Modes
=====

-Franchise Mode

Otherwise known as Season. You've got to have a long-term strategy to come out on top season after season. Trade or release players, pick up Free Agents, draft Rookies, and play for up to 10 consecutive seasons.

-Playoffs

Like the name imply, playoffs mode and style, do you have what it takes to win the Stanley Cup?

-International

Play against other countries such as Slovakia, Sweden, Russia, Japan, etc.

2002 Offseason Moves
=====

These are the moves that have occurred during the summer of 2002, NHL won't play again until late September or early October. I can not prove to you that ALL of these players that are traded, signed, or re-signed during the offseason is in NHL 2003, this is just for those who want to keep the rosters UP-TO-DATE.

Official trades and signings are from NHL.com and CBS.Sportsline.com

Also, goaltender Dominik Hasek of the Detroit Red Wings retired, Gary Suter from the San Jose Sharks retired, and another goaltender Mike Vernon retired as well.
