Due to the abuse of my e-mails to send me mind-blowing amounts of spam (as well as questions that are answered in my walkthrough), I have been forced to stop all my e-mails.

1 - Why This FAQ Exists

During the course of Starfox Adventures, one has to enter the ThornTail Store many times to buy items that are pivotal to the game. The actual buying, however, works like a garage sale, as one usually doesn't buy an item for full price; one could save many Scarabs if he knows the correct price. This guide lists the lowest possible prices for all items so the reader can save as many Scarabs as possible.

Take note: For some of these items, it is possible to get a lower price, but sometimes you will not get it. The prices below should be safe to use.

2 - The Prices

I have organized the many items first by which room they are in, and then alphabetically. IMPORTANT NOTE: If you go lower than the lowest possible price, the lowest price will be raised.
