Ok, so let us go over a few basic things...

- 1) If you see anything that looks like my guide somewhere else, and you think it was stolen without my permission, please let me know. Thanks.
- 2) As of currently, I am not allowing any other sites besides GameFAQs to host my guides. IGN being a possible exception from time to time, but otherwise, I'm afraid I must decline your offers under most circumstances. You are, of course, still free to try. Who knows? Also, under the odds that you are granted permission, please check regularly the following link for updates.
<http://www.gamefaqs.com/features/recognition/8373.html>
Sites that have free permission to host my guides are:
 - + GameFAQs.com (Remember kids, GameSpot is sort of an affiliate of GFAQs.com, so they link directly, and thus, they are ok with me)
 - + IGN.com (Though they are from time to time)
 - + NeoSeeker.com
- 3) If sending an inquiry about this game, be sure to put, at the very least, "Persona 3 Portable" in the title, just to help me sort my mail. Otherwise, it might get lost and you get no answer. Do note however, I have the right to answer you or not. That is, obvious questions or information you could easily reach in here might not be answered. I normally still answer almost every mail (Yeah, I'm a good person), though that's not 100% of all cases. Also, I know my English isn't perfect but at least I tried when writing this, please do the same when you mail in a question.
My mail is at the top and bottom of this file.
- 4) Needless to say, this guide is copyrighted according to the DMCA and stuff. So, please don't steal anything (If you want to use something, a bit of information or whatever, go ahead, but give proper credit where due). Just don't take the whole thing.
- 5) Mails thanking me for the help and whatnot are always appreciated. ^^
(Honestly, they alone are enough to make me keep going sometimes)

Feel free to write in English or Spanish, whichever you prefer. ;p
Technically, I can understand written French, but don't expect an answer in French.

[000]-----00. ToDo, Updates & Forewords-----

To Do:

- Finish the Persona Compendium.
- Complete de Item Collection.
- Finish Vision Quest. Monad. All that stuff.
- Anything else I didn't log here.

Updates:

- Version 0.70 - Filesize: 365,725 (357 KBs)
Date: August 12, 2010
Finished walkthrough. Added the Special Fusion Combination to aid in getting those tricky Personas easier.
Sorry for the long wait. Got a bit busy.
- Version 0.50 - Filesize: 293,057 (286 KBs)
Date: July 29, 2010
I have this thing for updating past midnight for whatever reason.
Anyway, walkthrough almost done. Just half of January left.
Most SLs are done, Empress and Aeon are the only ones that aren't.
I have about 70% of the enemies of Tartarus down (not counting Monad), but waiting on that, not added yet.
Haven't done much for the item/persona collection.
Included some other random sections here and there.
- Version 0.15 - Filesize: 145,259 Bytes (141 KBs)
Date: July 23, 2010
Started. Walkthrough up to July 6, have a good chunk of SL down. Not much else included in the file yet.

Forewords:

Not much. I was slightly surprised when I saw the NA announcement, but hey. Since I had never played P3 before (just recently became a fan of SMT), it worked perfect for me. =3

-----01. Game Introduction-----

[011]-----01.01. Characters-----

This section might be considered spoilers, since it shows the characters that join you and their Persona, along with skills and other tidbits.

An 'X' at the end of a skill name (in the line) means that that skill will be part of the final 8 the character will have.

Yukari Takeba [Lovers]

Her weapon is a Bow. And thus, her attacks are of the Pierce type. Going by the Lovers standard, she's focused more on healing and keeping you in shape rather than direct damage.

Her Persona is Io, which later awakens into Isis.

Junpei Iori [Magician]

His weapon is the Two-Handed Sword. So you have someone else with the Slash attribute. He may not necessarily excel at something, but he can cover multiple grounds, somewhat. He's the strongest in terms of raw, physical power.

His Persona is Hermes, which later awakens into Trismegistus.

Akihiko Sanada [Emperor]

Akihiko uses his own fists to STRIKE the enemy. Get it? Fine... His persona is focused on debuffing the enemy, and hitting it with a bit of electricity for good measure.

His Persona is Polydeuces, which later awakens into Caesar.

Mitsuru Kirijo [Empress]

Mitsuru uses a Rapier to do... Slash attacks. Interesting. I mean, you see her pierce the enemy but the game says Slash.

She has a combination of Ice magic, some healing, and status effect magic. She is more along the lines of a backup healer with the ability to enfeeble the enemy a bit, I'd say. She has the highest Magic ability of all, bar the FeMC anyway.

Ken Amada [Justice]

Ken is the youngest member of SEES. He wields a large spear as if it were child's play (no pun intended). Even though he kicks the enemy, his attacks count as Pierce. I suppose he kicks with the tip. *shrugs* He focuses on Pierce attacks, a bit of Electricity, but can also replace Yukari if you need a dedicated healer.

His Persona is Nemesis, which later awakens into Kala-Nemi.

Shinjiro Aragaki [Hierophant]

Shinjiro is an old friend of Akihiko. He carries a heavy axe, which he wields as if it were made of paper with one hand. His strength at dropping it on the enemy earn his attacks the Strike type.

Just... don't get attached to him.

His Persona is Castor. He doesn't awaken to any other Personas.

- Escape: Attempt to run from battle; earns you nothing, of course.

There are a few other important details to the Battle System of P3 though.

You will notice the Triangle Button alongside the words Rush. This is merely an auto-attack option. If you set it on, every character will use their normal attack, in a sped-up manner. Useful for low level encounters, as this is generally not a good strategy on the upper echelons of Tartarus.

1 More

The tactic you have to take advantage of the most, is the '1 More' attack. Everytime you either critically hit an enemy, or hit 'em with their weakness, the character that did so will get one more attack. And this can go on for as many enemies are there.

Whenever you do this as well, the enemy will fall down. If you critically hit them again or hit them with their weakness again, they will only become dizzy (on most occasions), but you won't get another '1 More'.

If they stand up, however, they are fair game again.

All-Out Attack

So, what happens when all enemies are knocked down? You are able to initiate an All-Out Attack SO LONG AS the main character is able to properly act.

Meaning, if you are charmed, knocked down, etc., you can't start an All-Out Attack.

This attack deals substantial damage to all enemies, but resets their condition. Meaning, if they were dizzy or knocked down, they'll be up again after this attack if they remained alive. This is also the primary way to obtain a Shuffle Time post-battle. So always try to go for All-Out Attacks.

All-Out Attacks are not of any particular kind of attack; therefore, any enemy being strong against (or even nullifying) Strike, Slash or Pierce will take full damage anyway. Go crazy!

Follow-Up / Co-Op Attacks

After you reach a certain rank of the Fool SLink, sometimes a companion will suggest a duo attack instead of you doing a '1 More'. This only happens for the MC, however, so pay attention.

These attacks are useful in that they always result in a critical hit. You won't get a '1 More' out of this, but 90% of the time, they target an enemy that isn't knocked down. So if there's only one enemy remaining up before you can get an All-Out Attack, go for it. You can save yourself some SP or HP from whatever skill you were going to use.

Analyzing

A very important thing you should always do, is analyzing enemies.

During battle, hit the L button (you can also access this from the Tactics menu, but seriously...).

Then select an enemy. Your current battle supporter will attempt to analyze the enemy after roughly 2~3 turns, giving you their weaknesses and resistances.

Further along the game, you will also even be able to witness the skills they have available. Always, ALWAYS do this for pretty much every enemy, as knowing their weaknesses is the key to a quick, painless battle with Shuffle Time, or a near-death experience, especially in high difficulties where the enemies don't kid around.

You won't get much out of a boss, but it's useful to do so nonetheless for when Fuuka gets Third Eye.

Shuffle Time

This is just a quick note, for more details go to its own section.

There are 3 ways to earn a Shuffle Time after battle.

1. If they MC deals a finishing blow (by any means, crit/weakness or not).
2. If you win with an All-Out Attack.
3. If you defeat 2 or more enemies with a '1 More' during one turn.

The third one is a bit tricky to understand. If you kill one enemy with a crit/weakness and get '1 More', you gotta kill another enemy and get ANOTHER '1 More', then just kill another enemy.

It's not that you would have triggered the '1 More' with the attack or not,

Shuffle Time, however, will NOT trigger against bosses (ANY), or The Reaper inside Tartarus.

[014]-----01.04. Changes from P3 and P3 FES-----

This isn't quite a direct port. Read on for the changes.

List taken from stickied topic in the boards.

www.gamefaqs.com/boards/971508-shin-megami-tensei-persona-3-portable/55515076

- You can choose the gender of the main character. Some story details change a bit, and of course, there are different relationships. This guide is focused to the FeMC (Female Main Character), actually. For the male character, you can use any guide for FES.
- Graphics have been changed. The game now behaves more like a visual novel outside of Tartarus.
- Similarly, as opposed to going around, exploration outside of Tartarus is more of a point-and-click style.
- More difficulty settings!
- New costumes.
- New Personas. Like 20 or more.
- Several battle elements from P4 have been included. First and foremost, you can directly control your teammates if you wish. They can also take mortal blows for you and the All-Out Attack has been included.
- Skill Cards can be used to bestow a skill to any given Persona.
- Fusion Skills are now used with items obtained by trading in gems.
- A few SLinks have voices.
- You can cure the Tired status with items. And, more importantly, you now only get Tired AFTER leaving Tartarus, not while exploring. So you can do all your Tartarus fun in one go.
- You now have to pay to get cured inside Tartarus. What? Not everything can be free.
- Time doesn't pass when you enter your room.
- You can work part-time in some places for a bit of money and stat increases.
- Persona 4 cameos!

- New boss rush mode called Vision Quest.
- No "The Answer".
- No anime cutscenes. They were either redone for the visual novel style, or with in-game graphics.
- New menu designs.
- People will now get lost inside Tartarus, so you have to rescue them. These aren't explicit Requests from Elizabeth/Theodore, but give you some rewards nonetheless.
- Special additions during a New Game+.
- As FeMC, you can decide to stay friends or be lovers with someone.

-----02. Female Main Character Walkthrough-----

[021]-----02.01. Places to Be-----

This section covers the different locations you can visit in your everyday life, not special occasions-- as they have no real use outside of storytelling.

For more information on that stat increases of any given location, please look at the section right below this one, "Personal Stats".

Gekkoukan Highschool

Many Social Links start here, even though they are actually people from the Dorm. There are still a few other SLinks here, among with several requests and the fact that, well, you go here 6 days a week generally speaking... The School specific SLinks are Chariot, Hermit, and Emperor. You could say that Fortune is also on this group.

- Inside the Classroom you can find Yukari Takeba, Junpei Iori, Aigis (Aeon) and during its time, Ryoji (Fortune) during their specific days. There's also a Save Point.
- In the 2F Corridor you can find the restrooms, your classroom and the Student Council room for the Emperor SLink. You can find Saori Hasegawa, Rio Iwasaki, Bebe and Fuuka Yamagishi in this corridor during their days.
- In the Faculty Office corridor you can find the Faculty Office itself, which is needed for some Requests. There's also the Infirmary; if you are Tired or Sick and come here, drink the potion to gain some Courage. It won't help you one bit, but hey... You can also find Mitsuru Kirijo when available, and the Library itself is here.
- In the Laboratory Corridor you can find several clubs, most are for Requests or random story events. Akihiko Sanada is also available here.
- If you take the exit towards the clubs, you can find the Permission Tree. This is important for the Hierophant SLink.
- Furthermore, you can find the clubs. For the FeMC, you can enter the Volley Ball or Tennis clubs (both count for Chariot).
- In the rooftop, you'll find some plants for a Request.
- There's not much in the entrance, however, unless you want to buy something.

Paulownia Mall

The mall will probably be one of the most common places you visit, if only because it has access to the Velvet Room outside of Tartarus. And you can also buy many things.

You can find the Tower and Devil SLinks here.

- Club Escapade: Only open during the nights. The main use for this place is the Tower SLink.

- Chagall Cafe: You can drink the coffee for a Charm boost, or work part-time for a smaller Charm/Courage Boost and some money during the nights.
- Be Blue V: You can visit the shop to increase your status (Tired > Good and Good > Great) for a fee, or work at nights for a small Academics/Charm Boost and some money.
- Police Station: You can buy weapons, armors, and accessories here, along as receiving your rewards from missing persons. The holiday is Monday for a 25% discount off.
- Shinshoudo Antiques: After it opens, you'll be able to exchange gems for special items along with fusing Personas to weapons.
- Aohige Pharmacy: You can buy healing items here. Their holiday is Saturday for a 25% discount off.
- Power Records: A music shop.
- Game Center: Depending on the day, different games are available. Some can raise your Academics, Charm, or Courage. Others will increase the stats of your currently equipped Persona.
- Mandragora: You can sing Karaoke during the evenings for a Courage boost.
- Crane Game: Depending on the day, you can win different prizes here.
- Bulletin Board: After a certain date, you'll find details of the missing persons here. Not really important, since the Velvet Room attendant always notifies you when someone gets lost.
- Back Alley: Leads to the Velvet Room.

Port Island Station

The Port Island Station probably won't be your most visited location, since no SLinks happen here. At most, you'll come to the movies, or for the random Request taking place here.

- Screen Shot: Different movies are shown here, you can check the program to see which of your stats will increase. Costs 1,500yen to enter.
- Restroom: Used for a Request.
- The Vending Machine here sells Starvicks, Cylon Tea, and Aguafeena.

At the Staion Outskirts you can find a cat you need for a Request.

- Mahjong Club "Red Hawk": Needed for a Request, nothing else you can do.
- Que Sera Sera: Request and storyline events, nothing else.

Iwatodai Strip Mall

The main use of the Iwatodai Strip Mall is the Hierophant SLink and for increasing your stats.

- Octopia: Buy some Takoyaki for 400yen. These are needed for the Hanged Man SLink.
- Wild-duck Burger: You can dine here for 500yen to increase your Courage.
- Bookworms: The Hierophant SLink takes place here. Open everyday but M.

On the 2nd Floor of the Strip Mall you can find the stores for Academics and Charm.

- Book On: Only for show.
- Wakatsu Restaurant: You can increase your Academics for 680yen.
- Hagakure Ramen: You can dine here to increase your Charm for 900yen.

- Sweet Shop: Only for show.
- Beef Bowl Shop: You'll come here on some events, but that's it.
- Vending Machine: Nastea, BauerBar, 1UP.

- Vending Machine: Dr. Salt, Moonkist, Fountain Dew.

Naganaki Shrine

The Shrine has a two very important uses. It also houses the Sun and Hanged Man SLink.

- Chozuya: No use.
- Shinboku: No use.
- Inari: Here you can give the Inari one of your ability cards. After 5 days, you'll receive the original, plus a copy.
- Offertory Box: For 100yen you can get a boost to your Academics. This passes time, by the way.
- Fortune Box: You can wish to increase your relationship of an SLink here. This is very helpful so that you can get the necessary points in order to get the Rank Up event of an SLink ahead of time (you know, the Fortune Box is available all days, Slinks not necessarily).

There are multiple fortunes.

One will raises your status to Great.

Others will give you a Lucky Charm and 10,000yen, while another only gives you 1,000yen.

You can also lose 1,000yen or, even worse, become Tired! Highly suggested that if you get Tired, you reload your data.

Dorm

Your Evenings will all pretty much start here.

Of main importance, is that you can talk to Mitsuru or Fuuka in order to go to Tartarus that night.

SLinks that take place (or are started here) are Koromaru (Strength), Shinjiro (Moon), and Ken (Justice).

You can talk to other members of SEES here if you wish. Sometimes people will be at the 2nd or 3rd floors.

- There's a Sign-in Sheet at the entrance. You can save your game here.
- On the second floor are the male rooms.
- On the third floor are the female rooms.
- On the fourth floor you can find the Command Room, and more bathrooms.

- Vending Machine: Cielo Mist, SoBay, Mad Bull.

> Note: The Mad Bull is used to start the Hanged Man SLink. So be sure to get one when you have the chance and forget about it afterwards.

- Inside your room, you can study, or watch TV on Sundays for the TV Shopping program. If you are Tired or Sick, be sure to sleep early to recover. If you are Good however, you'll become Great for the next day if you sleep early.

The main character (regardless of gender) has 3 main stats you need to take

- 4: During the film festival from August 17 to 31. Ask any of the following to get 4 points on that visit: Saori, or Elizabeth/Theodore.
- 4: After exams on Gekkoukan, once the results are posted, you'll get 4 points if you scored the top. From there on, you can get 3 if you were in the Top 10, or 2 if you did well. At the bottom of the scale, you can scrape 1 point if you were barely above average...
- 1: Work part-time at the Be Blue V shop from M to F. +1 to Academics too.
- 1: Work part-time at Changall from M to W. +1 to Courage too.

Courage

| Rank       | Points | Needed for?     |
|------------|--------|-----------------|
| Timid      | 14     | --              |
| Ordinary   | 29     | Priestess SLink |
| Determined | 44     | --              |
| Tough      | 59     | Tower SLink     |
| Fearless   | 79     | Request No.31   |
| Badass     | 80     | Justice Slink   |

Things that raise Courage

- 3: Eat at the Wild-Duck Burgers for 500yen.
- 2: Sing at the Mandragora Karaoke at night from M to Th.
- 2: Whenever you are Sick or Tired, go to the Infirmary at Gekkoukan and drink the potion. It won't help you at all, but you get free Courage.
- 4: Watch a horror movie at Screen Shot for 1500yen on M and Th.
- 4: During the film festival from August 17 to 31. Ask any of the following to get 4 points on that visit: Koromaru, Rio, or Ken.
- 4: Play the Horror House game at the Game Center for 3000yen on Tu and F.
- 1: Work part-time at Screen Shot on your days off. +1 to Academics too.
- 1: Work part-time at Changall from M to W. +1 to Charm too.

-----02.03. Day to Day Life-----

[231]-----02.03.01. 2009: April-----

As you begin the game, you are asked for your gender first. As noted, this guide is for the Female Main Character (aka FeMC). The general notes might work for the Male MC, but I don't take responsibility for odd events...

IMPORTANT!

I do not intend to give you a step-by-step. Meaning, I won't tell you "study tonight," "Work on this SLink this evening," etc. That's up to you. I will give mentions about when an SLink becomes available, or stuff like that. Use the previous section to check how to best raises your stats and the SL sections to see how to do things.

I do make mentions on the generally best times to go to Tartarus. At first, it doesn't matter much. But unless you enjoy doing multiple trips, it matters later on.

April 6

- For the first day, there's not much. You'll see some scenes, you'll enter this 'Dark Hour' and arrive to your dorm.

You'll be asked to sign in with your name; so... write your own name. The first line is for first name, and the second for your last name, as expected.

You'll end up in your room. For now, you can only go to Bed, so do so.

April 7

- Yukari will wake you up. You'll then go to school.

Check the bulletin board (marked by a red ! if you press R). Select to look again to find your classroom.

Take the left exit to the 1F Hallway and into the first door, the Faculty Office.

After classes, Junpei will come to greet you before Yukari shows up.

You'll automatically go into the Evening and back on the dorm.

From now on, you can save at the front desk.

Go ahead and go into your room to advance the day.

April 8

- You'll have a lecture today. Junpei will ask you for help.

The answer is 'Utsubo Kubota'.

After school you will automatically return to the dorm at Evening.

After talking with Ikutsuki, you'll go to bed.

During your sleep, after some events, you will end up in the Velvet Room where Igor will greet you. You'll be given the Velvet Key.

April 9

- There will be another lecture today. If you stay awake, you'll get a small boost to your Academics. ALWAYS USE THESE.

After school, Yukari will take you to the Paulownia Mall. Short talk later, you arrive at the Dorm at Evening.

Go back to your room-- you have to manually climb the stairs. The quick travel button won't work tonight. You can only go to bed.

After the events, you'll be given a choice. Either one will work as Yukari will knock on your door. Question her if you like, or go along easily, doesn't matter either.

You'll find yourself in the room, where a Shadow will come. Yukari will try to defeat it, but can't. Her Evoker will slide towards you and you will end up summoning a Persona, which then goes Berserk and destroys the Shadow...

The Persona will calm down, turning into Orpheus-- your first Persona. Turns out the Shadow wasn't quite done.

You'll fight 2 Cowardly Maya. You can use Orpheus' Bash skill or use normal attacks. They aren't really much a threat.

April 19

- You'll wake up this day. Yukari will be there already. After some talk, the day concludes.

April 20

- Junpei will greet you at the gate of school

During class, the answer to the question is 'Mad huts'.

You'll go back early to the Dorm again.
Hit Square and select the 4F, Hallway and into the Command Room.

The Fool Social Link will begin here.
This SL levels up automatically.

A boy will also visit you during the Dark Hour.

April 21

- You'll automatically return to the dorm after some vents.
Junpei will now join SEES.

You will come to Tartarus for the first day.
Once inside, you will automatically head into the Velvet Room.
Igor will ask you about his attendant; you can choose either answer.
Appearances will change, but nothing else.

At this point, I suggest, first, that you Save. Then you start climbing.
Seeing how this place is a labyrinth, I can't really give you much help, at all.

You can't do much on this outing. Follow Mitsuru's instructions, defeat all the Shadows, and call it a day.
Once you leave the labyrinth, Fool will level up to Rank 2.
Go ahead and leave the premises for now.

April 22

- There will be a few events before you are actually in class.
There's a lecture today, be sure to stay awake.

After class, you now have time After School.
You'll meet up with Junpei and somewhat, with Akihiko, who suggests you go to the Police Station in the mall. Go ahead and do so.

You'll be buying your weapons/armor here. Their sale day is on Mondays. Don't forget that if you want a 25% discount!

Afterwards, you are now free to explore. Since no SLinks are available yet, use your time to work on your stats.
Academics is a slow level, but necessary if you want some free items and even for some SLinks.
Charm and Courage are way faster, and equally necessary.

Please note the section above this one to see what things you can do to raise each one, especially those that are day-specific. You want to take advantage of those if you can, or even the double ones such as working part-time.

Once you are back on the dorm, you can go out again if you wish,
From now on, you can also talk to Mitsuru if you want to explore the Tartarus. She won't always be available, but she's generally there.
At this point, you can go up to the 16th Floor.

Remember you can also go to the mall at nights for some stat boosts or, later on, some Social Links.
Or, you can study in your room.

April 23

- Junpei will offer you to hang out with him. This starts the Magician SL, so I suggest you do.

You can take advantage of the fact that you have nothing to do at nights to explore Tartarus.

For information on the Guardians you'll face inside Tartarus, look at their section below, "Guardians of Tartarus".

Remember, your limit right now is the 16th Floor.

If you did go into Tartarus, try to obtain one of the following Personas to make your life easier with Social Links; Magician, Hierophant, Chariot and if you wish, even Lovers, but they aren't quite THAT necessary just yet.

April 24

- Today you can join a sports team; be it the Tennis or Volley Ball team. They both function the same, and the decisions for Rank Up events are the same, so don't worry. Pick whichever.

To get to them, from the Classroom hit the Quick Travel button, go to the 1F, Laboratory Hallway. At the top left is the 1F Corridor exit. On the other side of the corridor is the 1F Hallway. You can find both clubs here.

April 25

- The Bookworms store is open now. You can find it on the Iwatodai Strip Mall. You can start the Hierophant Social Link here. Might as well do so. Use the evenings as you wish. Remember, try to not to go into Tartarus every single freaking time-- save time, do one or two trips at most and then focus on your stats.

April 26

- Free day. Do whatever.

April 27

- You get another quiz in class. The answer is "6,000 years ago". After class, Mitsuru will come and ask you if you want to join the Student Council (Emperor SL). go ahead and accept. First, go to the Faculty Office and ask about the Student Council. Then jump to the 2F Classroom Hallway. On the left side, you can find the Student Council Room, go in to start the Social Link.

April 28

- After school, you can start the Lovers SL by talking to Yukari inside the classroom. Otherwise, employ the day as you wish.

Junpei will mention Innocent Sin Online when you get back to the dorm. You can safely ignore this as the FeMC. It's for the Male MC Hermit's SL.

April 29

- No school today. If you've already established the Magician SL, Junpei will call you today and see if you wanna hang out. These events work towards helping you get the necessary points to a Rank Up event, but you can't Rank Up in these. Several other people can invite you out, but they all depend on if you have the SL going on, AND, some have to be at a certain rank. I will list names during the day they might invite, assuming those scenarios are correct. For more information, check the section "Off Day Invitations" for exact dates and Ranks. Employ the day as you wish.

April 30

Before going there, head into Iwatodai and buy some Takoyaki from Octopia on the far right. THEN go to the Shrine. You should see the girl on the left side, by the jungle gym.

May 7

- Remember that some requests expire today! Otherwise, enjoy the day.

May 8

- Today you'll be asked to join either the School health committee, or the Library committee. Both are for the Hermit SL, and like Chariot, contain the same answers, so pick whichever you prefer, doesn't matter much. After school is out, you'll automatically go to where you should.

You'll automatically end up at the Evening.
Do what you wish.

May 9

- After school is out, you will automatically head back to the Dorm, where the Dark Hour will begin.

You'll begin your operation in the 10th/11th Carriage.
Make your way forward.

Eventually, Junpei will rush forward. You'll have two battles in a row using the FeMC and Yukari.
You will find Junpei in the 4th carriage fighting some enemies. You'll aid him then.

The train will suddenly start moving. A timer will then appear on screen detailing how much before you crash into another train as you are drawn into another battle.
Move to the front of the train as fast as you can, defeating Shadows that get in your way quickly. At the end, you'll find the Shadow in charge.

Priestess

| Weakness: None
|   Repel: Ice
|   Null: Light / Dark

| She has no real weakness, so just hit her with whatever.
| If she ever summons any Muttering Tiaras, switch to Apsaras or any
| other Persona you might have with a Bufu skill, you want to defeat
| these quickly before they get a chance to heal Priestess.

| As long as you have a decent amount of time, you should be more than
| fine for the fight.

Make your choice after the battle, doesn't matter.

Once it's over, your Fool SL will level up to Rank 3.

May 10

- Elizabeth/Theodore will call you in the morning to inform you that a path in Tartarus has opened. In other words, you can now climb further up into the 40th floor.

TV Shopping time! This time is 1 Garu and 1 Zio Skill Cards for 2,980yen.

Ok, two things. First, do not climb Tartarus just yet. Wait. I'll let you know, don't worry. Trust me, you want to.

Second, if you go to the Velvet Room, you'll learn about the Persona Compendium. Personas you get will now be stored here, and you can later summon them for a price. You can also upgrade the records, if the Persona levels up or you teach it a skill.

This is incredibly useful for when you are working on your Social Links, if you need a matching persona.

Also, more requests are available.

May 11

- Stay awake during class.

Remember about Maiko, the girl at the shrine, if you set up the starting point for the SL. You don't HAVE TO go today, but why wait?

If you do wait, well, do whatever.

At Evening, you'll be told something's wrong with the computer at the Command Room. You can go there to watch a small recording. Nothing too important. Employ your night as you see best, but you should try to study, that, or do the Quiz Game in the Arcade on Tuesdays and Saturdays for a better boost.

May 12

- You'll get your TV Shopping items today.

As a suggestion, work on your Chariot, Hermit and Hierophant SLs up to level 3, 2 and 2 respectively. When you do so, talk to Saori in the 2F Corridor to learn about a celebrity in the mall (Devil SL). Rio will mention a drunk in the club on the mall (Tower SL). And during the Hierophant Rank Up 3 event, you'll meet Bebe (Temperance SL).

You also need Courage 4 for Tower, Charm 2 for Devil and Academics 2 for Temperance anyway. Just putting it out there for the future.

Midterms are coming, Yukari won't be available for Tartarus tonight, but like I said, keep waiting.

Today the Quiz Game is available, if you need to work on your Academics.

May 13

- Quiz time! The answer is "About 1,700 km/hour".

Again, employ your time as you see best.

May 14

- Nothing special in the morning.

Be sure to talk to Junpei for the handheld game system for a request while in the Dorm, though.

May 15

- Quiz time! The answer is "Bread."

Do note that all school clubs are closed, if you were planning on working on a school SL.

May 16

- Stay awake!

Past that, up to you. Study though. Really.

May 17

- TV Shopping! All-Purpose Katana + 2 Cadenza for 4,980yen.

Use the day as you see best.

May 18 ~ May 22

- You'll be having one exam after the other, no Evening time.
The first day depends on your Academics stat. 2 is good, but 3 is perfect.
The answers for the next days are:
Bread
Faster than sound
Hard water
Nara

May 23

- You'll get your TV Shopping items here.
Again, this day depends on your Academics. 2 is good, 3 is perfect.
After school, do as you wish.

Tonight, Akihiko rejoins the group. NOW, you can go into Tartarus if you wish. Since your party can consist of up to 4 party members, you can now bring a full party to explore. See why I told you to wait?

What about Mitsuru's offer? Wait until results are posted. I'll let you know.

May 24

- Yukari will call, see if you wanna go out. If you say no, then Rio will. Provided you got the SLs, of course.
TV Shopping! All-Purpose Apron + 2 Umugi Water for 4,980yen.
Enjoy the day.

May 25

- Exam results will be posted today. Depending on your grades, you'll receive a boost to Charm.
Stay awake during the lecture.

You can't find Mitsuru today, don't worry. You'll get your reward if you deserve it.

As a sidenote, from here on you could, theoretically, start the Star SL. Of course, you need a Charm of 4 to do so. For future reference, it's Akihiko-- you can find him at the top of the 1F, Laboratory Hallway.

Use the rest of the day as you see fit.

May 26

- You'll get your TV Shopping items today.
If you did well on your exams, go to the 1F, Faculty Corridor to find Mitsuru. You'll get a Page Card set and if you aced the exams, a Diarama will be thrown in for good measure.

These cards can be used to increase the stats of one Persona you have. Save them or use them wisely.

Remind you about the Temperance SL. You need Hierophant at Rank 3 and your Academics over 2. No need to start it today, just reminding you.
As well as Devil-- you need Hermit Rank 2 and Charm at 2.

Remember to talk to Mitsuru in the Dorm to get the 'triangular sword' for the request.

May 27

- Nothing special.

Remember today is the last day of the current requests deadlines.

June 7

- TV Shopping! Auto-Tarukaja + 5 Sappy Jelly for 2,980yen.

Otherwise, it's your day.

As a recommendation, get a Persona that can use Bufu and Garu. If you can find one with a Pierce-type attack, even better. But that's not necessary. You'll see why...

June 8

- Another Full Moon tonight. You'll watch a small scene during Lunchtime. After a few more scenes, you'll arrive back at Gekkoukan during the Evening.

Go with Yukari when given the choice, and manually make your way to the Faculty Office.

When asked about the key, answer "Gym."

Automatic scenes, then comes the Dark Hour.

After more scenes, you'll awaken and find that mysterious boy in front of you. You'll then be somewhere in Arqa. Explore around to find the stairs. It's entirely up to you if you want to fight or not-- you'll also see messages from someone else whenever Mitsuru speaks.

Go up another floor to reunite with Junpei and Akihiko. You will also find Fuuka here. More scenes, then battle.

Empress & Emperor

| Weakness: Varies
|   Strong: Varies
| This is an interesting fight. For one, Fuuka will be assisting you, as | opposed to Mitsuru, but that's besides the point.
| As the battle starts, Empress will be weak to physical strikes, of any | kind. But nullifies all elements. The contrary is true for Emperor.
| After some damage/rounds, they will use Paradigm Shift, what this does
| is shuffle around their weakness/resistances, so scan them everytime
| they do that and try to hit them with something.
| Once they get low on HP, they will be vulnerable to only one type of
| attack however, so Analyze is a must then.
| So, keep analyzing, and exploit said weakness. Try to get both down for
| an All-Out Attack, which will hit regardless.
|~~~~~|
| That's it for today.

June 9

- The Shinshoudo Antiques store in the Mall will open now. Be sure to check it out. You might not have a great use for it right now, but trust me, it will be very useful later.

Either way, you have free reign over the day.

June 10

- Stay awake.
 Then it's up to you. I suggest you rest or use a Yawn-B-Gone. You don't want to wake up Sick, do you?

June 11

- Do what you want after school.
During the Evening, Fuuka will join SEES.
Then you have the Evening to yourself.

June 12

- Nothing special today in the morning.
At night, however, the mysterious boy will introduce himself as Pharos.
You will also begin the Death SL. This one levels up automatically, just like Fool, so don't worry too much about it.

June 13

- Employ the afternoon as you wish.
At night, you will be told by Elizabeth/Theodore a new path is open in Tartarus-- you can go up to floor 64 now. There are also new Requests available.

From now, you also have to talk to Fuuka instead of Mitsuru in order to go to Tartarus. Therefore, Mitsuru can now join you in battle. You can only have 4 persons in battle, so you will now have to decide who to bring with you.

You can switch characters around in the entrance of Tartarus.
I suggest you wait before going again, you'll see why.

June 14

- TV Shopping! Beast Leggings + 3 Emerald for 4,980yen.
Use the day as you wish.

June 15

- Quiz time. The answer is "And..."
If you have a Courage of at least 2, you can start the Priestess SL by talking to Fuuka in the 2F Classroom Hallway, by the way.
Also, if you've seen the Requests, you can easily do the date to Iwatodai and the one for the human model today.

June 16

- You'll get your TV Shopping items.
Use the day as you wish, but remember to talk to Akhiko for the request tonight at the Dorm.

June 17

- Quiz time. The answer is "Shamanism."
Use the day as you wish.

June 18

- Elizabeth/Theodore will call you in the morning.
After class, you will automatically head to the Velvet Room.

Apparently, someone got lost inside Tartarus who can't use Personas.
You have until the next Full Moon to find them.
This is why I told you to wait before going to Tartarus. Still, don't go just yet, trust me.

June 19

- Nothing special today.
Junpei is out at night, if you were thinking of going to Tartarus.

June 20

- Mitsuru will mention the Chairman will be coming tonight. Afterwards, you'll see Fuuka playing with Koromaru, a dog from the shrine, outside the Dorm. You'll go straight into the Evening.

Once the meeting is done, talk to Ikutsuki for the glasses wipe for the request.

June 21

- TV Shopping! Auto-Rakukaja + 2 Muscle Drink for 4,980yen. Enjoy your day.

June 22

- Quiz time! The answer is "Jellyfish." At Evening in the Dorm, you'll be told something about the console in the Command Room again. You can watch another video.

You'll see some scenes during the Dark Hour tonight.

June 23

- Your TV Shopping items should arrive today. Are you working on your Academics? This is a just a reminder, but try to get it to 4 before the end of July (yes, July) and get Hanged Man to Rank 3 at least.

More events at night.
Do as you wish.

June 24

- Do as you wish today.

June 25

- Quiz time. The answer is "Dowsing." Do as you wish next.

June 26

- Another person has strayed into Tartarus it seems. See why I told you to wait? You can use the section about missing persons near the bottom to find the floors and rewards. Use the day as you wish.

June 27

- Free day. Don't forget to talk to Fuuka tonight to get the item for the Request.

June 28

- TV Shopping! Champion Gloves + 3 Mega Protein for 3,980yen. Use the day as you wish.

June 29

- Quiz time. "It can go either way." (Insert bad jokes here) Use the day as you wish. I suggest you focus more on School SLs rather than outside ones for a bit. Employ the day as you wish, but you might want to work on your Academics for the final exams of the semester. Try to aim for 4 or 5 on it.

June 30

- Your TV Shopping items should arrive today. You'll be visited by Pharos at night. Again, Full Moon warning.

July 1

- Free day, pretty much.

July 2

- Again, it's up to you. Keep studying though!

July 3

- Quiz time! "The Global Heritage Pavillion."
Do what you wish afterwards.

July 4

- Do what you wish. Remember, keep studying.

July 5

- TV Shopping! Precious Egg + 2 Yawn-B-Gone for 5,980yen.
Remember, today is the last day for Requests.

Also, if you have the Hanged Man SL at Rank 3 and your Academics is at 4 by any chance, be sure to get the Sun SL Flag 2 by talking to the Thin Young Man in Naganaki Shrine.
If you don't, don't worry.

Employ the day as you wish.

July 6

- Nothing important today.
If you didn't rescue the persons who strayed into Tartarus, today is your last chance.

July 7

- Full Moon time. You will also get your TV Shopping items today.
As usual, you'll head straight back to the dorms after school to get ready.

For this operation, I don't particularly recommend Mitsuru, due to her weakness to Fire.
Since you have to take Yukari, I suggest Junpei and Akihiko. Once you got your team set, try to exit the room to get moving.

Once you are on site, just move forward and go up the stairs.
On the second floor take either path, at the end are the stairs up.
On the third floor, head right and enter the Hierophants's Chamber at the end; Fuuka will warn you about the Shadow inside.

Hierophant

	Weakness: None
	Repel: Electricity
	Null: Light / Dark
	This one is rather easy. Sure, he can use electric attacks and can knock out Yukari, but aside from that...
	He might stick a Fear on someone, but use a Patra or Me Patra Gem, according to the situation. Easy fight.

July 10

- Quiz time! Answer is "Kabbalah."

After class, if you got both requests I mentioned, head into the PA Room to grab the record and go feed the cat before you do something else with your afternoon.

July 11

- Quiz time! Answer is "Imperial Prince."

You'll get a text from Akihiko after school saying Ikutsuki is coming tonight. You still have free reigns of your afternoon.

Go feed the cat!

Then do as you wish.

At night you'll get an event. You'll be free to use your night afterwards though.

July 12

- A small sequence of events before you get control.

TV Shopping! Max Safety Shoes + 2 Trickster for 5,980yen.

Feed the cat, then do whatever.

At night, Pharos will visit you. The Death SL will go up to Rank 3.

July 13

- Stay awake! Feed the cat for one last time, then do as you wish.

Finals start tomorrow.

At night, you'll make plans for summer vacations. Of course, you got finals to worry about first.

July 14 ~ July 17

- Final exams start today, before heading to school, you'll get your

TV Shopping items.

1st answer: "Dowsing."

2nd answer: "Octopus."

3rd answer: "Minamoto no Yoritomo."

4th answer: "I went, I learned."

July 18

- For the last day of exams, your Academics stat will be put to the test.

You want a 5 for best results.

Straight to the Evening we go. Do as you wish.

July 19

- TV Shopping! Shirt of Chilvary + 2 Mega Protein for 6,980yen.

July 20

- Vacations will start today. You can talk to everyone if you want, but in order to get the story going, check the transition point on the left side.

Automatic events at Evening.

July 21

- You'll get to witness Junpei's "Operation Babe Hunt" crash and burn, along with Akihiko's attempt.

Eventually, you'll be back with the FeMC for more odd scenes.

She'll be introduced as Aigis during more events. She also joins SEES.

More characters to play around with.

July 22

- The Fool SL will go up to Rank 5. This is a very good level, since from now on, if the FeMC is near death, someone else will take the hit for you.

July 23

- You'll be back at the dorms during the Evening.

July 24

- Aigis will wake you up today.
Regardless of your choice, Aigis will be moved to the 3rd floor.
You will also get your TV Shopping items today.

You'll go see your results during Lunchtime. As usual, you'll get a charm boost depending on your grades. If you were also in the top 10, be sure to talk to Mitsuru tomorrow.

Student groups should be back to business, if you want to work on those SLs. Do as you wish, regardless.

July 25

- Stay awake. You will be informed about the fellowship of schools event that will take part next month.
Be sure to talk to Mitsuru if you got good grades today; she's in front of the Faculty Office to get your set of Knight Cards and Matarukaja.
Do as you wish, otherwise.

July 26

- TV Shopping! Bead Chain + 3 Amethyst for 5,980yen.
Is your Hanged Man at Rank 3 and your Academics at 4? If so, be sure to talk to the Think Young Guy in the bench on the west side of Naganaki Shrine today. You won't be able to do this next Sunday. And the one after is best reserved to actually starting this SL.

Then do as you wish.

July 27

- Today you will start with the intensive training for the sports club you are in. This will take up the Daytime slot of all days from here to August 2nd.
You got the Evenings to yourself, still.

July 28

- You'll get your TV Shopping.
More training. Employ the night as you prefer.

July 29

- Same.
At night you will be woken up in the Dark Hour by Fuuka. Apparently a Shadow is outside of Tartarus ahead of time. You'll go the Naganaki Shrine.

Seems Koromaru defeated the Shadow, but was injured in the process. ;o;

July 30

- More training.
Another Dark Hour period... Pharos will come up, as usual, to warn you about the Full Moon. You'd think he'd know by now that we are used to this whole Full Moon business by now...

July 31

- Even more training.

You should be getting free points towards Chariot for this...

[235]-----02.03.05. 2009: August-----

August 1

- Guess what?! No more training. Now you are going to the actual event.
Enjoy the events.

Of course, since today is Sunday, you can't buy anything this time.

August 2

- You'll be going back today.
By Evening, you should be home.
Use the night as you prefer, but don't go to Tartarus just yet.

August 3

- Elizabeth will call you to inform 2 persons have strayed into Tartarus.
This is what we were waiting for.

Also, during this period of vacations you can now get invites to goign out at any day. So you might get random calls in the morning to go out.

Today is the night you want to go to Tartarus.

August 4

- Holidays continue.
Do as you wish.

August 5

- Holidays continue.
Do what you wish. Tomorrow is the next Full Moon.

August 6

- You will automatically go into the Dark Hour.
After some scenes, you will be locked 13 meters underground.

Pick your party, and move. I don't really recommend anyone over someone else, but at least bring Mitsuru or Yukari for healing. Yukari should have Media, but Mitsuru has Diarama, so it's up to you.
If you don't have any area skills (physical or magical), then bring someone that does, they are useful, but not required.

Keep going forward. You might run into the odd Shadow here, but just deal with it accordingly.

Justice & Chariot

	Weakness: None
	Null: Light / Dark
	This is new. At first, you'll be fighting one single enemy. Keep hitting it however, and it will split into two.
	Eventually, they will recombine. In a sense, they keep the same HP, sort of. If they split while having half HP, both will have half HP.
	Etc.
	Things to worry about: Kill Rush, Poison Mist, Tentarafoo.

| Separated, Chariot will use Power Charge, as standard and then strike.
| Justice tends to use Twin Shot and Torrent Shot, both of which are
| multi-hit, so keep your HP up.

| As to how to properly defeat them... You have to beat them while they
| are split, during the same turn. If you kill one, and the other one
| gets its turn, it will revive the other one using Samarecarm, fully
| restoring the other!

| If you happen to defeat them while combined, they will split. With
| both parts having 1 HP.

| So remember, beat them on the same turn. Doesn't have to be the same
| attack, just as long as the one alive doesn't get its turn.

August 7

- Holidays.

At night, Pharos will visit you, as usual. Your Death SL will go up to Rank 5.

August 8

- At morning, Elizabeth/Theodore will call you to inform about a change in Tartarus. You can go up to Floor 114. Of course, new Requests are also available. Furthermore, as usual, I suggest you wait at least until the 29th before going in.

Mitsuru will come in the morning to talk to you, saying something about tonight.

Do as you wish during the day.

At Night, it seems Koromaru has finished healing. Not only that, he is joining SEES!

Ok, so... Did you listen to me about the whole Hanged Man at Rank 3 and your Academics at 4? If you talked to the Thin Young Guy on Sundays at Naganaki Shrine, be sure to talk to Koromaru tonight. Check under his paw to find the Red Fountain Pen.

Enjoy the night.

August 9

- TV Shopping! Spirit Drain + 4 Health Supplement for 4,980yen.
Several things to do.

First, go pick up Requests 28 and 58. Go out with Elizabeth/Theodore to get 58 done. Then head to Port Island Station, into the west side and try to go into Que Sera Sera to get the drink. Turn them in.

You should be able to star the Sun SL today. If not, well... I suggest you don't delay too much on it.

August 10 ~ August 14

- On these days, you will be going to Summer School. You can't do anything else. You'll get a boost to Academics per day though.

August 15

- You'll get your TV Shopping items before going to summer school. You get the Evening to yourself, at least.

Today you can start the Strength SL with Koromaru if you have the Dog Food you make by going through with the Priestess SL.

August 16

- Today is the Summer Festival at Naganaki Shrine. Junpei, Yukari, Fuuka, Mitsuru and Akihiko will ask you out, one by one. Go with whoever you prefer.
That's it for today.

August 17

- Free day.

August 18

- The Film Festival begins today. People might call you to invite you see a film, or in some days, you can invite someone.
All of these films will increase a particular stat. Use them to your advantage.

Today, Rio will invite you. This one is for Courage.

On that note, I suggest working on your Courage. You want to try and have 6 on it by September 1.

August 19

- Elizabeth/Theo will call you. Someone has strayed into Tartarus. Don't go yet though.
Saori will invite you today to the Film Festival. This movie increases your Charm.

August 20

- Small event before you get control.

August 21

- Today Elizabeth/Theo will ask you out to the Film Festival.
This movie grants Charm as well.

August 22

- Bebe will ask you out. Today's movie is for Academics.

August 23

- You can ask Ikutsuki out today (you have to talk to him inside the Dorm). This movie will raise your Academics.
TV Shopping! Dragon Boots + 2 Opal for 9,980yen.

August 24

- Today you can invite Yukari. This movie will raise your Academics.

August 25

- Today you can ask Akihiko. This movie is for Courage.
You also get your TV Shopping items.

August 26

- Today, you can actually invite Koromaru to the movies. How awesome is that.
This movie (well...) will increase your Courage. That, or Rio can invite you out as well.

August 27

- You can ask Junpei to the movies today. This is for Charm. Otherwise, one of your SLs might ask you out on a normal date.

August 28

- You can invite Aigis today for an Academics boost.
At night, Ken Amada will officially join SEES.

Whenever you are set, go into Club Escapade.

Hermit

| Weakness: None

| Drain: Electricity

| Null: Light / Dark

| This fight is relatively easy, in comparison.

| Hermit basically does this: Uses Charge, waits two turns doing nothing, then releases Giga Spark.

| Giga Spark can actually hurt, which is why we brought Akihiko.

| You can use Tarunda to make it hit weaker, and if you got a Persona with Marakukaja, use it as well.

| Basically, hit the boss with whatever you have, then heal up after Giga Spark. You shouldn't really have much trouble at all with this fight. He should be dead by the second Giga Spark, if not by the first, even.

Watch some more scenes, and it's over for tonight.

September 6

- Automatic scene at the hospital with Chidori.
TV Shopping! Megido + 4 Mind Supplement for 6,980yen.
Have you been working on your Sun SL?

Regardless, use the day as you wish.

September 7

- Do as you wish afterschool.
At Evening, however, be sure to star the Moon SL. You have a very limited time to MAX Rank this SL. Go to its section and do everything as soon as possible.

So... like I said. Moon SL, Moon SL, Moon SL...

September 8

- Your TV Shopping items will arrive today.
Another hospital scene after school. Do as you wish.

September 9

- Do as you wish after school.
Moon SL at night.

September 10

- Quiz time! Why Junpei doesn't know this, I don't freaking know...
The answer is "Gochisou-sama."
Another hospital scene after school.

In the Evening, Elizabeth/Theo will call you. More of Tartarus is now ready to be explored-- Up to floor 139 this time. Of course, there are also more Requests. And, as always, wait before going. People are going to get lost in there, anyway.

September 11

- Quiz time! "The Hermetica" is the answer.
Do as you wish.

Moon SL~

September 12

- Elizabeth/Theo will call you to inform of one person going missing into Tartarus. This one is important though, if you don't rescue him, the Hierophant SL will be stopped completely.

Stay awake during class! Another hospital scene then.
Do as you wish, then Moon SL at night.

Pharos will visit you again. Death will Rank Up to Rank 6.

September 13

- TV Shopping! Omega Spear + 3 Garnet for 12,800yen.
Do as you wish. Remember the Sun SL, though.

Then Moon SL.

September 15

- Your TV Shopping items will arrive today.
Do as you wish today.

September 16

- Do as you wish after school.
You know what I'm gonna say, right? Moon SL.

September 17

- Do as you wish after school
When you get to the dorms, get the Fruit Knife from Shinjiro.

September 18

- You will automatically head back after school.
At Evening, there will be a short event. You can't go out tonight, nor can you work on the Moon SL. If you go to your room, you will automatically fall asleep.

During the Dark Hour, you'll be in the Velvet Room.
From now on, you can do Cross, Pentagon and even Hexagon spreads, assuming you have unlocked any Personas for those (MAX Rank SLs sometimes unlock some for these).
Unlike double and triple spreads, these require specific Personas and will produce specific results. Check them the next time you hit the Velvet Room.

You will automatically skip to the 21st.

September 21

- No school today. You can't work on Moon as well.

September 22

- No school either. Two more gone missing into Tartarus. After this, you are now free to go into Tartarus. Today is actually a very good day for that. You'll be invited out today by either Rio. If you turn her down, then Bebe will call. Go out if you wish.

September 23

- Another holiday. Saori will call you out today. Or you can go to the movies of the Film Festival with Shinjiro (Courage boost).
If you want to go with Shinjiro, talk to Fuuka first, then to him.

You can't work on Moon tonight either. If you don't have a Yawn-B-Gone, either get one, or go to Tartarus tonight. You have more time to work on Strength and Justice than in Moon. If you do, then you can wait until later.

September 24

- Stay awake! In the afternoon, you'll be sent to clean up after the festival that never got to be. Still, you get the afternoon to yourself.
Do whatever on the Evening.

September 25

- Do as you wish in the afternoon. Work on Moon at night.

September 26

- Quiz time! The answer is "The Tetractys."
Work on Moon again.

September 27

- TV Shopping! Growth 2 + 4 Veggie Supplement for 18,800yen.
Do as you wish.

Guess who and for what visits you at the Dark Hour?

September 28

- Stay awake.
Do as you wish, then work on Moon. Time is running out.

September 29

- At Evening today, there will be another recording in the machine of the Command Room. Watch it if you want.
Then do as you wish.

September 30

- You'll get your TV Shopping items today.
If you have been working on Moon, you should be Rank 9 already. In order to get to Rank 10, you must get Shinjiro's Old Pocketwatch. Go to the Police Station in the Mall and Talk to Kurosawa to receive it.
Get your MAX Rank in Moon tonight.

[237]-----02.03.07. 2009: October-----

October 1

- Stay awake.
At Evening, be sure to get the oil from Aigis, and turn that in right away, lest you forget.
If you haven't gone into Tartarus yet, I suggest you do so now.

October 2

- Do as you wish during the day.
If you have Moon at MAX (And you should), you can become lovers with Shinjiro tonight.
See the Moon SL Section for more details.

October 3

- Another lecture. Stay awake.

Due to exams coming, student SLs are off for now.

October 4

- Full Moon!

Like the last time, this is a straight event into the battle. Shinjiro and Ken are out of your lineup tonight for story reasons. Out of those who you can bring, it's up to you. One of the two bosses does use Wind skills, but it's not that often. So pick whoever, then go down into the Station.

Fortune & Strength

Weakness: None
Null: Light / Dark (Both)

This fight can be easy, or it can be hell. Depending on your luck or ability.

To start off, you can't attack Fortune (at all) until Strength is defeated. Strength, true to its Arcana, uses mostly physical attacks, and the odd Sexy Dance or Eerie Sound.

The gimmick of this battle is the Wheel of Fortune that, as you can guess, Fortune will summon. There are three different roulettes:

- One for status effects
- One for healing and damage
- One for buffs and debuffs

Basically, each one has certain effects in both a positive and negative way.

- Panic, Distressed, Enraged and Afraid
- +50 HP, -50 HP, -100 HP, and -200 HP
- Matarukaja/Matarunda, Marakukaja/Marakunda

Which one you get is random (the roulette). Blue means it will help you. If it lands on red, the effect will be against you.

How to stop the spinner? Just press X. In order to get what you want, however, you have to time it. Basically, try to look at the opposite side of the roulette (tilt your PSP if necessary). When you hit X, the roulette will stop in whatever was directly opposite of the pointer.

It's a bit tricky, and doesn't always work, but generally, you should be good.

You got a Persona with Ghastly Wail? Get Fear on Strength by the roulette and finish it off in one skill.

Is fortune finally out? He keeps doing the Wheel of Fortune thing often. If not, he uses Torrent Shot or Garudyne and Magarudyne. Still, by this point, you should be fine. Keep your HP up in case you mess up with the healing/damage roulette, though, which becomes far more frequent once Fortune is alone. Not to mention the red segment is very large now.

Watch the events. This is why I told you not to use him too much...

October 5

- The events of today change depending on if you became lovers or not with Shinjiro. If you did, he'll be "alive" at the hospital. If you didn't, you'll be having a memorial in his name at school. The memorial version is a lot sadder, if you ask me.

Akihiko's Persona will awaken into Caesar, regardless of what event you get.

At Evening, you'll have another event regarding Ken. Once you get control, if you go into Shinjiro's room, you can recover whatever equipment he had before dying.

Do as you wish.

October 6

- After school, do as you wish.

At Evening, Elizabeth/Theodore will call you. You can now go up to floor 164 of the Tartarus. There are also new Requests. I suggest you pick up the Sengoku era helm one, at least.

Right away, we cut to an event with Ken. His Persona will then awaken into Kala-Nemi.

Do as you wish. Remember exams are coming, though.

Pharos will come to visit you. The Death SL will go up to Rank 8.

-----[238]-----02.03.08. 2009: November-----

November 1

- TV Shopping! Raven Claw + 2 Balm of Life for 49,800yen.
Do as you wish today. Don't forget about Sun, though.
I've you been diligent with it, you should hit MAX today, if not, doesn't really matter. You got plenty of time still.

November 2

- Your TV Shopping items will arrive today. That's some fast service, if you ask me.
Do as you wish after school. There'll be an event at Evening. Your Fool SL will go up to Rank 6.

Do as you wish for tonight.

November 3

- Full Moon!

Prepare your party. I suggest Koromaru for his immunity to Dark. On the same boat, pick Yukari or Mitsuru for healing over Ken, since he's weak to Dark. I suggest Yukari, actually.
Get whoever you believe to be your best offensive character in the last spot. Aigis can buff up your team, Akihiko can debuff the enemy, Junpei can... do something.
Once you leave, we get to fight someone else first.

_____Takaya & Jin_____

| Takaya         | Jin                |
|----------------|--------------------|
| Weakness: None | Weakness: None     |
| Repel: Light   | Repel: Fire / Dark |
| Null: Dark     | Null: Light        |

Jin will use Mudo and Mudoon, hence the suggestion of Koromaru.
Takaya goes for all -dyne spells, however. He can always Mind Charge them, so keep your HP up, just in case. In the odd case a Mudo/on sticks, you should have some Homunculus lying around.

I suggest going after Jin first, especially if you have Mitsuru, since his normal attack counts as Fire.
Then go after Takaya, there's nothing really special about this fight.

Once they are down, you can redo your party.
If you didn't have Yukari, get her in now.
Then pick whoever you like.

Hanged Man

Weakness: None

Null: Light / Dark

If you have another Persona with Magarula, you'll have an easier time. As the battle starts, you'll notice that Hanged Man is out of your reach.

Instead, you got three statues to worry about. The left one nullifies Fire, and uses Agilao. The middle one is for Ice. The right one is for Electricity. There is no wind statues.

They don't have too much HP, so hopefully, a double Magarula should be enough. If you don't have Magarula with the FeMC, throw whatever physical area attack you might have, and use anyone else-- besides Yukari of course, to heal.

If you take too long, Hanged Man will summon some Devious Mayas. If he's on the floor, he will use Armed & Ready, which then causes the Mayas to use Last Resort on their next turn. You DO NOT want this to happen. Do not attack the Mayas with Ice, they nullify it. Throw anything else you got at 'em to destroy them, fast.

When all three statues are down, Hanged Man will fall. If there are no Devious Maya around, you can do an All-Out Attack. I suggest you do.

Do note he can still summon the Mayas while he's on the ground. He likes to use Strike attacks mostly, like Akasha Arts, and the single target version, God's Hand, so keep your HP up. If you brought Junpei, hopefully he has Marakunda by now. Otherwise, if you got Akihiko, use Tarunda on the boss.

A few turns later, Hanged Man will go back up, and the statues will return. And the cycle repeats.

Remember, the Mayas are your priority.

November 4

- During the morning (oh snap!), Pharos will visit you. Death will MAX out at this point.

After school, straight into the Evening.

Fool will go up to Rank 7 here.

Did you think it was really over?
Watch the lengthy scene.

November 5

- Again, straight into the Evening.

After the scene of Yukari's father's video, her Persona will awaken into Isis.

You get the Evening to yourself.

Another Dark Hour, and into the Velvet Room.

November 6

- Do as you wish.

When you get back to the Dorms, Eliza/Theo will call you.

Floors 165-214 of the Tartarus are now open. Oh yes, it's a long trek now. Similarly, there are new Requests. As usual, don't go just yet.

Get some requests (I suggest 59, 63 and 64)

Talk to Junpei while in the Dorm and select "Go see her." You can find him on the 2nd floor.

November 7

- Quiz time! The answer is "Winter mornings are pleasant."
After school, go scrub the bathrooms for Req.64, and bring Eliza/Theo out on a date. After turning them, you can grab Req.65 and do it too, if you want.
Otherwise, do as you wish.

November 8

- TV Shopping! Ruby + 2 Sapphire for 19,800yen.
Do as you wish.

November 9

- Okay, today a new student joins Gekkoukan. This is for the Fortune SL. This SL has fixed dates in which you must Rank Up. Therefore, I will be listing them here. If you want more details, you can check its own section.

There's a lecture, as well. Right after school, Junpei will introduce you to Ryoji. This marks the beginning of Fortune.

After class, do as you wish.

November 10

- Your items arrive today.
Do as you wish today.

November 11

- Do as you wish today.
On the Dorms, talk to Junpei again and tell him to "Just talk to her."

November 12

- During the morning, before school, you'll have the Fortune Rank Up Event 2. Quiz time! The answer is "The Upanishads."
Do as you wish after school.
Be sure to talk to Koromaru for the Gourmet Dog Food.

November 13

- Be sure to go out with Ryoji today. Unless you don't care about Fortune.
Do as you wish.

November 14

- Another lecture.
Talk to Junpei on the Dorms again. This time, tell him to "Don't give up."

November 15

- Ryoji will call you today. If you want to keep Fortune alive, GO OUT WITH HIM.
If you don't care and you want your TV Shopping items...
You can get an Auto-Mataru + 8 Mega Protein for 59,800yen.

November 16

- Lecture.
Do as you wish.

November 17

- You'll go on the field trip today.
At Evening, you'll be at the hotel. You can buy some souvenirs (which also double as gifts) at the 1st floor here.

You can talk to Ms. Toriumi to get your room assignment. You'll be in the far right room of the 3rd floor. While you are here, go up to the 3rd floor, and check the vending machine. Buy the Durian Soda for the Oden Juice request.

Then go to your room and call it a night.

November 18

- After the event with Mitsuru and Yukari, Mitsuru's Persona will evolve to Artemisia.
Talk around at Evening if you wish, but there's not much to do.

November 19

- Today is another Fortune day.
Afterwards, talk to Fuuka on the 3rd floor to go into the hot springs. This is more fun if you have played the male side before as well.

November 20

- You'll return home.
If you bought some souvenirs, you can give one to Ken.

November 21

- Lecture.
Remember to complete the Oden Juice request.
Talk to Mitsuru after school by the Faculty Office to start the Empress SL, as long as you have an Academics of 6. (Talk to her twice)
Be sure to talk to Ken at night for the Featherman R Figure.

You'll have an event at late night with Chidori.

November 22

- Remember your date with Ryoji? If you said yes, you are yanked automatically.
If you declined, you get TV Shopping, but I don't know what's on sale.
At Evening, talk to Junpei and select "If you help her..."

You'll be woken up during the Dark Hour. Guess it's time to fight. Make your party. I recommend Koromaru, as he's resistant to Fire. Junpei can't come tonight. Yukari is best for healing, as you'll be facing Mudo skills as well. Since there's fire and dark already in play, Ken and Mitsuru are bad choices. And either Aigis or Akihiko for offense. Then leave.

_____ Chidori _____

|  |                                                                     |  |
|--|---------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|  |                                                                     |  |
|  | Weakness: None                                                      |  |
|  | Drain: Fire                                                         |  |
|  | Null: Light / Dark                                                  |  |
|  |                                                                     |  |
|  | Like I recommended Koromaru, I hope you got a Persona resistant to  |  |
|  | Fire. Dark resistance isn't that necessary-- some Homunculus can do |  |

| the trick, but you can go for some resistance, if you really want. |

| Careful of her Mind Charged Maragidyne, which is probably her strongest |
| attack. Always keep your HP high and heal after it. You can't |
| really stop your offense, as she heals about 90 points of HP per turn |
| due to her Spring of Life. |

| Fortunately, her life is on the low side. |

After the battle and the events, Junpei's Persona will awaken into Tismegistus.

November 23

- No school today.
Do as you wish.

November 24 ~ November 26

- Career Experience days. You can't do anything on these days.

November 27

- Your Academics will increase a bit after today's Career Experience.
Ryoji will invite you today for some coffee.
You get the evening though.

November 28

- Eliza/Theo will give you a call. Three (count 'em!) persons have gotten lost inside Tartarus. Wait until tomorrow.
Do as you wish during the afternoon.

At Evening, Fool will go up to Rank 9. Unless you want to leave Junpei behind (remember, we got a long trek coming in Tartarus), I suggest waiting until tomorrow.

November 29

- You have another Fortune event today. Otherwise...
TV Shopping! Shoes of Bane + 2 Last Judge for 79,800yen.

Tonight's a long trek. Hope you are ready for 50 floors of Tartarus fun.
Be sure to stock up accordingly. And unless you want to miss some requests, today is your last day to go. You can go up to floor 201 tonight if you wish, only. That should be good enough for now.

November 30

- Quiz time! The answer is "They did both."
Do as you wish.
There's a small event with Ryoji at night, but nothing important.
Emphy the Evening as you wish as well.

[239]-----02.03.09. 2009: December-----

December 1

- After school, be sure to go with Ryoji. After this rank, you won't have to worry about Fortune until December 31.
Do as you wish during the night.

December 2

- Sitting in a corner all alone, staring from the bottom of his soul, watching the night come in from the windows, window...
Err, sorry. 10 points if you get the reference.

Unlike the other Full Moons, you actually can do something during the afternoon!

Nothing at Evening either? That's new. Do as you wish until...

Well, snap.

  - Left-hand rule
  - "Winter mornings are pleasant."
  - Cacti

December 19

- TV Shopping items arrive today.
For the last day, as usual, everything depends on your Academics.
You want max Academics. Which you should have anyway. D:

You can start working on the Empress SL again today.

December 20

- TV Shopping! Mediarahan + 4 Chewing Soul for the whopping price of 200,000.
Then again it IS a Mediarahan card...

December 21

- Results will be posted today. As usual, if you got good marks, be sure to speak with Mitsuru. You can do this tomorrow.
Quiz time! The answer is "Kido."

December 22

- Your TV Shopping items arrive today.
Today, Eliza/Theo calls you to inform someone has gotten lost into Tartarus. If you did all of Tartarus already, this should be an easy trip.
Another quiz!? The answer is "Euphoria."
Remember to talk to Mitsuru to get your items. And, well, you can also work on Empress.

You'll get a King Card Set, along with a Mediarahan for top marks.

December 23

- No school today.

December 24

- Another lecture.
After school, you'll be invited by either Yukari or Fuuka for a small Christmas event. If you are lovers with either Akihiko or Ken, one of them will also invite you.

December 25

- School on the 25th. That sucks.
Do as you wish.
For lack of anything else, I suggest you take care of the missing person.
Also get the other requests done. How long this takes depends on how much you did last time.

December 26

- Lecture. On the last day. These people never let off.

December 27

- TV Shopping! A Diamond + 5 Pearl for 178,000yen.

December 28

- Do as you wish.

December 29

- Your TV Shopping items should arrive today.
Do as you wish.

December 30

- During the Evening, Aigis will return to the team.
Her Persona will also awaken into Athena.

December 31

Small event at Evening.

January 13

- Free time.

January 14

- More free time. Are you working on Empress and Aeon?

January 15

- Like I said, the last two persons will walk into Tartarus now.
At this point, employ your nights as you see best. Remember that fusing weapons takes time, if you want to go for the top of the cream there. So start getting your Personas ready.

Also, another lecture.

January 16

- Nothing special today.

January 17

- Do as you wish.

January 18

- Quiz time! The answer is "Circe."

January 19

- Do as you wish.

January 20

- Again.

January 21

- Mitsuru will call you out for a small event, which turns into a pretty big event.
You'll automatically jump to the Evening.

January 22

- Lecture today.
Keep working on your last SLs.

January 23

- Do what you must.

January 24

- If you have Aeon at 9 already, I suggest you hit the Shrine and get your Fortune out for Aegis, just in case. At any rate, this is around the earliest you can get to MAXing Aeon. I suggest you get a matching Persona if you haven't if you are running low on time.

January 25

- Another lecture.
Keep doing your thing.

January 26

- The end is getting closer~
Also, this week Aegis is available all days, if you need a boost with her.

January 27

- Remember that if you want your rewards for rescuing the last missing persons, you gotta go before the 31st, as you won't go back out after thay day.

January 28

- ANOTHER lecture. Last one.

January 29

- Tonight, if you talk to Koromaru, you can go on a walk with everyone.

January 30

- Are you ready? I hope you got all your SLs done. After today, it's make or break. Employ the day as you wish. But I suggest you go to bed early. After all, you want to be in Great condition for the final, rush, right?

January 31

- Well, this is it. You have the Afternoon to yourself. Be sure to stock up. Hit the antique shop. Get rid of all your gems. No sense in storing them. They won't be of any use after tonight.

Then, when you are ready, do something to make it Evening. You'll trigger and event, then go into Tartarus. At this point, the final stretch will be available, floors 255 to 263.

If you got all SLs, go to the Velvet Room. You'll obtain the Colorless Mask. Having this item will allow you to fuse Orpheus Telos. Not an easy Persona to fuse. For tips, head to the Special Personas Fusion Combinations section further below.

Remember that you can also go and do the Vision Quest for extra exp and some items. If you are on your second run or above, you can also do Monad if you haven't for the "secret" boss. For details on that, check the Monad section below, or the Vision Quest.

From here on, I will only cover the bosses that you would normally encounter during the normal game.

Climb up to floor 258. Adjust your party as you wish. There is no real perfect party, but I really suggest you don't bring Mitsuru. She's probably going to suffer the most if you do.

Jin

| Weakness: None
|   Repel: Fire / Dark
|   Null: Light
| Jin practiced all this time, it seems. He can now throw you all
| elements, some status effects... Even Hama and Mudo skills!
| For this reason, there is no perfect party like I said. Though he seems
| to hate Mitsuru with more passion than the rest. Regardless, try to
| bring a Persona with as few weaknesses as possible, or none, if you
| can. If you have some Homunculus lying around, a Persona with elemental
| resistances but weakness to Light/Dark should be good.
| By this time, you might have your own technique. Otherwise, debuff
| and buff, set up Revolution or something, and go to town with him.
| All-Out Attacks are still an easy way to get him down.
| ~~~~~
| Once the fight is over, reform your party and keep going. Your target is
| floor 262. Again, you'll be able to redo your party at that time, so don't worry.

Takaya

Weakness: None
Repel: Light
Null: Dark

While Jin practiced, Takaya sat around.

Seriously, this guy won't be that much different. Maybe a few upgraded spells, but nothing to worry about.

Try to set a Persona without elemental weaknesses, much like with Jin.

There are two main ways to kill him. Set up a Makarakarn. Sure, he sometimes uses Megidola, but that shouldn't be much of a problem. The other way, my favorite, is to set up a Revolution, knock him down with a crit, then go to town.

That's it.

Now, you can do two things. Go back to the entrance, do whatever pending business you might have in Tartarus. Whether to just finish everything, or to set yourself up for a new round-- get yen, finish your Compendium, do the Vision Quest/Monad, etc.

Be sure to update your Persona Compendium one last time before going up!

Once you are done, set yourself up. This will be a long fight, and no matter who you bring, you are going to have weaknesses exploited at one point or another. My personal party here is Akihiko, Aigis, and Ken. Ken can be switched for Yukari, and Akihiko can be changed for Mitsuru, but I recommend Aigis solely for her buff skills.

I don't suggest you rely on debuffs too much, especially during the last portion of the battle, but you really, really want someone besides the FeMC to have Mediarahan.

I hope you have a good spread of Personas. You want to try and get skills of every other element you can't cover with your party (i.e., if you don't have Mitsuru, bring a Persona with Ma/Bufudyne, etc)..

Go up, then.

After the final scene, your final boss begins.

Also, I LOVE this battle theme. Probably one of my favorite final boss battle themes.

Nyx Avatar

The Avatar of Nyx is an interesting battle. Also, one of the longest I have ever seen. At the astounding amount of FOURTEEN (count 'em!) phases.

Are you ready? The fight goes like this. You defeat her, and she switches Arcanas, including weaknesses and other. Then you defeat her again, and the process repeats, until you beat all phases.

Therefore, I will be presenting each Arcana, its associated resistances and what not, followed by any particular tips I can offer. One last thing, which is very important. Nyx always gets TWO turns. Always. Keep that in mind, don't try to be a hero with low HP.

| As an added touch, I've included the lines she says when switching
| Arcanas.

| FOOL (1/14)

| Null: Light / Dark

| For the first phase, she'll do nothing. Seriously. Just hit her with
| physical attacks and save your SP and HP from skills.

| "The moment man devoured the fruit of knowledge, he sealed his fate...
| Entrusting his future to the cards, man clings to a dim hope.
| Yes, the Arcana is the means by which all is revealed...
| Attaining one's dream requires a stern will and unfailing
| determination."

| MAGICIAN (2/14)

| Weakness: None

| Drain: Fire

| Null: Light / Dark

| Her Magician form has EVERY Agi skill up her sleeve. From the weak
| Agi, to Maragidyne. Fortunately, she doesn't have the extra, top-end
| skills. She also has Fire Break, so don't think Koromaru or Junpei
| are safe here, or you, even. Therefore, if you have a Persona Strong
| against fire, rather than Drain/Null, good.

| Otherwise, just beat on her with anything outside of Fire. You
| shouldn't have much trouble here yet.

| "The silent voice within one's heart whispers the most profound wisdom."

| PRIESTESS (3/14)

| Weakness: None

| Drain: Ice

| Null: Light / Dark

| Like Magician was to Fire. This one is to Ice. Therefore, you can
| see Bufu all the way up to Mabufudyne coupled with Ice Break. Do the
| same thing.

| "Celebrate life's grandeur... its brilliance... its magnificence..."

| EMPRESS (4/14)

| Weakness: None

| Drain: Wind

| Null: Light / Dark

| Same as the previous two, but for Wind this time.

| "Only courage in the face of doubt can lead one to the answer..."

| EMPEROR (5/14)

| Weakness: None

Drain: Electricity
Null: Light / Dark

Now you are playing with Electricity.

"It is indeed a previous gift to understand the forces that guide oneself..."

HIEROPHANT (6/14)

Weakness: None
Repel: Light / Dark
Null: Strike

For this phase, she starts with either Rebellion, or Revolution. Then proceeds to use all sorts of physical attacks. If you have Akihiko, use him either for support, or try to scratch Nyx with some Zio skills. Regardless, up your defense, and careful about those criticals.

"There is both joy and wonder in coming to understand another..."

LOVERS (7/14)

Weakness: None
Null: Wind / Light / Dark

Charms will fly around in the form of Marin Karin or Holy Arrow. She also has Tentarafoo and Pulinpa available, but those are less important. Keep those Charms cured! If you have Yukari, have her focus on dispelling Charms if healing isn't needed. Halfway through!

"One of life's greatest blessings is the freedom to pursue one's goals."

CHARIOT (8/14)

Weakness: None
Null: Slash / Strike / Pierce / Light / Dark

Fortunately for you, this isn't as difficult as it seems. While she nulls all physical damage, she takes increased magical damage. So even Akihiko or Koromaru can join in on the fun. Still, be careful of her Power Charge combo with God's Hand or Heat Wave. Marakukaja yourself up if you are having issues. A Tetrakarn can help you avoid damage without her absorbing it.

"To find the one true path, one must seek guidance amidst uncertainty..."

JUSTICE (9/14)

Weakness: None
Null: Fire / Ice / Light / Dark

Koromaru might have trouble here. Set yourself up with some Light resistant Persona, or set a Makarakarn up. Hope you have a decent supply of Homunculi, as Hama skills will be flying around.

"It requires great courage to look at oneself honestly, and forge | one's own path..."

| Weakness: None

| Null: Wind / Light / Dark

| This is the opposite from the previous phase. Mudo skills will be
| flying now, so switch resistances. Makarakarn can still help, if you
| are willing to keep setting it up. She might try to poison you too.

| "Alongside time exists fate, the bearer of cruelty."

| FORTUNE (11/14)

| Weakness: None

| Null: Fire / Ice / Electricity / Wind / Light / Dark

| Like Chariot was for physical attacks, this one is for magical skills.
| Anyone with an elemental weakness will suffer. Try to set a Persona
| who isn't weak to any of the main four elements. If you are willing
| to, a Makarakarn can still do the trick. Needless to say, use your
| strongest physical attacks. Raise your defense, start a Revolution,
| and go to town.

| "Only with strength can one endure suffering and torment."

| STRENGTH (12/14)

| Weakness: None

| Null: Slash / Strike / Pierce / Light / Dark

| It's kind of like Chariot. This time, she kicks it up a notch. She'll
| lower your defense with Rakunda, Power Charge herself, and then
| seal off the deal with a Deathbound or Tempest Slash. Counter her
| defense down by having a Marakukaja up, that way, her Rakunda will
| only neutralize the effect. Furthermore, Tetrakarn can save you for
| one round each. If you are willing to invest the SP on it.

| "In the face of disaster lies opportunity for renewal."

| Strong: Slash / Strike / Pierce

| Null: Light / Dark

| This form has Mudo skills, and Megidola. Furthermore, expect a
| Mind Charge to make things more interesting. Among some other tricks
| up her sleeve, just keep your HP up. As you might know by now,
| Makarakarn won't save you against Megido skills.

| "The moment man devoured the fruit of knowledge, he sealed his fate..."

| Entrusting his future to the cards, man clings to a dim hope.

| Yet, the Arcana is the means by which all is revealed...

| Beyond the beaten path lies the absolute end.

| It matters not who you are... Death awaits you."

| DEATH (14/14)

Weakness: None

Strong: Slash / Strike / Pierce / Fire / Ice / Electricity / Wind

Null: Light / Dark

You get that? This form is strong against EVERYTHING but Almighty, but no one is to that anyway. To make things worse, she has a LOT more HP this time around.

She has all elemental spells available, including their respective Break skills. Feel free to set up Makarakarn, but it won't be that much of a help. Since her normal attack is Almighty, Tetrakarn won't help you one bit.

If she ever uses a skill called Moonless Gown, cease your attacks! You can't hurt her with anything, not even Almighty skills. Heal yourself up, throw in some buffs, but don't get comfy. She can erase those as well.

Once she gets low on HP, she starts using Night Queen. This does some good Almighty damage and throws in random status ailments. Remember, take care of Charm and Enrage quickly. Everything else can be somewhat ignored. Good luck!

Lines she uses during this phase...

"You cannot avoid death. To live is to die; they are one in the same..."

"Let us finish this. It is the path of your choosing."

You're done?

Watch some events, and then you'll be thrown into a "solo" battle. Just keep attacking, the game will take care of it. When you can, use the only skill available to you.

Like Ryoji had said, all recollection of the Dark Hour has vanished, including yours.

Time fast-forwards to March. At this point, you can go around and talk to those involved (or someone in their stead) in every SL you MAXed. This is mostly for some extra details, if you really wanted, you could skip this and just to your dorm room and sleep both days and get to the actual ending. But you worked hard for those SLs, so might as well get your money's worth, right?

If they ask you out or something, go ahead. Time won't pass.

The only bad thing is that the events with those from SEES aren't voiced, but oh well.

Here are the locations of all of them:

Magician: Talk to Junpei, in the classroom

Priestess: Talk to Fuuka in the Laboratory Hallway

Empress: Talk to Mitsuru in front of the Faculty Office

Emperor: Hidetoshi will be waiting in Gekkoukan's Main Lobby

Hierophant: In front of Bookworms

Lovers: Yukari is almost next to Junpei, in the classroom

Chariot: Talk to Rio in the Classroom Hallway, the usual spot

Strength: Find Koromaru at the Naganaki Shrine

Hermit: Enter the Infirmary/Library, accordingly to get her letter

Fortune: None

Justice: Ken will be at Gekkoukan's Entranceway

Hanged Man: You can find Maiko's father by the jungle gym in the Shrine

Death: None

-[Floor 36]-[Arqa]-

Change Relic [Empress]

Null: Wind / Light / Dark

Bring a few Dis-Poison for this fight, or someone with Posmudi.
Apsaras can learn it, but she's kind of low level anyway, probably.
You can try fusing her around, and see what you get.

Otherwise, try to go for Wind resistance. Junpei will take hard hits in this battle, and Yukari is probably gonna have to become a complete healer for the battle.

Therefore, Akihiko and Junpei become your fighting force, while you help Yukari heal and cleanse Poison, if needed.

This thing will use Poison Mist everyone now and then (therefore, the Posmudi), and Garula along with Magarula.

Poison is always a priority (well, unless someone is about to kick the bucket), so take care of it.

-[Floor 47]-[Arqa]-

Golden Beetle x3 [Emperor]

Weakness: Electricity

Strong: Slash / Strike / Pierce

Null: Ice / Light / Dark

They will always get the first turn, so don't bother too much with that.
Usually, they employ said turn by casting Tarukaja on themselves, therefore, their attacks will hurt.

Use Akihiko (or any Persona you might have) use Zio to knock them down and go with an All-Out Attack. Otherwise, hit them again to get them Dizzy if you want to avoid a few attacks.

-[Floor 59]-[Arqa]-

Intrepid Knight [Emperor]

Weakness: None

Strong: Slash / Strike / Pierce

Drain: Wind

Null: Light / Dark

This guy likes to use Wind attacks a lot. For this reason, you might want to sit out Junpei on this one. If he Mind Charges and then drops a Garudyne on him, he's probably out. Or a Magarula...

He can also drop a Hama on you, but hopefully, it won't work.

If you can get your hands on Fortuna-- you can either fuse around for her, or get her from a Persona card, you'll be protected from his spells, but that's not necessary.

Your main strategy will be using any spells outside of Wind that you might have-- use Yukari to heal, and spam Bufu and Zio with Mitsuru and Akihiko.

You can use whatever spell you have on hand with a decent-level Persona.

-[Floor 72]-[Yabbashah]-

Furious Gigas x3 [Strength] HP: 500 / Lv: 29

Weakness: Wind

Strong: Electricity

Repel: Strike

Null: Fire / Light / Dark

Bring Yukari and leave Akihiko.

For Yukari, it's a very straight tactic-- use her to knock everyone down with her Garu. Heck, by this point she should have Magaru. Then go All-Out.

If you can use Garu as well, use it to get double All-Outs, or to Dizzy them. Being of the Strength Arcana, they can obviously hit. So long as they don't gang up on anyone, you should be fine.

Yukari should also know Media.

-[Floor 85]-[Yabbashah]-

Fanatic Tower [Hierophant] HP: 2000 / Lv: 34

Weakness: None

Strong: Slash / Pierce

Repel: Fire / Elec / Ice

Null: Light / Dark

Lots of resistances and what not. Strike and Wind are your best bets to hit this one with full strength. Unfortunately, this thing likes Zionga and Mazionga, so Yukari might not be a very good choice.

Goes without saying that Akihiko is the perfect fighter for this one, since he's resistance to Electricity, and his attacks are Strike. If you can use Rakunda with Akihiko, go for it.

Since Yukari is probably out, Mitsuru can work as your healer via magic.

Junpei can just... do something. Scratch the enemy or something.

Keep some Dis-Poison or Posmudi ready to take care of some random Poisoning this guy might leave on you.

Outside from that, just keep scratching at it until it's down. And keep your HP up.

-[Floor 98]-[Yabbashah]-

Magical Magus x3 [Magician] HP: 700 / Lv: 38

Weakness: Fire

Strong: Slash / Strike / Pierce

Drain: Ice

Null: Light / Dark

Koromaru and Junpei are good characters to bring in order to knock down these guys with ease.

Sleeping Table [Magician] HP: 1500 / Lv: 50

Weakness: None

Strong: Slash / Pierce / Fire

Null: Strike / Light / Dark

This guy will hit. HARD. Do not bring Mitsuru, seriously. Otherwise, you are risking yourself too much.

His Maragidyne will hit very hard, easily one-shotting Mitsuru, and leaving anyone else but Koromaru and Junpei low on HP. That's not even the main problem though, it's his Megidola, which generally hits even harder.

Koromaru however is weak to Light, and this boss uses Hamaon. Still, if you have a few Homunculus with you, you should be good.

Start to get used to buffs and debuffs. Especially, use Marakukaja, and maybe Tarunda on the boss to up your chances of survival. Masukukaja and Sukunda is also a nice combo to play the evasion game, but go safe on this battle.

You need to get Mediarama. Unless Yukari for some reason is over 43 already, which I doubt it. There are several Personas you can get for this. Such as Leanan Sidhe or Saki Mitama, among other. You could also use a Skill Card on a Persona resistant to Fire.

The FeMC will generally be used for healing, probably. If damage was low, or just single target, you can use Yukari for Diarama if you have her. Otherwise, keep your HP up, and keep hitting this thing.

-[Floor 146]-[Tziah]-

Hell Knight x3 [Emperor] HP: 1000 / Lv: 48

Weakness: None

Strong: Fire / Ice / Wind

Drain: Electricity

Null: Light / Dark

For a change of pace, physical attacks are the way to go here.

Therefore, bring whoever EXCEPT for Aegis and Yukari. Otherwise they are gonna take a beating with the boss's electrical attacks.

If they use Mind Charge, beware. a Maziodyne is sure to follow-- Keep your HP topped!

Mitsuru is a good healer, as is Ken. Akihiko is probably a perfect choice, but they use Elec Break, so don't get too confident.

Bring a Persona resistant to either Electricity or Strikes, both work.

Once you are set, focus on taking them down by one. Since they have no real weaknesses, the odds of getting an All-Out Attack are very slim in the beginning.

-[Floor 160]-[Tziah]-

Mythical Gigas [Strength] HP: 2100 / Lv: 48

Weakness: None

Strong: Slash

Repel: Strike

Drain: Fire

Null: Pierce / Light / Dark

As usual from a Strength enemy, this guy believes in brute force. Furthermore, he's strong (in one way or another) against all physical type of attacks.

Therefore, you want magic on this one. Bring any of the following: Yukari, Mitsuru, Akihiko or Ken. Koromaru and Junpei are useless since the enemy drains Fire attacks.

The main problem is you are going to face a Marakunda on your team, and then he uses Power Charge before doing whatever-- though it's usually Deathbound. If by some freak chance you have a Persona with Tetrakarn, this is actually fun-- or get an Attack Mirror from the Antique Shop.

If not, then you need to slug it out the old fashioned way. Keep your HP up at all times, and whittle him down with whatever spells you got. If you have a Persona with Mind Charge and decent spells, it will speed things up.

-[Floor 171]-[Harabah]-

Judgment Sword x3 [Justice]                   HP: 1700 / Lv: 54
Weakness: None
Strong: Slash / Strike / Pierce / Fire
Drain: Electricity
Null: Light / Dark

You can see that Ice and Wind are your only damage dealers here, but they are slightly more resistant to Wind though. Therefore, bring Mitsuru. Yukari can also do damage, but you can guess that they use Zio skills since they absorb them, right? Well, they do. So leave Aigis out as well. You don't need to give them extra turns.

For optimal results, though this is just overkill, get a Persona resistant to Electricity, and teach him/her a decent Bufu skill. But really, that's beyond necessary. Focus fire, always focus fire.

-[Floor 180]-[Harabah]-

Stasis Giant x3 [Justice]                   HP: 1100 / Lv: 58
Weakness: None
Strong: Strike / Pierce / Fire / Wind
Null: Slash / Light / Dark

Fights are becoming more and more bothersome, don't you think?

As you can see, melee isn't a good choice. Bring the healer of your choice (Ken or Yukari), and throw in Akihiko as well for his debuffs. Aigis area buffs are useful, but she won't be doing much else.

While fighting, focus on survival. They use strong physical attacks, so if you got a Persona resistant (or better!) to them, good. Otherwise, just keep your HP up. Lower their attack/defense and up yours, then go to town. Ice and Electricity attacks are your best bets in the magical department. I don't suggest Mitsuru

-[Floor 236]-[Adamah]-

World Balance [Justice] HP: 3600 / Lv: 72

Weakness: None

Strong: Slash / Strike / Pierce

Null: Light / Dark

The best way to handle this fight, if you ask me, would be to get yourself Makarakarn (or one or two Magic Mirrors from the Antique Shop), and set the barrier up from the get go.

From there on, you REALLY want to increase your defenses-- Junpei or Aigis have the tricks for this. And decreasing the enemy's attack-- particularly with Akihiko.

Why the importance in that? Once you set up Makarakarn, the World Balance will start spamming Megidolaon. For this, a healing Persona or character-- be it your own or Yukari or Ken for the current version of Media they might have (Mediarahan is a blessing, but Mediarama can work, generally).

Trust me, it's better this way. Otherwise, you are liable to be weakness exploited by the balance (it has all 4 elements) or for it to start spamming Mamudoon or Mahamaon. You don't want that.

But what about offense? Personally, I set myself up with a Revolution and had everyone doing normal attacks whenever possible. They didn't do much damage like that, but the All-Out Attacks certainly did damage the thing, enough to compensate for the low, normal attack damage.

If you are topped off and you know your defenses (and the enemy's attack down) won't expire, feel free to use multi-hit physical skills, just for the increased crit chance, but don't abuse. You don't wanna be low on HP to be an easy pick for a Megidolaon, do you?

With the FeMC I had Mediarahan going off whenever needed. If it's not available to you, double healing might be necessary at some points. A Masukukaja is always welcome-- after all, avoiding damage altogether is much better than healing it, but not necessary.

Be sure to keep Tarunda on the enemy and Rakukaja (Well, Marakukaja) on your party. After a few All-Out Attacks, victory should be yours.

-[Floor 244]-[Adamah]-

Fierce Cyclops x3 [Hanged Man] HP: 1700 / Lv: 71

Weakness: None

Strong: Slash / Strike / Fire

Null: Electricity / Light / Dark

This is more of a muscle battle, you might think they are Strength rather than Hanged Man.

They use Primal Force or Vorpall Blade mostly. And just to change the pace a bit, Mazionga. For this reason, I don't recommend Yukari or Aigis-- even though Aigis buffs are very useful.

Of extra note, they often use Power Charge as well, but your main concern is sure to be able to keep them healed, or things could get out of hand. I don't suggest having more than 1 or 2 characters (outside of the FeMC) charmed.

Your main concern honestly, will be when he goes low on HP, as he'll start doing a Mind Charge BEFORE a Megidolaon. You don't want that. So either lower his attack and keep your defense up, or use the evasion/hit combo. Or just finish him off altogether before that.

[026]-----02.06. Vision Quest-----

For this 'quest', you actually have to revisit some fights, among other things. You'll also be facing some restrictions per battle, so be ready. You have to do the Priestess Door first. Once that's done, you can do whichever door you want.

Here's a quick-jump list.

- Priestess Door.....[VQD1]
- Empress & Emperor Door.....[VQD2]
- The Hierophant Door.....[VQD3]
- The Lovers Door.....[VQD4]
- Chariot & Justice Door.....[VQD5]
- The Hermit Door.....[VQD6]
- Fortune & Strength Door.....[VQD7]
- The Hanged Man Door.....[VQD8]
- Power Door.....[VQD9]
- Magic Door.....[VQD0]
- Resistance Door.....[VQDA]
- Speed Door.....[VQDB]
- Luck Door.....[VQDC]

Priestess Door [VQD1]

HP: 5000
Weakness: None
Repel: Ice
Null: Light / Dark

Restrictions: The party has to be FeMC, Yukari, and Junpei.

This isn't THAT different, except, of course, by the fact she's of a higher level and has better skills.

She can now pummel you with Bufudyne and Mabufudyne. Fortunately, neither Junpei nor Yukari are weak to that.

The main problem now are the Tiaras she summons. Both of them know Agidyne, Diarahan, and Tentarafoo. Diarahan is your main concern-- therefore, get those Shadows down FAST. Bring a Persona with Bubu skills; even though Priestess Repels it, the Tiaras are weak to. If your persona Absorbs or Nulls Ice, even better, but that's not necessary, probably. Hit 'em with all you got, you do not want them firing off a Diarahan.

The Tiaras are immune to Fire, Light, and Dark. The left one has 1200 HP and the right one has 800.

I suggest a Rebellion/Revolution, then use Yukari and Junpei to try and score a crit on Priestess unless the FeMC needs help with the Tiaras. All-out attacks are always good choices.

You'll get an Absorb Slash for your victory.

Empress & Emperor Door [VQD2]

????????????????????????

HP: 6500 (both)

Weakness: See below

Null: Light / Dark & see below

Restrictions: The party has to be FeMC, Junpei and Akihiko.

You remember this fight, right? They will switch around their weaknesses. As you being, Empress is weak to all physical attacks. Emperor is weak to all elemental magic, use that to your advantage.

Among their upgraded skills you can find Magarudyne, Megidolaon, God's Hand, Charges, Vorpall Blade, among other.

Remember that you have to use Fuuka's analyze in order to pinpoint their weakness whenever they use Paradigm Shift. I suggest you Defend or something while that happens-- or up your Defense with Junpei and lower something with Akihiko.

If you play your cards well, you can get over half of their HP before they even act.

You'll get 10x Last Judge as your reward.

The Hierophant Door [VQD3]

????????????????????????

HP: 8000

Weakness: None

Repel: Thunder

Null: Light / Dark

Restrictions: The party has to be FeMC, Yukari, and any two of the next: Junpei, Akihiko, and Mitsuru.

This is still an easy fight, even if you have to carry Yukari around. You'll be going against Maziodyne, Megidolaon, Mamudoon, Dekaja, among some other things. Prophecy of Ruin is new, if you ask me. Basically, high odds of Fearing everyone. CURE THIS RIGHT AWAY! He can also do Ghostly Wail.

I suggest bringing Akihiko (if only for less healing and that he can debuff) and then whoever you prefer from Junpei and Mitsuru. I suggest defending with Yukari as often as possible in order to avoid giving Hierophant '1 more'. Aside from that, you really shouldn't have much trouble here. To make things easier, get an Electricity Resistance ring on Yukari.

Honestly, the problem here is when he starts spamming Prophecy of Ruin... And that's actually bothersome, if nothing else.

For a bothersome fight, you'll one Absorb Pierce.

Luck Door [VQDC]

Easy enough. Climb to the 16th floor to find the chest with the document in front of the barrier blocking your path. In fact, you might even already have this done by the time requests are available.

Request 03: I'd like to sip a Muscle Drink

Available Since: April 30

Available Until: --

Reward: Angora Sweater

"Have you tried a Muscle Drink? I am curious how it tastes. Can you please bring me one?"

You can easily buy this in the Pharmacy, or you might have one from a treasure chest while exploring Tartarus.

Request 04: Retrieve 3 Old Lanterns

Available Since: May 10

Available Until: June 6

Reward: Umugi Water x2

"Defeat Phantom Mages on floors 17-24 of the 2nd block, Arqa, to retrieve 3 Old Lanterns."

Like the Bettle Shell, except you need 3 this time. Just go there and hunt them as you climb up.

Request 05: Retrieve the second old document

Available Since: May 10

Available Until: June 6

Reward: Recarm

"Retrieve Old Document 02 from the middle of the 2nd block, Arqa, and return here before the deadline."

Again, as you climb Tartarus, you will hit this next dead-end. You can get the document here.

Request 06: Create Jack Frost with Dia

Available Since: May 10

Available Until: --

Reward: Battle Panties

"Please create Jack Frost via fusion, and show me that he has the healing skill Dia."

There are several ways to get here-- including just making a Jack Frost and using a Dia card...

Other ways involve a Pixie x Unicorn or a Pixie x Berith. You'll find these as you climb the 2nd Block and do more fusions.

If you select the two for Fusion and Dia doesn't appear, simply back out and select both again. This reshuffles the skill set it will inherit.

Request 07: Retrieve 1 Lead Medal

Available Since: May 10

Available Until: --

Reward: Toy Bow

"Defeat the Wealth Hand, a rare monster in the 1st block, Thebel, to retrieve 1 Lead Medal."

These are a bother. Basically, go around Thebel, and hope you see a golden Shadow.

NOW, this is important. If you try to rush it, it will just run away and eventually disappear in a cloud of smoke. You have to wait until it has its back turned to you before going in and smacking it with your weapon.

Even then, during battle, they have a ridiculous high evasion-- though you have a high crit chance with normal attacks against them. And every turn, they can just run away. Good luck.

Request 08: Create Valkyrie with Tarukaja

Available Since: Complete Request 06

Available Until: --

Reward: Torn Black Cloth

"Please create Valkyrie via fusion, and show me that she has the supportive skill Tarukaja."

Another fusion request. The easiest way is to fuse a Forneus and a Yomotsu Shikome. Remember to shuffle skills if you don't see it.

Request 09: Retrieve 5 Bronze Figurines

Available Since: June 13

Available Until: July 5

Reward: Sigma Drive

"Defeat Bronze Dice on floors 41-46 of the 2nd block, Arqa, to retrieve 5 Bronze Figurines."

Like it says, go to the floors mentioned and hunt those Bronze Dice.

Request 10: Retrieve 3 Snake Scale

Available Since: June 13

Available Until: July 5

Reward: 46,000yen

"Defeat the Lustful Snakes in the 2nd block, Arqa, that are surrounded by a red glow to retrieve 3 Snake Scales."

You've probably seen those Shadows surrounded by a red glow. Try to find some anywhere in the 2nd block to get these items. You can also find them past the 2nd block, but by that point, it's too late.

So yeah, hunt around the 2nd block.

Request 11: Retrieve the third old document

Available Since: June 13

Available Until: July 5

Reward: 50,000yen

"Retrieve Old Document 03 from the top of the 2nd block, Arqa, and return here before the deadline."

Easy enough. Just get to the top of the 2nd block, which you can do as soon as this Request is available.

Request 12: Retrieve 1 Goggle-eyed Idol

Available Since: June 13

Available Until: --

Reward: W. Outfit Mitsuru

"I heard there's a rare item in your world known as a Goggle-eyed Idol. I'd like very much to see it."

You can get this from Venus and Jupiter Eagles in Tartarus. The easier way, however, is just trading in 2 Turquoise for it on the Antique Shop.

Request 13: Retrieve the shell of a man

Available Since: June 13

Available Until: --

Reward: Beam Naginata

"I heard there's a creepy-looking model in your world that's used for scientific study. I'd like to see it."

Once you get this quest, head to the Laboratory in the 1F, Laboratory Corridor. You'll be asked if you want to take the model.

Request 14: Retrieve 1 Steel Medal

Available Since: Complete Request 07

Available Until: --

Reward: Spiked Bat

"Defeat the Treasure Hand, a rare monster in the 2nd block, Arqa, to retrieve 1 Steel Medal."

Like the previous one in this chain (Req.07), go around the 2nd block until you find one. Remember to attack from behind, otherwise it will run away from you. And, even in battle it can still run away.

Good luck.

Request 15: Create Oberon (lv 17+)

Available Since: Complete Request 08
Available Until: --

Reward: W. Outfit Akihiko

"Create Oberon via fusion, and return here once he is level 17 or higher."

Simple enough, I guess. If you have the Emperor SL at lv3 or above, you'll get this right away from a Fusion. There are several combinations, so just try around. Won't take long.

If you really want to, though, you can use the Jack Frost from before and an Alp to get there.

Request 16: Bring me strong medicine

Available Since: July 9
Available Until: --

Reward: Balm of Life

"I've heard there's a powerful, possibly dangerous medicine in the nurse's office. I would like a sample of it."

Whenever you are Tired or Sick, head to the Nurse's office. This is normally useful to raise your Courage, but this time, after you drink it, you will get the Powerful Drug. You must have the request on hand, of course.

Request 17: I'd like some funky school music

Available Since: July 9
Available Until: --

Reward: Orange Cutsew

"I'd like to listen to a song that is associated with your school..."

With the request accepted, go to the PA Room on the 2F, Classroom Corridor of Gekkoukan to get this record.

Request 18: Retrieve 5 Relic Fragments

Available Since: July 9
Available Until: August 4

Reward: Land Badge

"Defeat Creation Relics on floors 65-77 of the 3rd block, Yabbashah, yo retrieve 5 Relic Fragments."

Like it says. Hunt Creation Relics on the floors mentioned until you get these.

Request 19: Retrieve 3 Greasy Gears

Available Since: July 9
Available Until: August 4

Reward: King of Wands x2

"Defeat the Wild Drives in the 3rd block, Yabbashah, that are surrounded by a red glow to retrieve 3 Greasy Gears."

Like the Primal Snakes, you need to hunt these specifically on the 3rd block with the red aura. By the time you find them normally on the 4th block, this request will be gone.

Request 20: Retrieve the fourth old document

Available Since: July 9

Available Until: August 4

Reward: Fast Retreat

"Retrieve Old Document 04 from the middle of the 3rd block, Yabbashah, and return here before the deadline."

Just get to the top floor available during this period-- floor 89, to find it. You know the drill.

You can get Nebiros with... A Decarabia + Pazuzu, for example.

Continuing with the fusion requests...

Probably the easiest way would be to get Gabriel from the 5th block in Shuffle Time, level him up to 71 so he gets Mabufudyne, then fuse him with a Chimera to get a Succubus with Mabufudyne. Then get the rest of the necessary Personas and do the Cross Spread. Shuffle around until you get Mabufudyne on Lilith.

Of course, if you somehow have a Mabufudyne card (very unlikely, since only Trumpeter and Michael, two Judgment Personas, give them), you can cheat.

You can sometimes find this in rare chests from floors 4 and 11. Barring that, you can always wait until a bit later and get Sword Rank 2 cards in Shuffle Time. You have to wait until the 2nd block, but is probably an easier method, even if it depends on luck what you get from said card.

-----04. Female Main Character Social Links-----

[040]-----04.00. Explanation-----

Social Links have one very important purpose. Besides getting to know the characters involved, which is nice and all, having a Social Link leveled grants you bonus exp to any Persona fusioned of a resulting Arcana in which you have levels of the Social Link.

At most, this converts into 5 levels, but that's still pretty nice, considering your Personas take a lot more to level.

So, how do Social Links work?

Each character has its own schedule, so to speak. So you can't just advance an SL whenever you feel like it. In certain forms, you are at their whims.

Even so, it takes a certain degree of friendship or trust to advance to the next level.

Points

During an SL event, you will be given several choices from time to time. Some choices are, of course, have stronger meaning to some characters.

You can get anywhere from 1 to 3 musical notes. With 3 being the best. These points are then saved for the next level (and only the next level), so that you can climb the levels faster.

It is in your best interest to go for the best answers to make this process fast.

How many points you need per level depends on the SL. Some hardly require points. Other don't require points at all.

There are also two very important factors in trying to achieve the most points possible.

Matching Persona / Charm Bonus

If you carry a matching Persona of the SL (meaning, if you are going out with Junpei, who is of the Magician SL, bring a Magician Persona), you'll get a x1.5 bonus of the points obtained. (More details below)

If you have your Charm maxed, you also get a x1.5 bonus.

If you have BOTH, you get a x2.28 bonus!
Throw away any resulting fraction in the end, however.

Notes and Points

There are only four possible outcomes to any given choice.

- 0 Points
- 5 Points
- 10 Points
- 15 Points

These values represent Rank Up events only. For more information on dates during your days off, see next point.

There are two type of events; Rank Up, and let's call 'em, Dates/Passing Time.

During Dates, you will only accrue points in order to reach the threshold for the next level. You are still encouraged to go for max points.

During Rank Up events, you will level up regardless of your choices. BUT, any points you get will be saved towards the next level.

All decisions matter! If you have three choices, and you can get three notes on all of them, do so! You'll get a plethora of points for the next level.

I will note the points obtained for a particular decision in each individual SL's section. It's up to you to calculate the resulting points for any multiplier you might have.

Things that Increase Social Points

- > Anytime you accept their offer to be with them.
Basically, if you go out with them, or do your duties for part of a club or whatever, you'll be getting 10 points (not modified).
EXCEPTION! These only add up if it was a 'Date'. If you had a Rank Up event, these points don't count at all.

- > During a Rank Up Event
Like mentioned above, any given choice can give you 0, 5, or 15 points. Remember, these aren't modified. At most, with both bonuses, you can get 34 points from a 15 one!

- > Accept to go out with them on your days off
Whenever you have a day off (Sunday or Holidays), someone might call you during Daytime asking to go out. Saying yes here will net you 10 points, not to mention whatever other points you might accrue during the outing. See each individual section for help on these vents.

- > During a Day Off Date
Whenever you are invited out, as mentioned in the previous bullet, you'll also be presented with one choice. During this particular case, however, notes are worth different values:
  - 0 Notes = 0 Points
  - 2 Notes = 15 Points
  - 3 Notes = 30 PointsAgain, these aren't modified. As you can see, they are worth a lot.

- > Giving a Present during a Day Off Date
At the end of a Day Off Date, you can give them a present. What each person likes obviously varies (see each SL individual section).
There are 3 possible outcomes:
  - 0 Points
  - 10 Points
  - 50 PointsThere are slight variations. Three Notes have two versions, for something they REALLY like (50) or just like (30).
Remember, these are not modified.
With both bonuses you are looking at over 100 points easily... But no SL requires that much for one level...

- > Whenever you go out to walk Koromaru, if someone joins you for that night, they'll get 10 points prior to multipliers.

How to Read Things Below

First up are the details of the SL. Meaning, when can you start it, who does it involve, and when/where is that person, if relevant.

Next, is a table of the points you need to reach each rank.

Past that, are the Rank Up events. Once you get this event, you will rank up, like mentioned above. These answers help you get to the next rank faster.

In [] before the actual answer are how many points you'll get. Answers that give nothing have -- in the []s.

After that, are the events for Off Days, call 'em dates or not. Up to you. These events depend entirely on your CURRENT rank level.

So, if you are Rank 1 with someone, you will go to a specific place and be asked a specific question. And only that. If you move to Rank 2 and go out again, it will be a different scenario. And such for every Rank.

Next to each Rank, you'll find three numbers in [].

They represent:

1. The max number of social points you can get without multipliers
2. The resulting amount if you have Charm maxed OR a matching Persona
3. The resulting amount if you have BOTH Charm maxed and a matching Persona

You can use these values to check if you are gonna be short for the next event given your current situation.

[041]-----04.01. Off Day Invitations-----

This section displays the schedule in which you might be invited out by people from the various SLs.

There are some main requirements for this to happen though.

First: You must have the SL. I mean, if they don't really get along with you, they won't even call you, right?

Second: Some SLs require you to be at a certain rank

Third: The SL must not be 'broken'. Meaning, you must be in good terms.

Fourth: Once the SL is at MAX, they won't call you. Apparently, you are now very good friends that spending time together isn't needed.

Specific Ranks Needed

Rank 1+: Junpei Iori

Rank 2+: Fuuka Yamagishi, Mitsuru Kirijo, Yukari Takeba, Rio Iwasaki, and Bebe

Rank 4+: Saori Hasegawa

Rank 5+: Akihiko Sanada

Rank 7+: Ken (Justice)

Anyone not listed above is not available for these events.

Now, all of these events have fixed dates. So long as you comply with the requirements above, they will call you on the following days.

If more than one person is scheduled for that day, you must refuse the first one in order to get the second one's call.

Please note the different tables. The middle, one, designed for August, has two different characters. On some dates, people might ask you out normally.

On other dates, you can either invite people to the Film Festival, or they will ask you to go with them, depending on the person-- if it's someone from the dorm, you need to ask them out. If it's someone from outside, they will call you.

In two occasions, people might call you out for a normal date. If you decline these invitations, you can take someone to the Film Festival too.

Notice the legend next to the table.

Invitations

In form of a table. There will be separations per month. Each letter stands for the first name of the person in question, with five exceptions.

To avoid unnecessary clutter, the persons in the last column will only be added during their necessary sections-- be it the Film Festival, or specific months.

|            |            |             |              |

How to become Lovers

After reaching Rank 10, the next available day (October 2, at the earliest), talk to Shinjiro. The game will say you are at max Rank already, still, spend time with him. You will then be given several choices, select:

- > "I want to be with you."
- > "I love you."
- > "I'm not teasing you!"
- > Either; if you select your room, you're given another choice-- you'll end up in his room anyway
- > "I still want to go."
- > "I still love you, Senpai!"
- > "I'm not going anywhere!"

I'm sure a few choices can be changed, but eh.

[052]-----05.02. Special Persona Fusion Combinations-----

What is this section about? Basically, this is to help you get all those nifty Personas that you can only get through Cross, Pentagon or Hexagon Spreads, along with any outside persona you might want to get, such as the unlocked Persona for getting to MAX in an SL.

If a Persona from a MAX SL is actually a Cross/Penta/Hexa Spread, it will be under whatever category it falls. That section is only for Personas that require double or triple spreads, nothing too fancy.

This will NOT include every single persona, just those mentioned above. Remember that in order to perform any of the 4+ spreads, you need to be past September 21.

Basically, it shows the Persona, then the Personas you need for that. On the 'ingredients' list, I will also list the Arcana. In a line below each of those, I will present any fusion combinations I can think of. Generally, I only provide triple spreads when necessary. Any Personas required for THOSE fusions are up to you. You should easily get them if you read the mechanics guide done by Arthellinus.

I also wanna thank his guide for helping me come with some of these. And for the floors of the Shuffle Times provided.

IMPORTANT! Due to the nature of Triple Spreads, sometimes when you try it, you won't get the Persona I mentioned. If that happens, then level the first Persona of the three mentioned to be the highest level of the three. Remember, this is only if when you try it, it doesn't work.

Ordered by level.

-----07. Other Tidbits-----

[071]-----07.01. Shuffle Time-----

There are 3 ways to earn a ShuffleTime after battle.

1. If they MC deals a finishing blow (by any means, crit/weakness or not).
2. If you win with an All-Out Attack.
3. If you defeat 2 or more enemies with a '1 More' during one turn.

The third one is a bit tricky to understand. If you kill one enemy with a crit/weakness and get '1 More', you gotta kill another enemy and get ANOTHER '1 More', then just kill another enemy.

It's not that you would have triggered the '1 More' with the attack or not,

Shuffle Time, however, will NOT trigger against bosses (ANY), or The Reaper inside Tartarus.

What can you get from Shuffle Time?

- > Persona Cards
- > Sword Cards = Weapons
- > Wand Cards = Extra Exp

- > Cup Cards = Healing (HP only)
- > Coin Cards = Yen
- > Blank Card = Nothing
- > Cursed Cards = Bring the Reaper to you

All cards but Personas and Blank cards can be cursed; you can tell by the black, flame-like skull painted over them.

What these do, is bring the Reaper closer to appear. And he's not a nice guy.

Every other card, sans the Persona ones, have 10 different levels. You'll find higher levels as you go up Tartarus.

Wand Cards

These multiply your exp by a fixed amount.

- Rank 1: x1.2
- Rank 2: x1.4
- Rank 3: x1.6
- Rank 4: x1.8
- Rank 5: x2.0
- Rank 6: x2.2
- Rank 7: x2.4
- Rank 8: x2.6
- Rank 9: x2.8
- Rank10: x3.0

Coin Cards

Here's a log of the amounts I've gotten. Well, min and max for each one.

- Rank 1:
- Rank 2: 1910 ~ 2360
- Rank 3: 3340 ~ 3480
- Rank 4: 3900 ~ 5300
- Rank 5: 7540 ~ 10660
- Rank 6: 11200 ~ 17500
- Rank 7: 20600 ~ 30500
- Rank 8: 30200 ~ 43000
- Rank 9: 54600 ~ 71400
- Rank10: 66100 ~ 92500

Cup Cards

These heal your HP. And HP only.

This is purely conjecture, as I haven't tested every single Rank THAT much, but apparently, Rank 1 to 4 heal only the MC.

From Rank 5 onwards, they also heal your allies, altought to a lesser degree.

Regardless, at Rank 10 it seems they will almost always, if NOT always, heal your party to full.

[072]-----07.02. Missing Persons in Tartarus-----

Starting June 18, people will wander into Tartarus. You can rescue them by finding them (Elizabeth/Theodore will give you estimates on the floors).

By doing so, you'll get some rewards that they leave in the Police Station. You have to save them BEFORE the next Full Moon, else they are gone forever.

Sorted by blocks of Tartarus. First goes name, then the date Elizabeth or Theodore calls you to inform you.
Followed by the day when they will be gone. If this day appears on your clock in-game, they are gone.
The floor you can find the person, and your reward.

Closing Lines:

If you feel generous, you can always send money via Paypal to the same email address in this file. Of course, it's totally optional. And the only thing you'll get out of it is self-satisfaction, as I have nothing to offer outside of this guide. =3

All donations are hugely appreciated. The more games I get, the more guides I can write too.
