1.0 What you will find in this FAQ
=====

```

This FAQ is to help gamers of Tales of Destiny 2 locate hard to find stuff and locations in the game. It is almost impossible to locate certain things without asking other people or even ask people with a guide book for the game. Not everyone can afford to buy the guide book. This FAQ is to help people without a guide book. Of course, this FAQ's info is not totally from the guide book itself either, it is also topped off with my experience and the double checking of the info found there. I aim to make the FAQ as close to 100% accurate as possible. This FAQ only consists of the locations of things. If you want a more descriptive info, either look at other FAQs or e-mail me if you want to confirm anything.

2.0 Wonder Chef Locations

Wonder Chefs are located all around the game. You will find them disguised as objects found around towns. They are usually out of place objects in towns. So if you see something out of place, that's most likely a Wonder Chef. There are a total of 27 Wonder Chefs altogether.

4.0 Hidden Locations

These are hidden caches found all over Eternia. You can find good items in these places, some of which are new battle commands for battle. These places are worth going to. So take your time to find them. You can usually access the surface caches after getting the Aerial Board on Inferia and the Van Eltia on Celestia. But these locations are found most easily when you have the valuable GPS and the Aibird. As for the underwater caches, they can only be accessed when you have the Aifish. There are also hidden villages, extra dungeons and a bonus dungeon. I'll include a mini walkthrough for the bonus dungeon in this FAQ. The tips given are mainly given from my own experience.
