Introduction

Hi. My name is, well you can call me GerilaF. First thing first, I'm an Asian who rarely uses English so you WILL find some mistakes both in grammar and probably spelling. You can either disregard them, or correct them by e-mailing me.

What actually moved me or made me to write this FAQ? I don't know, I first thought, you know, what the hell, just for the fun of it. But now I know the labor, misery, pain and suffering one must endure to complete a guide! Argh! It takes a lot of motivation for me, since I have a serious problem about procrastination. That's why you can see, I started this guide in July '02 and completed it in January '05. Imagine the motivation... man. Oh, anyways, Characters in a game play extremely huge part in making the game truly good and fun to play which makes gamers crave to follow the story until the end. That what makes a game great; making the players feel that the characters they see and play actually exist and alive. That's what I want, and also that's why I'm here. Writing this FAQ so you can get to know and get closer to the characters.

In any case, it's important to know something about the villagers. They are your neighbours and your family. Get close to them and you shall have a wonderful life living in the village! Woohoo!

E-mail Policy

I don't really expect hundreds of e-mails filling my inbox since this is just a character guide, kinda a sub-section of the game, so it's not really a big thing. If you want to e-mail me, feel free to do so. But don't go around asking me about crops, weather or stuff that are not related to the villagers in the game. Ask appropriate questions, and uh, you also can send those critiques about the guide. Lastly personal inquiries will not be replied!

Put HM:BTN and the title of your question as the subject. I'll go from there and read your questions.

Version History

Version 1.0 - 8th January 2005

- (o) A few regular information about the characters and some basic sections.
- (o) The majority of the guide is basically complete.

Everything is new and I'm thinking about adding some new sections

but I bet that won't be happening in the next few years. ¤_¤

About The Game

Your father cancelled the vacation he promised you, as he had to work for the entire season. This broke your heart; at that time it seemed impossible for you to spend time with him. He then suggested that you pay a visit to your grandfather's farm out in the country. And off you went, suprisingly, to found that the village life is far more interesting. You became quite familiar with the environment; you love playing with the animals and do stuff. You then finally met a girl your age, talked and had happy times. When the time came for you to return to your father, you made a promise to her that you would come back some day.

Ten years after that, your grandfather passed away and left you a farm. Now, the Mayor hopes that you can take care of the farm, and bring it back up just like before in just three years. Be prepared, your new life... starts here.

CHARACTER GUIDE

---

Finally, the part I spent years to complete. I'm going to list each of the villagers in the game alphabetically as well as their description, status, house location, family, birthday and what are the perfect presents you should give them. The term "perfect presents" here means things they like the MOST and things that are easy to obtain such as spa boiled eggs, flowers, etc. Anyway do know that I don't play the N64 version of the game, which means I don't really know what happened to some of them before. You'll find a few questions in a few of these profiles. So, if you people know and play that version, e-mail me! Okay, let's move on! =D

---

Ann \ _____ [0001]

Description : As you all know, she's kind of tomboy, but still cute.
She's the one wearing the blue pinafore and lives at the inn.

Family : She seems to be living only with his father Doug at the inn, uh, exclude the guests. No brothers or sisters, and from the game we know her mother died.

How embarassing would that be eh? The party starts at 11 PM until 6 PM.

also has a daughter, Mary. They all live together in by the Hot Spring occasionally.

May to Barley's care. Bloody daughter!

Description : Basil is like one of those researchers that are really into what they are doing. He's a cheerful plant-animal freak who has written a lot of books on what he knows about the village. Those books in the library where Mary works mostly belong to him! He wears a green vest top with a brown hat and mysteriously carries a sleeping back on his back all the time.

really seem to like Basil's job that much. But still,
they both are a quite funny couple.

can find him roaming in his room in the Inn.

Status : In a relationship with Ann.

Family : Ah, very hard. The game doesn't really tell us anything about his family except the event during Ann's birthday. He told us something about his sister. Gotta update!

Birthday : 6th of Summer.

Perfect Presents : Spa-Boiled Egg.

Doctor \ _____ [0010]

Description : Working as a doctor in his own infirmary with Elli as his assistant, he, in my opinion is quite a secretive guy, who doesn't really have much to say. Nonetheless this is the person you should talk to if you're sick. He's the one that wears the white uniform and has a stethoscope around his neck just like a doctor would including the thing on his forehead. Black hair.
