Question: The trivia question goes here.

Answer: The answer that the game counts as correct goes here.

Side Notes

I have heard that some of the 'correct' answers are actually incorrect. However, I am not knowledgeable enough to find these inaccuracies on my own. If you e-mail me and explain why certain answers are actually incorrect, I will post your explanation with credit.

All of the questions and answers are copied verbatim from the game, spelling and grammatical errors included. The only changes I made to the questions and answers were capitalization corrections (first letter/word of the answers and elements, among other things). I take pride in my writing, so please e-mail me if you find an error (either my spelling/grammar, or differences between how the game worded/spelled questions/answers and how I worded/spelled questions/answers). My e-mail is JMill1987@comcast.net

I know the layout isn't all that pretty, but it's direct (and it's my first FAQ).

Trivia Inaccuracies

Note - These are copied down [almost] exactly how they appeared in my e-mail.

-Act 1, Question 31 (Not so much an inaccuracy, more like an explanation): What they don't tell you is that Jean's mind was inside her friend's mind when her friend died after being hit by the car.

-Act 3, Question 3: This issue was Emma Frost's first appearance. I own it and was irritated that the game marked me wrong.

<http://www.uncannyxmen.net/db/characters/showquestion.asp?fldAuto=1143>

Act 3: Question 3: The Game is right, it is Shaw. [Havok3595] is right, it was Emma's first appearance, but it was also Shaw's. They asked for which leader, not which member of the HellFire Club.

<http://www.marveldirectory.com/individuals/b/blackking.htm>

-Act 4, Question 12: No biggie, Siryn (sic)'s name is just misspelled. In the game, that is...your FAQ has it as it appears there.

-Act 4, Question 18: Uncanny X-Men number 28 was NOT in 1975, but in 1967.

<http://www.comics.org/details.lasso?id=20690>

-Act 5, Question 28: The X-Men have encountered the Skrulls several times. In the trial of Phoenix (Uncanny X-Men #137), a supposedly impartial Skrull observer cheats to help the Imperial Guard defeat the X-Men. Some X-Men, including Xavier, were replaced by Skrulls circa Uncanny X-Men 275-277. Xavier later convinced a team of Skrulls to impersonate some of the X-Men in one of the Marvel mega-crossovers...I want to say Operation Galactic Storm.
