ii) How to Play / FAQ

Bibles Adventures has three fun games a player can enjoy. Let us ignore for a moment that in all three the controls are exactly the same, and the gameplay virtually identical, and focus on how they are different.

Noah's Ark is the first game, it is also the hardest. In Noah's Ark, the player has control of Noah and must save pairs of animals from the flood which God will present to the earth. Noah can carry many animals at a time, which is useful as otherwise the game may very well take forever. Noah can also grab things to throw at animals, which knocks them out for a bit. He's also able to lore them with food. Here's the story God gives:

God saw how corrupt the Earth had become ... and said to Noah, "I am going to put an end to all the people, ... I am surely going to destroy both them and the Earth. So make yourself an Ark ... I am going to bring floodwaters on the Earth... You are to bring into the ark two of all living creatures, male and female..."

Genesis 12:14, 17, 19

Level 1: Snakes, Oxen, Pigs, Cows, Monkeys and Horses. This is an easy level to complete. Cows and oxen fall out of your hand if you jump while carrying them around. Since they are slow though, this is not a big problem. Monkeys will climb up walls and anything else nearby, but are not too hard to get, though they can throw stuff at you. Horses try to jump over you if you get too near them, which is kind of annoying. The hardest to find enemies are the snakes. They are over by the grey caves to the left side of the map. Do not waste you time trying to get a red snake from a tree, you can not. The red snakes also hurt poor Noah. Pigs are the worst in my opinion, you either need to knock them out with something or distract them with food. Once you have all twelve animals it is on to level two.

Level 2: Ugh, this level is evil. You need to get turtles, pandas, raccoons, blue jays, black birds, eagles and toucans. Almost everything can fly or climb a tree, which makes this level very hard. Pandas are mean and will kick your butt if you get in front of them. Knock them out by throwing something. Raccoons are not hard to get at all but they do like to climb trees. Blue Jays move very slowly, but they can fly, so that does make them difficult. Toucans and blue jays move real fast and jump somewhat like horses did. You can try to get in front of them and catch them as they land from a jump. Eagles move very slowly, they are not much of a challenge. Blackbirds are quick, but do not fly around as much as toucans and blue jays did. This level has many obstacles as well, such as red snakes on trees and other kinds of birds which will lift you to the sky. If you are holding anything while lifted, you will drop it.

Level 3: This level is time consuming. Instead of two of everything, you need... SEVEN! You need seven bananas, coconuts, pears, grapes, hay, wheat, bulls and cows. shrug. Bulls and cows are easy enough to find. Wheat and hay turn up easily enough too. The real trick is getting the monkeys to throw all of the fruits at you and returning them. Eventually they will though. Also, avoid the rolling ball thingies, they will knock you down and you will drop something. Be careful not to get hit by the items you need to grab, which monkeys throw at you. Fill up to four items before returning, or you really will be at this all day. Make use of the red monkey just to the left of the ark. And of course, remember they will not throw things unless you are under them! Once completed, you will get to watch for about three minutes while Noah does an inventory... just kidding, he will only count the animals.

Level 4: Hey, hey. It's the last level of Noah's Ark! This level takes place at night. Noah has a jar with a lightning bug in it. Should the jar be shattered, only the occasional flash of lightning will enable Noah to see. Fear not though, you can run all the way back to the left and get another one. God is not cruel enough to strand poor Noah, though it is a lot more fun. Noah needs to collect two tigers, panthers, lions, leopards, koalas, coyotes, owls and ducks. One problem with this level is that you will need to carry the jar to see, which means you can only hold three other things. As you will need to knock out or distract tigers to catch them, you will at times only be able to hold two things. This level has a bunch of red snakes and bouncing ball things to impede Noah's progress as well. This level is actually quite easy compared to the previous two. Noah will take his final inventory of the animals.

I hate to spoil the game, but;

Having gathered all that was requested of him, Noah and his family were sealed in the ark by God. The Earth was flooded and all living things died. Noah and those with him came out when the surface of the ground was dry.

The second game is the Baby Moses game. In this game, Moses's mother must grab Moses and run him to the end of the level. Here's a bit of story:

Pharaoh gave this order to all his people; "Every boy that is born you must throw into the Nile, but let every girl live." ... A man of the house of Levi married a Levite woman, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him for three months. But when she could hide him no longer, she got a papyrus basket for him... And placed the child in it and put it... along the bank of the Nile. - Exodus 1:22, 2:1-3

This game is the most difficult of the three, I would say. Baby Moses must be kept near the woman at all times. If he ventures off of the screen, she must go all the way back to the start of the level and grab him again. Try to hold something else along with him, so you can take a hit and not drop him. Guards, birds, animals. Everything is your enemy in this game. By the third level the ground will start having moving holes in it, which she can fall through. She and Moses can not swim, and there is no shortage of water in Egypt. Moses mother has no way of defending herself, aside from throwing some things she can find at enemies, or picking them up. Neither of these are very effective, it is recommended on just run and jump through the levels, and walk on the clouds when able to.

David and Goliath is the final game. It is a combination of the previous two. In the first few levels David must bring flocks of sheep to safety from other animals. After a few levels of this, you must get past those mean Philistine people. You will have a slingshot though. The sheep levels are first and they are pretty easy. Other animals may try to stop you, like lions bears and rams. Scorpions are annoying as they do not seem to be able to be killed. However, these levels are just like Noah's Ark, just with a lot more jumping left and right.

David said to Saul, "Let no one lose heart on account of this Philistine; your servant will go and fight him." Saul replied, "You are not able to... fight him; you are only a boy, and he has been fighting man from his youth." But David said to Saul, "Your servant has been keeping his father's sheep. When a lion or bear came... I went after it, struck it and rescued the sheep..." 1 Samuel 17:32-35

After doing the four sheep levels...

The [David] ... with his sling in hand, approached the Philistine. - 1 Samuel 17:40

Now David will have to climb up a mountain, dodging falling rocks, enemy troops and scorpions. If hit by a scorpion. David will be stunned momentarily and fall down a long, long way. When you finally reach the top of the mountain, Goliath will wait there laughing at you. He can jump causing the earth to shake, which will make it impossible to David to shoot for a while. If David hits Goliath anywhere, Goliath will stop moving to laugh at David. One clean shot to the forehead and Goliath will fall to the ground, lifeless.

After Goliath is defeated;

Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, [David] slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into the forehead, and he fell facedown on the ground. - 1 Samuel 17:49

Throughout the game there are a few bible verses and tips. Each verse and tip gives a player more life. This is what the tips say:

Hint: Press "Down" and "A" to jump down.

So we may with confidence, "The lord is my helper, I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?" - Hebrews 13:6

The lord who deliver me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine. - 1 Samuel 17:37

For you have been my hope, O sovereign lord, my confidence since my youth. - Psalm 71:5

When calamity comes, the wicked are brought down, but even in death the righteous have a refuge. - Proverbs 14:32

But he who stands firm to the end will be saved. - Matthew 24:13

Though he stumble, he will not fall, for the lord upholds him with his hand. - Psalm 37:24

A righteous man cares for the need of his animal, but the kindest acts of the wicked are cruel. - Proverbs 12:10

David said ..."When a lion or bear came and carried off a sheep from the flock, I went after it, struck it and rescued the sheep..." - 1 Samuel 17:34-35

God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. - Psalm 46:1

Hint: Pushing "Up" on trees, cavern walls, and ladders allows you to climb.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. - Psalm 23:4

Hint: While walking, pressing "B" will make you run faster and jump farther.

You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles wings and brought you to myself. - Exodus 19:4

Hint: Pressing "B" while pushing down causes you to drop an object. Pressing "B" while pushing up will rotate your stack of objects.

But whoever listens to me will live in safety and be at ease, without fear of harm. - Proverbs 1:33

With me are riches and honor, enduring wealth and prosperity. My fruit is better than fine gold; what I yield surpasses choice silver. - Proverbs 8:18, 19

The righteous eat to their hearts content, but the stomach of the wicked goes hungry. - Proverbs 13:25
