2. - Notes

-Firstly, this FAQ contains spoilers. Read at your own risk.

-The numbering system in this guide will not match up with that of the Mailbox SP. Rather, the number represents the most common order in which each mail should be received. Some of this should be obvious (IE: You can't get the second Peach e-mail before the first).

-The numbering in the Help section should be taken with a grain of salt. In theory, you will obtain one e-mail from each person you help via the Trouble Center. In reality, only a few actually send letters. The problem is you can receive them in any order. Think: If you help Person Two before Person One, it would make sense that you'd get a thank you from Person Two BEFORE Person One, right? Numbering will be based on the assumption that the player completed all of the troubles in order, with the approximant placement of thank-yous from non-Trouble Center people.

As for WHEN you get these mails, it would seem that a majority are received soon after beating the Shadow Queen.

-Peach e-mails are sent at the end of each Peach event (and, therefore, received after obtaining a Crystal Star, with the exception of the seventh).

-Story e-mails are, contrary to popular belief, not random. Yes, you may have received one e-mail before another, but that doesn't mean you didn't get them in the right order. Look at the example for the Peach mail above. Even if, by order, you got e-mail #3 after #1, but before #2, you'd still only receive #2 after getting #1, so everything happened in the right order.

-In the Mailbox SP, each e-mail is highlighted in a different color. I used these colors as a means to split them up into sections:

Pink	= Peach	= Mail from Princess Peach.
White	= Story	= Mail meant to help advance the story.
Blue	= News	= Mail meant to give hits.
Yellow	= Trouble Center	= Mail from people Mario has helped..

-Paragraph breaks have been removed from all e-mails. You gotta realize, the Mailbox SP has a vastly smaller area to work with than this text document. Following the original format would make this file very long and very difficult to read.

-After three playthroughs, I have determined that there are 41 e-mails total. A section of the e-mails cannot be obtained if you don't solve their corresponding troubles before defeating the Shadow Queen. If anyone has found more than 41 e-mails, please e-mail me the details.

My Dearest Mario,
I send this letter in the hope that it reaches you safely. I am being held against my will in some strange place. Though I do not know where I am, I remain unharmed and in relative comfort. Those who have captured me seem to be after the map I sent you earlier. They may be hoping to use it to find objects called "Crystal Stars". I do not know what they are planning, but I have a feeling it is not anything positive. Mario, please collect these Crystal Stars before they do. You must! They are already aware that you have the map, so please be very careful. And please...don't worry about me.

I hope you two are doing OK. I have to admit, with Koops gone, I haven't been doing very well.

I get lonely, and I go into Koops's house, and I smell that Koops smell. I guess it's your cologne or whatever, but I makes me so sad...

I'd gotten used to your smell, Kopps...Oh! And the thing is, your dad, Koopley, has his own smell, and it's...weird. I think maybe it's the smell of Hooktail's gut. That's...disgusting.

Now I grossed myself out. Oh, and since he's gonna be my dad, too, someday, I'd better get used to that smell, huh? ...Oh! What am I writing? I'm so embarrassed...but I'm sending this anyway! Hee hee hee!

The Excess Express ran late for the first time in ten years today as a suspicious incident activated station security measures. Area youth and huge train enthusiast Laki (age 18) was found taking pictures in an employee-only area near the Express and was gang-tackled by local samaritans. "I understand how much people are intotrains, but we've got safety and security measure to uphold!" blustered the train engineer. The youth was released with just a warning...this time.

Goomex (age 40), known for napping in the flowers in the west side park, was found eating flowers and given a stern warning by authorities. Asked for comment, Goomez stated, "Well, I just really, really love flowers, and I was hanging out, and before I knew it, they were in my mouth...I'm so ashamed." Citizens of Rogueport responded with disbelief and grudging support for the strengthening of flower-conservation efforts.

"Don't you go smiling at MY wife!" says the jovially jealous shopkeeper. "I'm hers for life, and your fancy big-city teeth aren't gonna change that!" Well, who could doubt their eternal love? #### ROGUEPORT TODAY

In a shocking series of event today, local authorities report that Zess T. (age 55) delivered a left hook to the jaw of gadabout Flavio (age 25) late this very afternoon. Our investigation has revealed that the cause of the feisty fisticuff may have been Zess T.'s anger that a shipment of gourmet ingredients spoiled on the dock because Flavio had held up the dock crew with a marathod two-day tale of high-seas adventure. While Flavio is revovering from temporary memory loss, Zess T. has already been approached by a Glitz Pit talent scout, Don Goombatti. "I think the kid's got spunk. After a lot of soul-searching, I've found that I'm truly happy.

I may not be able to forget the hard times, or even completely remember then, but I've been thinking things over and I believe that my sad past paves the way to my current happiness. Is that deep?

Anyway, I can't think about that stuff all the time. The kids play all day... then they get hungry and cry and scream, so I'm pretty busy all day, every day.

By the way: have you heard? Dried Bouquets are not flowers that have withered and gone dry. They are actually flowers that have had the clocks of their lives adjusted to tick just a little slower than normal flowers. I hope you will take the time to stop and smell these delicate flowers.

In fact, I would like you to come visit me again with the above-mentioned item. Yours in spiciness.

Umm...is this right? DO I just type or what?...yeah, OK.

So...hey! I was so happy you got me that Honey Candy! My voice came back and everything, but maybe I was a little to jolly...I started shouting and now I lost my voice again. I'm resting now.

So, yeah, there may not be much here in Fahr Outpost, but at least we got snow! Yeah! We have snowbomb fights here! we put tiney Bob-ombs inside out snowballs so that they explode when they hit! It's super dangerous, which makes it super cool! Unfortunately, it also makes it super illegal! Which is pretty lame...but come visit anyway!

Later! Gob

It's shocking to me just how many people don't know where these tunes come from. I find it a little sad, too.....

Peach - Letters from Peach are accompanied by the Super Mario World theme.
Anonymous - Letters from Anonymous are accompanied by the Ice Land theme from Super Mario Brothers 3.

E-mails that come from anybody else are accompanied by Toadstool's FanFare, which is played when receiving a letter from Toadstool in Super Mario Brothers 3. It shows up a few times in Super Mario World, too.
