2. - Strategies

-----

Offense

-----

-----

The One-Timer

-----

This is always the best strategy in any hockey game. The only problem is, is that it's very difficult to execute in this game. A one-timer is a pass you make to a player and once it reaches them, they shoot. That will give the goalie very little time to react and works great against slow goalies. The only problem is that you are usually alone by their net and all five of their skaters are already blocking any possible moves. If you ever get a chance to use this, use it. It is always the most effective.

-----

The Breakaway

-----

These are very rare in this game but it is possible. An easy way to get one of these is to control somebody and leave them on the other end. Quickly change to a defenseman and he will start skating back. Steal the puck from the opponent and try to pass it to them while they are still skating back and you will usually be behind the defensemen. Now just skate in towards the goalie and try to deke him out. I know there isn't a deke button but if you move around a lot, the goalie still gets a little confused and you will have a better chance of scoring. Just make sure not to make a two line pass.

 The Slot
 -----

For those of you who don't know, the slot is the area right in front of the goalie. There will usually be a player in the slot which is a great spot for a one timer. It is an easy spot to pass to when you are behind the enemy net. Try waiting there as long as possible until a teammate gets in front of the net, then pass and execute a one timer for the perfect scoring opportunity.

-----
 The Point
 -----

For those of you who don't know, the point is the area on the ends of the blue lines. The defensemen are usually over there. If there is nobody to pass to near the net, try passing to them. You could either take a slap shot from there or you could wait there and see if another passing lane will open up for you.

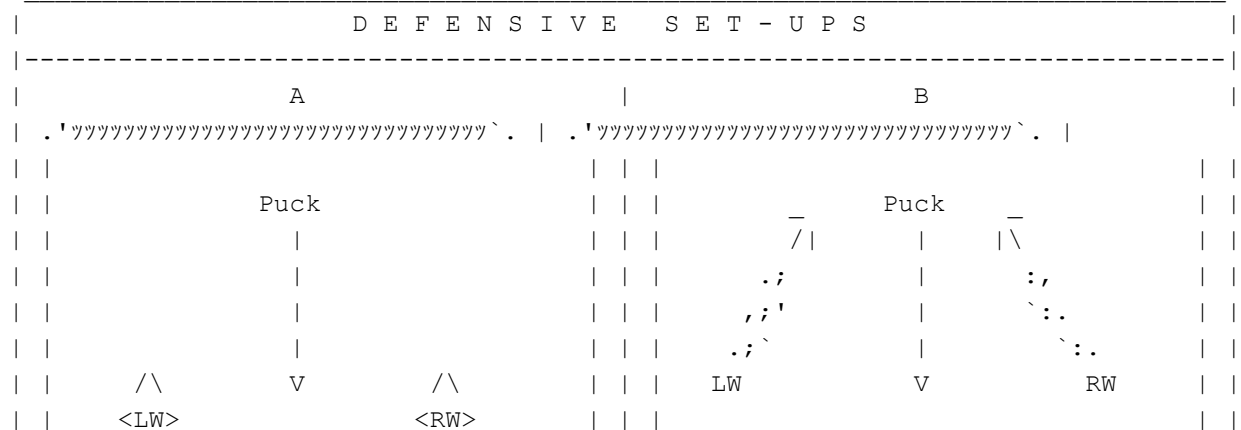

-----
 The Slap Shot
 -----

This one is very obvious but in most NES hockey games, very effective. If you know you are about to get leveled by an opponent, just wind up and let the puck fly. This doesn't always work but this you also have a great chance at scoring when you do this.

-----
 The 2-1 Break
 -----

This is when you got two forwards skating towards the net (one with the puck) and they only have one defenseman blocking you. Try for a one timer but if the defensemen is blocking your passing lane, then try to score like you would if you were on a breakaway.
