Version - 1.0 The release date has finally come! This has been a rather lengthy project, but I wanted to finish it before it got posted at all the gaming sites.

2.0 I added few more CAWs.

2.5 I added a few more creations. I also decided to put

"NEW" next to the ones that are new. I only did this in the Table of Contents, by the way.

- 2.6 Added a new CAW.
- 3.0 In a recent conversation with Zombie, he allowed me to use his Create- A- Wrestler Move Lists. HUGE THANKS go out to him!
- 3.1 Added a few CAWs.
- 3.2 Added a CAW.
- 3.3 Added three more CAWs.
- 3.4 A minor change.
- 3.5 Added a bunch of CAWs. This is the FINAL update.

This FAQ deals with ONLY the Create- A- Wrestler mode of the game. It is also commonly referred to "Edit- A- Wrestler." It all depends on whatever you prefer. I'm no longer accepting CAWs!

Note: I occasionally have problems with replying to America Online users. Sometimes the Parental Controls or whatever will conflict with a reply of mine, so I'd suggest getting a web- based email service like Hotmail or whatever. I haven't tried all web- based email services, so I can't tell you which one is best, but Hotmail suits all of my present needs very well.

Note: If you can't figure out what something in a creations details, please don't email me. I didn't test them, I simply received them and posted them in here.

Note: If you're looking for a CAW with a complete moves list and I don't have one shown, DO NOT email me. I don't have it. I'm not hiding anything from you. WHat you see in this file is all I have. Sorry.

Note: I didn't really know how to properly organize them, so I tried to put the creations in either WWF, WCW, ECW, or Misc. I would have added Japan, but I don't know if I'll have very many from that part.

Michael Cole

Go to the Edit choice on the main menu and select one of the editing bodies to make Mike. What I did was just cloned JR's moves and changed the attire to:

Body Size - 0
Ring Attire - 26
Tattoo - 0
Upper Body - 49 - 12/21
Entrance Attire - 0
Weapons/Props - 1

Just change the other outfits to different colors. There you go!
The small, wirey and annoying Michael Cole is yours to beat up.

Then push Decision. Then, go to Bill's fighting style and go to ally / enemy. Make sure that all of the rivals are NONE, but leave him being accompanied by the Hos. And there you have it: Man Mountain. He could be placed with the Brood, but the storyline is that he's half-vampire, half-human. They kicked him out for not being totally vampiric. So he feuds with the tallest wrestlers in the WWF to show that he's worthy. How sad.

5. Create- A- Wrestler Move Lists

This section was written and contributed by my good friend Zombie R Kane. If you have any questions or comments, you can reach him via email at:
static666@zombie316.freemove.co.uk

The numbers correspond to when you are selecting a Special so Move number 1 is the Bearhug instead of the Alternating Knee Strikes 01 for front grapples, Abdominal Stretch Pin instead of Abdominal Stretch for back grapples etc.

I have not included weak A grapples for front grapples.

I have not included moves 3 to 7 in Irish Whip Grapple moves.

I have not included the Back Turnbuckle Grapple moves.

These moves are all categorized. You will find that I have included some moves twice but not others. For instance I have not included Powerbombs in Back Damage Moves because Powerbombs is an obvious Categorization and people know that they are Back Damage Moves.

Some moves such as the Cradle DDT have been included in a different section, in this case Suplex/Back Damage Moves. This is because the game is wrong and I have checked on the moves so if I felt it was in the wrong category I put in the correct category.

Some moves will have a name in brackets as well as a correct name. This tells you that the move is used by this person and it tells you what the real name of the move is and in some cases the Finisher name if it is a finisher for someone i.e 25. Jarrett Face Buster ("The Stroke")
