1.0	Getting Started

In order to make figurines, you first need to get the figurine book. To get the figurine book, you must be at the point in the story where you have destroyed the Asgard Human Ranch, and still have access to Asgard. Enter Asgard, and travel to the screen towards the east and go into the house to the bottom right in front of a dog and two women. Once you're inside, enter the east door and talk to Harley who will then give you the figurine book. If Harley doesn't give you the book, make sure that you have all eight of your party members with you and that none of them are in an odd condition, like Colette not being able to talk.

Once you acquire the figurine book, you will be able to start making figurines by standing near the fire place at Dirk's house and pressing (A). However, the best time to start making figurines is once you go through the final door in Vinheim (guarded by the dragon), since you will have unlocked all figurines at that time.

2.0 Dirk the thief

I would advise you to make all the figurines that require only a pellet, fine pellet, or a super pellet before moving onto those which require rare pellets. Here's an example:

Max (requires pellet)

Lloyd (requires pellet + rare pellet)

Suppose you want to make a Lloyd figurine, you would give Dirk one pellet and one rare pellet. You presume that all goes well and you will soon have a brand new Lloyd figurine to add to your collection, right? But you are soon disappointed when Dirk hands over a Max figurine instead of Lloyd. Then you wonder, where did the rare pellet go? Well, the answer is that Dirk stole it because he doesn't like to use rare pellets unless he has to. So once you finish making all the figurines that only require a pellet, fine pellet, or super pellet, then you make the ones that also require the rare pellets, which leaves Dirk no choice but to use that rare pellet.

If you had no idea about what I just said, just follow my instructions at the top of this section =D

3.0 Figurine List and Recipes

The total number of pellets you will need is listed below:

Pellets: 90
Fine pellets: 61
Super pellets: 50
Pellets + Rare pellets: 20
Fine pellets + Rare pellets: 20
Super pellets + Rare pellets: 47

This list is only one possible list, since the pellet requirements are probably different for each person (but not by too much). Anyways, don't worry about that for now, first you must collect 90 Pellets, 61 Fine pellets, 50 Super pellets, and 87 Rare pellets.

4.0 Acquiring pellets

There are quite a few ways to acquire pellets, but the fastest ways are to steal, using Colette, or to charm using Zelos. Some monsters that you fight will also drop pellets, but there's only a small chance.

4.1 Dropping Pellets

The following the names of monsters that drop pellets.

[Pellets]

Basilisk-----Toize Valley Mine

Jellyfish-----Meltokio Sewers

Velocidragon--Near Luin

Water Element-Thoda Geyser

[Fine pellets]

Black Bat-----Near Meltokio

Druid-----Temple of Darkness

Giant Snail-----Temple of Earth
Gold Slime-----Temple of Lightning
Guardian of Lighting-Boss Battle
Jellyfish-----Meltokio Sewers
Roller Snail-----Toize Valley Mine
Samael-----Derris-Kharlan

[Super pellets]

Clay Golem---Toize Valley Mine
Ghoul-----Gaoracchia Forest
Lobo-----Temple of Ice
Spiked Snail-Latheon Gorge

[Rare pellets]

Aska-Boss Battle

4.2 How to steal Pellets

To steal Pellets, you must make sure you have the Item Thief tech. for Colette.

Then, you need to set up Colette's EX Skill to steal better. Here's the set up:

Ex Gem Level 1 - Sharp-Eyed
Ex Gem Level 2 - Magic
Ex Gem Level 3 - Lucky
Ex Gem Level 4 - Stat Boost

The last thing you need to do is set Item Thief or Item Rover to one of Colette's B button combinations.

If you're at a high level, there's one more thing you need to do, equip Colette with the weakest weapon available so that she doesn't kill the enemy before getting the item.

Once you steal what you need, you should run so that you can battle the same enemy again. To make this faster, you should equip a Magic Mist to one of your party members, which you can either buy in the Altamira Hotel or collect it east of Hakonesia Peak, in the treasure chest near the water. Magic Mist will make running away faster.

4.3 Stealing Pellets

The following are names of monsters from which you can steal pellets from:

[Pellets]

Jellyfish-Meltokio Sewers

Stealing Pellets from Jellyfish is easy since they don't have any good attacks, and there are usually two jellyfish per battle.

[Fine pellets]

Giant Snail-Temple of Earth
Gold Slime--Temple of Lightning

Here I would suggest choosing the Giant Snail for two reasons, 1) It's a more common encounter 2) There are fewer enemies in the same battle, making it easier to steal

[Super pellets]

Ghoul-----Gaoracchia Forest

Lobo-----Temple of Ice
Spiked Snail-Latheon Gorge

Here I would recommend the Spiked Snail since the Lobo is extremely annoying to steal from, and the Ghoul will have many enemies appear with it in a battle, and many of those enemies of annoying or long range attacks.

[Rare pellets]
Phantom Knight-Derris-Kharlan

The Phantom Knight only appears in the first area of Derris-Kharlan so when you teleport at the Tower of Salvation, make sure you select "no" to going into the deepest part of Derris Kharlan if you finished the sacred stone puzzle.

The Phantom Knight is neither a rare nor common encounter, but is long staff or sword (and I mean really long) can be really annoying.

4.4 Zelos' charm

Zelos has the ability to charm women or girl npcs into giving him items or money, all he has to do is talk to them. But this only works if his Ex Gem Level 2 is set to "Personal". The rarity of the item that Zelos will get depends on his LUK stat. If you want an item like Rare pellets, you will have to equip Zelos with items such as Rabbit feet that will boost his LUK stat.

Once you have a high LUK stat and receive an item like Rare pellets, you now know that you will be able to get other rare, unwanted items. If Zelos' LUK stat is high enough, he might even be able to avoid receiving common items like Pellets, and only receive rare items.

By talking to women, Zelos' LUK stat may rise or fall, depending on the woman's reaction. To avoid lowering his LUK stat, stay away from depressing places like Exire and Ozette, and stick to places like Meltokio where Zelos is popular.

5.0 Completion Reward

Once you complete the figurine book (gain all 288 figurines), return to Asgard and talk to Harley once again. A short scene will occur in which Genis will gain the title "Figurine Collector".

For Genis, this title is pretty much useless since it boosts his STR and DEF which he doesn't really use in battle and does nothing to his TP or INT. Although, this title might be helpful in mania mode since the enemies tend to ignore fighters like Lloyd and Zelos and aim for magic casters such as Genis.

6.0 Credits and Legal

This section isn't quite completed yet but it will be soon =D
