00 -- INTRODUCTION

Ever wanted to cheat in this game? BADLY? look no further!
In my FAQ, I have over 2000 codes made exclusively for MegaMan Battle Network 2!
Bare with me, because this is my VERY FIRST FAQ ever submitted :D

I hope you enjoy using these codes, as much as I have making them :)

--Hank

If you did not get this FAQ or any codes from this FAQ from:

- A. GameFAQs
- B. NeoSeeker
- C. Myself

then you know the codes were stolen from ME!

01 -- WHAT'S NEW?

Version 1.3b - 07/15/02

Problem fixed where some codes in the list never showed up in this file.
Hopefully this update fixed it :D

Version 1.3a - 07/13/02

New Style codes from Igtenio (User contributions). Codes to have the styles at V2 and V3 (basically the same as mine, just different values... Yes he admits to stealing them :P ) If you wanted to disable them, just use the same codes that I made to disable any style. Also, a new master code has been added (thanks to MRGamer86) so codes will now work in battle! Check it out at the beginning of the codes section!

Version 1.3 - 07/11/02

Added a bunch of style codes: You can now upgrade any style you want in 1 battle!

Version 1.2 - 07/08/02

Added a code for 100 damage per Buster shot, Complete Program Advance Library, and a section containing codes for what chip you get after battle.

Version 1.0 - 07/06/02

Initial Release!

03 - IN BATTLE CODES

MASTER CODE - Created by MRGamer86

87FBE1B4 E81246FD

5E48E75D 396DF480

Note about Master Code: If you use this master code, do NOT have another Master Code enabled, because if you do, the game will crash. The difference between this Master Code and Gameshark.com's master code, is that this one will work in battle. I won't get into any technicalities, so let's just leave it at that. Be happy now that my codes that are IN BATTLE will work now :D

05 - CHIP OBTAINED AFTER BATTLE CODES

Just enter in a code, and after you battle, you will get that chip, and it will even register that specific chip in the Library!

Just don't mix more than one at a time, and no matter what chip you choose, it's code will be the first letter of it's series (e.g. Cannon A B C D E, if you choose Cannon, then you will only get Cannon A)

07 - STYLES CODES

The reason why there is a 'Disable XXXX' code is because you can only fit 3 STYLES in the style selection box. If you already filled them up, and want a different style, use the corresponding Style Disabling code for the style you want to remove, to remove it, then enter the code to have the style you wish to obtain.

08 - BATTLE CHIP CODES

Now for the BIG long list! Each code will add 99 of the specified chip to the bottom of your Sack. If you already own 1 of the type of chip you enter, it will just add to the slot that it is in the Sack. Confusing eh? Just enter a code and try!

09 - PROGRAM ADVANCE CHIP CODES

With these codes, you can choose to have a PROGRAM ADVANCE chip in a specific slot in your folder! Don't mix 2 at the same time (E.G. Put Z-Canon1 in Slot 1 and Z-Canon2 in Slot 1 at the same time, instead put Z-Canon1 in Slot 1 and Z-Canon2 in Slot 2. You know what I mean :D ), and, use these codes at your OWN risk. Considering these are not ACTUAL battle chips achievable in the game, they still DO work, and I have made it through the entire game with a number of these codes activated.

11 - CONCLUSION/USELESS CREDITS

Well this is the big long list of codes I've spent hours upon hours of making just for my fellow GSA'ers :D I really enjoyed playing this game and making codes. It's been a real fun experience :)

I'd like to give some thanks to:

Grilate - For loving my work so much :D

Igtenio - Without you, these codes would not be possible!

MRGamer86 - Making a master code that can be used in battle
