* Prologue *
```

Gregorio: Oh, no! Alexis has left for the planet earth with the secret file on the TOZ system.
           Why don't we send our ships
           to follow her?

Natasha: Calm down, okay? She must know what she is doing.

Gregorio: Well, if you say so...
           But what if...what if the secret file is taken by the terrorist group, Gulfer?

Natasha: I'll be responsible for this. Why don't we let her do it her way, for now.

Gregorio: Well...if you'll take the responsibility. But why did she take the TOZ system
           to the dying earth?

Natasha: Because...she wants the planet earth to be reborn.

Gregorio: No kidding! she wants to save that ruined planet?

Natasha: I know you don't believe this, but the earth was once a beautiful planet.

In 3008, the human race expands its territory into outer space.

However, the planet earth has been seriously damaged by extensive environmental destruction, radioactive waste, and, air/sea pollution by poisonous chemical materials that have overwhelmed the earth's self-purification system.

All life on the planet is dead, and the population of the earth's space colony is dying off due to pollution. The last humans are almost extinct.

Zoggian: Your majesty, Zz Badnusty. We've intercepted a transmission from the empire of the Leezaluth star cluster to the planet earth.

Zz Badnusty: All right, but they don't know we're here so we have caught them with their guard down. Read the transmission.

Zoggian: Yes, your majesty. "To the surviving human race; a terrorist force, Gulfer is invading your earth to find polluted waste to be used to build military weapons. If you, humans, cannot stop Gulfer, we will be forced to blow up your Sun and destroy the earth. But, if you can prevent this crisis, we will revive your dying planet so that you can go on living."

Zz Badnusty: Ha, ha, haa. Give me a break. What can the puny human race do? They are idiots!

Zoggian: But your majesty, there is more...The Leezaluth army has given the TOZ system to the last hero of earth, Dan.

Zz Badnusty: What?? The humans have the TOZ system?

Zoggian: yes, that is what it says here.

Zz Badnusty: Hmm, the humans have the TOZ system! This is interesting... We will see what the humans can do with it.

The TOZ system is a super-evolutionary artificial intelligence weapon. By docking the TOZ with an enemy weapon, the TOZ will adapt and acquire the weapon's characteristics. The data is automatically transferred to the TOZ system to modify its weapons, power them up, and give the TOZ multi-attack capabilities.

Alexis: Dan,
What are you thinking about?

Dan: Alexis, how can I possibly save the earth?

Alexis: Think positive! I'm sure you can do it!

Dan: Why did you give the TOZ system to the dying human race?

Alexis: Because, I want to see the earth as beautiful and green? As it once was.

Dan: The earth was once green?

Alexis: Yes. You are the only person who can make it happen again, Dan. You are the last chance the human race has to save the earth.

Dan: All right, Alexis, I'll do it. I will save the earth with my own hands!

Alexis: Yes, Dan! I know you can do it!

Dan: All systems check out fine. What about the TOZ system.

Alexis.

Alexis: TOZ is working fine. I'll take control of it for now.
Dan! there's an attacker on the port side...it's the Gulfer armada!

Dan: what!? they're this close?

Alexis: The TOZ system must be too great a threat to them. They cannot ignore us.

Dan: Okay. Battle stations, Alexis,
this one is for mother earth!!

Alexis: Yes, sir! I'll open the launch hatch now! Full speed ahead!

* Ending *

Zz Badnasty: No! oh! no!
How could this happen?
What? Oh nooooo.....

Natasha: The terrorist group, Gulfer
lost the war. Their leader
Queen Zz Badnasty is dead
and their plan was thwarted.
Dan, what will you do now?

Dan: I will go back to earth and renew that beautiful, green planet.

Alexis: Dan...
Natasha, I want...
I mean...

Natasha: Alexis, go with him and enjoy your life. Always believe in yourself.

Alexis: Oh, thank you, Natasha.

Natasha: We will keep our eyes on
you. Good luck!

Dan: I don't know when it will be,
but one day I will show the beautiful earth to the kids of the space colony humans.

Alexis: Yes, and we will all live together on the earth!

Dan: Yes...and, I want you to stay with me, Alexis.

Alexis: Oh, Dan.....
