humans can't simply ignore their nature...

He used to live with Gotz. He made a great influence on Stu which made him like bugs too. One day, he saw a magnificent butterfly.
This last flew far away, projecting a cursed breeze which led Greg to an irresistible desire to catch it. He never came back.

BIRTHDATE: Fall 20 WHERE HE RESIDE NOW: Church
HOMETOWN: Mineral Town NATURE: Generous
SEXUAL REF: Male PROFESSION: Pastor/Teacher

MADLY FOND ABOUT: Curry Powder, Miso soup and Honey.

Carter will rarely go out of his domain. Except in the mornings when he goes to pray in the graveyard. Then in the afternoon he goes out to baby-sit Stu and May.

If you have done a mischievous act lately, go confess at the church by entering the left door. Three random options will appear. If you're a lucky one, and the Harvest Goddess has forgiven you, you'll gain something nice. For example, if you've selected the option "The town residents bear a grudge against me" and you somehow managed to get forgiven, then congratulations, you've won extra affection points from all the villagers.

CARTER'S SECRET DOOR

If you wander into the church past 7PM on Wednesday, Carter will be missing. Ever the snoop, your character will check the mysterious door on the right which leads to something behind the church. Wandering out through the door, you will find Carter enjoying a truffle. As he stammers an explanation about the whole thing, he decides to buy your silence by leaving the door unlocked so you can gather the two truffles, Poison Shroom, and regular shroom each day. Truffles are a sweet treat. And if you would fancy a White Grass, you can graciously take some during Winter.

D.SPRITES

The Harvest Sprites live in a hut behind Carter's Church. Their purpose in the game is to aid you in running your farm if you need a break, too much work needs to be done, and etcetera. Although, they need to have at least three hearts before you can assign them any task. Be careful, those little fellows are the same as Gotz. Basically, if you ignore their need to be loved, their affection level will quickly drop. Just be sure to give them a reward when they are done working.
