INTRODUCTION

The Battle Tower was first debut in POKEMON Crystal for Gameboy Color. Now, the Battle Tower has been reappeared in the two brand new games called Pokemon Ruby & Sapphire. You only enter the BATTLE TOWER after you defeat Elite Fours and the Champion then get the ferry to get the BATTLE TOWER with the ticket from your DAD, Norman. The Ruby & Sapphire Battle Tower has less levels than Crystal and everyone believed it is MUCH easier. The levels are: Level 50 & Level 100.

The Battle Tower Battle style will be 3 on 3 battles at same level you chosen to fight with. They are random (just like Crystal Pokemon and trainers)... You need to defeat 7 trainers with 21 Pokemon is a really hard work... Between battles, your POKEMON will be healed afterwards. When you defeat 7 trainers in a row without losing, you will win a PRIZE, See the prize section for more info.

RULES

Since the Battle Tower is like a tournament, there are rules to follow like any other. Below are a list of the rules for the tower, in order to battle.

1. Items cannot be used in the Battle Tower because it's a test of skills.
2. You also can't have the same three Pok~~emon~~ in your line up. Must be

UNIQUE.

3. Each of your Pok~~emon~~on may not hold the same item. Must be UNIQUE.
4. Certain Pok~~emon~~on are not acceptable to enter any battles in the Tower.
 - Mewtwo
 - Mew
 - Lugia
 - Ho-oh
 - Celebi
 - Kyorge
 - Groudon
 - Rayquaza
 - Jirachi
 - Deoxys
 - Eggs
5. You cannot keep the oppoment holding item.
