INTRODUCTION

This is a song that played in the ending. Its meaning has something to do with the storyline, Maya, and Tatsuya. A very well done R&B song. An English singer, Elisha La'Verne is the singer. And since I tracked this lyrics from the song itself, ask me before posting it in your site.

LYRICS

Written by: Elisha La' Verne, T. Kura

Performed by: Elisha La' Verne

You can go where you want to go
Be who you want to be
Change the way you live
(Change the way you live)
You can go where you want to go
Be who you want to be
Try to be positive

Take your life
Take it in your hands
Starting from today
It's all yours
Bring the sunshine out
Blow the clouds away
Your world is what you want
Starting from today
You can do it if you try
I'll leave it up to you
It'll bring a brand new life
A brand new life

Make you feel you've achieved something
You can call your own
I'm here to show you that
You're not alone no

You can go where you want to go
Be who you want to be (Be who you wanna be)
Change the way you live
(Change the way you live)
You can go where you want to go
Be who you want to be
Be confident be positive

Forget how it was
Think how it could be
Only you can take your life to heights
You've so much to give
You've so much to see
I'm positive you'll be all right
Things are gonna be alright
Things are gonna be alright

You can go where you want to go
Be who you want to be
Change the way you live
Change the way you live today (Change the way you live)
You can go where you want to go
(You're gonna change the way you live)
Be who you want to be
Be confident be positive

You can go where you want to go
Be who you want to be
Change the way you live
(Change the way you live)
You can go where you want to go
Be who you want to be
Be confident be positive

You can be (You can be)
You can change (You can change)
You can live (You can live)
You can go (You can go)
You can live your life the way you want
Change the way you live
You can be (You can be)
You can change (You can change)
You can live your life
You can take it in you hand today
