2-INFO

This is the official info of Bandai

Digimon World 2 for Sony PlayStation features more than double the number of Digimon to raise and battle from the original. And, by defeating Digimon in battle, the player can turn them into allies to aid in future Digi-battles.
By making allies of defeated Digimon, the player can engage in battle with the three-member Digimon team he assembles. When the player's battle tank comes into contact with the enemy on the field, battle begins.
More Digimon=More Exciting Battles=More Fun!.

2-Equipe them item in the Digi-Beattle
3-Go to the Domains
4-Find the Digimon you want to catch

YOU NEED TO UPGRADE YOUR CAR OFTEN, because you start with 500HP

(Health of the car) and 100EP (The Engine Power) That stats are good for the first Domains but later (around the 4 Domain) the Domains will have more than 5 floors, so you must upgrade the Engines often.
Buy New parts: Go to the DB room go talk to the Parts Vendor.
Upgrade DB: Go talk with the assemble guy or Tankmon and choose the second option "upgrade"

9-DIGIVOLVING
**************
Like in the TV series and DW1 the Digimons can digivolve into different kinds of monsters. For digivolve your Digimon go talk with DNA Digivolver woman or with Centarumon (File City)and choose "Digivolve", then choose the Digimon you want to digivolve and thats all.

For digivolve, the Digimons must to be in certain levels:
For digivolve from Rookie to Champion the Digimon needs 11 levels,
(aprox 600 exp)
For digivolve from Champion to Ultimate the Digimon needs 21 levels, (aprox 6000 exp)
For digivolve from Ultimate to Mega the Digimon needs 31 levels
(aprox 31000 exp)

For make your Digimon to digivolve you need to fight with other Digimons, if you win battles your Digimon wins experience, your Digimon need the exp. for can grow levels.
If you see, that your Digimon stop growing experience (It will say 99999999), that means that he needs to be DNA Digivolved with other Digimons, so the new Digimon will reach more levels.

One new and important thing is the DP/JP, All the Digimons have DP/JP. Your starter Digimon and the Digimons you catch, starts with 0 DP/JP. The DP/JP is for the different evolutions.

For example,
If you have a Demi Devimon with 0 DP/JP he will digivolve into Ice Devimon, but if the Demi Devimon has 3 DP/JP or more he will digivolve into Devimon.
You win 1 DP/JP when you DNA Digivolve.
For more info go to the DNA Digivolving Section

Here is a huge list of the digivolutions and the DP/JP needed.
The words in () means the DP/JP needed.

10-DNA DIGIVOLVING
******************
DNA Digivolving is very important in this game. You must to fuse two Digimons for make a new and stronger one. Rookies cant be fused.
In the first base you can only fuse:
Champion with Champion.
And only the types of the digimons of the base that you choosed.

Later in the game you can fuse any kind of Digimons (not Rookies).
If you fuse:
Champion + Champion: Rookie
Ultimate + Champion: Rookie
Mega + Champion: Rookie
Ultimate + Ultimate: Champion
Mega + Ultimate: Champion
Mega + Mega: Ultimate

When your Digimon stop growing exp. is time for fuse him with other, because he CANT go up anymore levels, So if you fuse two Digimon the new one will reach more levels than the others.

For Example,
If you fuse a Greymon (lvl. 13) with an Airdramon (lvl. 13) a Veemon will born and he will reach the level 15.

Why?, because a simple theory:

X Digimon has a higher or equally level than Y Digimon, so X Digimon + Y Digimon /5: A new Digimon who can go up that levels.

For the Veemon example:

Greymon lvl. 13 + Airdramon lvl 13/5: A Veemon who can grow to the level 15
13/5: 2.6 ;
13 + 2.6: 15

When you Fuse two Digimons the new one will acquire the techs from the fused Digimon, in later levels.

For the Veemon example.

Greymon with his powers + Airdramon with his powers:
Veemon with the Greymon and Airdramon powers and his own powers.

Here is huge list of what can you do for make the Digimon that you want.
