[2] Introduction [2]

-----
Hello. This is a walkthrough for GameFAQ'S on the NES puzzle game Fire N' Ice. Sometimes, even though you're reading an FAQ or walkthrough for a game, you get stuck because the person writing the FAQ just isn't making sense to you; and at a critical part of the game, no less. Well not with this FAQ!
Each stage of Fire 'N Ice has been boiled down to a sequence of button presses that, if followed exactly, will complete the stage. I generally tried to boil it down to as few steps as possible, but I'm not making any promises. Lastly, if any of my information is a bit obvious, it's not because I think you can't figure it out, it's because I'm very thorough.

[3] Controls [3]

Button	-	Use in game	-	How I write it
A, B	-	Use wand	-	A
Left, Right	-	Move/Turn left or right	-	L and R
Up, Down	-	Go up/down	-	U and D
Start	-	Pause	-	////////////////
Select	-	Not used	-	////////////////

[4] Timing [4]

Sometimes you'll need to time a move correctly, in which case, I'll put "(t)" before it, and sometimes I'll feel the need to let you know just how it should be timed, in which case I'll put a number next to the t, like "(t2)". Just below the list of commands will be the descriptions of how to time the action, after the appropriate t#.

Also, keep in mind that although pushing a block pauses all enemy movement until the block is done moving, they won't skip a beat when Dana (you) falls.

[5] Walkthrough [4]

Some final clarifications. The commands listed are the buttons to push to finish the stage, which includes turning Dana around, pushing blocks and so on. And when you need to push one button several times, push it a number of times equal to the number next to the command.

[0-X] Druidle [0-X]

The stage starts with you boxed in, but soon Druidle clears out some blocks when he attacks. You should take note that, like blocks falling, his attack freezes time, so if you're in the path when it starts, you're toast! I've indicated which actions will lead you into, and which will lead you out of, Druidle's line of fire. ie: "(L A R2)" means that pushing L puts you into the line of fire, and only after you do both R will you get out.

R5 (A R) L A (L2) A (L A R2) L A2 (L A R2) L A2 (L A R2) (R L2 R A R) R L8
R2 L A L6

I hope you got to work out some puzzles on your own, but most importantly I hope you had fun playing Fire 'N Ice!

Mrunnels started this FAQ 9 years ago, and wrote out the command lists from World One, Stage One, to World Six, Stage Five. NightChime (I) finished the FAQ by writing the remaining command lists, from World Six, Stage Six, to the end of the game. Most of Mrunnels' command lists had errors in them, some to the point where I had to start them over from scratch, but I did my best to reconstruct the movements that he made to complete the stage. I attempted to contact him via e-mail (Playnin3@aol.com), but the message bounced back, so I completed the walkthrough on my own.

Please e-mail me at night_chime@yahoo.com if any of the commands lists (whether by Mrunnels or NightChime) kill you, don't complete the stage, or even if the stage can be completed in fewer steps. I would also be more than happy to answer questions, feedback, or suggestions. For instance, if there's any desire for it, I might consider adding text to explain some of the more complex levels, if not all of them.
