The Legend of Dragoon is a traditional RPG created by Sony Computer Entertainment Corporation, which is similar to Final Fantasy style of Hi everybody ! I'm back again...

Squaresoft. Although this game doesn't reach the honourable peak of Final Fantasy, it still attracts a lot of players and always stays in Top Games List.

Well, I am Phan Nguyen Khanh Dan "Mysticcat" - an amateur FAQ writer. I have already made a FAQ/Walkthrough for The Legend of Dragoon which I think to be my most faithful guide currently. Now I decide to make another guide for this game, but this time it'll be a plot guide. Why am I doing it ? I have played The Legend of Dragoon, and I myself have been confusing by the story and episodes in the game. After a long time of searching and finding out, I have understood and I think this game should have a Plot Analysis, as any adventure games with complex storyline. The story in The Legend of Dragoon, generally, is not so complex as real adventure games like Resident Evil or Silent Hill series. But the timeline and episodes are put in together, which can't be understood immediately. In this guide, I will try to analyze the events of the game following given numbers. I also make analysis for each necessary character clearly, about the important events in their lives. This is the first time I write a Plot Guide, so there may be some little mistakes after the guide is completed. If you readers have any ideas or spot mistakes in the FAQ, please email me at fireaquarian@yahoo.com. All your contributions are appreciate.

I forgot to tell you this. It's very important. If you are a new player of The Legend of Dragoon, be careful to read this. Being a Plot guide, it contains huge spoilers which can break your enthusiasm to play the game. So my advice for you: Just read this FAQ when you have got through the game at least once.

Thank you for reading this guide.

Anyone who wants to make use on the document, must have the author's permission. If you want to use the guide on your sites, just email me and let me see your site first. And once you have my permission to use the guide, you may not permit anyone else to use it. If I spot anyone who breaks this rule, you are sure to be sued. An important note for those who want to use my guide is that you must check the latest updates frequently in www.gamefaqs.com. I don't have time to send them to each of you. If you feel that you can't do this work, you should not ask to use the guide. These are the current available sites:

You can download the guide from the web, alter, translate or modify it that I myself can't manage to know. If you are kind, don't do those actions without my permission, or you'll get a bad result for what you did.

Generally, I tell you: Just ask me about what you will do with the guide. When you have emailed me, that means you have got 50% of my permission. I'm pretty easy-going and I'm willing to allow you to use my guide if you are polite to me. But if you do bad actions, don't blame me about what I will do for you.

Finally, I apologize of being rude.

Thank you for reading this.

- Version 0.2 (May 8th 2002) Plot Analysis started.
- Version 0.5 (May 9th 2002) Additional Explanations added.
- Version 0.7 (May 9th 2002, night)
 Story & Timeline completed.
 Additional Explanations basically completed.
- Version 1.0 (May 10th 2002)
 Plot Analysis basically completed, with more events added.
- Version 1.2 (June 28th 2004)
 Added "Drake the Bandit" in "Other Characters" section.
 Added "The Four Sacred Sisters of Deningrad" in "Additional Explanations" section.

Notes: It's been 2 years since I stopped updating this old guide. During that time, emails mentioning this game The Legend of Dragoon still keep coming to me no matter how old the game has become. And recently, a reader has suggest that I should add "Drake the Bandit" into my plot explanation. So I make this update, along with adding another explanation that I have been thinking of "The Four Sacred Sisters of Deningrad". Check them out if you are interested. Again, thanks to all the readers who are reading my guides, including this "modest" guide and contribute to make it more useful.

- Version Final (February 11th 2005)
Added Ouranos Heaven's suggestions in Section 7 "Additional Explanations".

Can't believe that someone still cares about this old but awesome game. I think he has explained many major things which I didn't pay much attention to in my Plot Analysis. You should check it out.

If you have read my The Legend of Dragoon FAQ/Walkthrough, you have realized this section: Story and Timeline. But here, this is a Plot Analysis. That means I will analyze the events more clearly and more details in certain time, especially the timeline.

--> THE BEGINNING OF THE EARTH

Long long ago, the earth was the world covered by darkness, terrible and dreadful. It had no creature and lives. It was liveless. Then Creator Soa - the mother of lives - dropped a seed in the earth and grew it. The seed grew very strongly and fast. It became a great tree - the Divine Tree. It had many fruits as Creator Soa's plan: Each fruit was a life, a living creature. The fruits grow bigger and more crowded. Then the dropped on the ground, becoming various living creatures who were the first lives of the earth.

The 97th Fruit : Gigantos

This species has a big size and very strong at physical effects. The Gigantos is not a popular species. They are great with strong and huge weapons in fighting. Physical effects hardly make them hurt. But most of them have no emotion that they are rather weak at magical effects.

As the 96th creature, The Gigantos were not as perfect as later creatures, especially the human beings. In the war between creature kinds, they were nearly annihilated. There are very few Gigantos survived from the chaos. One of them was Kongol. About Kongol's details, please refer to the next section of Characters' Plot Analysis.

The 99th Fruit : Minitos

This species is the opposite of Gigantos: small size, fast but weak. Just like the Gigantos, they are not perfect enough to become popular in the earth. But we can also a find a few of them wandering in the Flower City or anywhere else.

The 105th Fruit : Dragons

The second most powerful species of all 107 creatures given life by the Divine Tree. Their attacks and life power over helm others, however, the creator Soa created a balance by reducing the Dragon's intelligence. There fore, they were to be controlled by Humans with their wisdom. During the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago, they had fierce battle against Virage manipulated by Winglies and couldn't avoid being annihilated.

The Human beings who are able to control the dragons, are called the Dragon Knights : The Dragoons.

The 106th Fruit : Human

The most popular species of the world. With a very high intelligence, Humans rose to fight against the Winglies to take the control of the world. Winglies had Virage as their fighting tools, Humans had Dragons and seven Dragoons as their soldiers under the lead of Holy Imperial Gloriano - Emperor Diaz. In the end they took the victory, having become the species who rules the world.

The Dragon Knights, or the Dragoons - the people who could control Dragons, are the leaders of Human beings, to fight for the fate of the lives. Their strong power grown from insanity. Dragoons, they only appear when the legend needs them...

The 107th Fruit: Winglies

The people with Wings of life who employ the magical power. They had their glory 11000 years ago, and had enormous magical power that could float colossal cities. They became extinct after the War with Humans who were seeking their liberation.

The Winglies, in some side, can be considered to be more perfect than the Humans. They can fly with their air wings, and they possess powerful magical power which Humans don't have. But the fact was that they were losers of the Humans. And since the Winglies were defeated by Humans, they haven't seen in the earth, as they may still survive, in hidden shelters somewhere in this earth.

The 108th Fruit : Virage Embryo

Virage, as we know, is the creature that supported Winglies in the war between the two species. The Human beings have Dragon Knights as their leaders, so the Winglies have Virages as their fighting tools. But this species is a super Virage - the God of Destruction which would be given birth by the Moonchild. This species has the strongest power which could take the world to be annihilated.

The Moonchild was supposed to be born by the creator to give birth to the God of Destruction. To prevent the earth from doom, the Moonchild must be killed. And the Black Monster, or the Black Whachamacalit, was the person who did that ? So who was the Black Monster ?

--> MORE THAN 11000 YEARS AGO

The Winglies, as the most perfect race at that time, became the rule of the world, with their intellgence and magical power which other species don't have. They had ruled this world for a long time, before the Dragon Campaign happend, which gave the liberation to the Humans.

During this time, the Winglies have built a lot of magical cities used to rule the creatures in the earth. Each city has its own function. But all of them were great architectures that the Humans wasn't able to do. They are:

---Birth City Crystal Palace---

A diagonal palace made of crystal. This city now is the Crystal Palace of Deningrad. Long long ago it was the Birth City of Winglies where the babies were chosen to be born. The Winglies has special magical power. Only the babies who had the strong power enough could be allowed to be born.

---Magical City Aglis---

A mysterious city of Winglies where magic is researched and studied. It was a great building built under the sea which the Humans could never believe.

---Law City Zenebatos---

It was the city where Wingly laws were made. The laws were claimed for justice but actually they were used to judge other species. It is the place where executions and trials were carried out.

---Death City Mayfil---

It is the place where all the souls of the dead must go.

---Capital Kadessa--

This was the strongest city with most powerful system which the Winglies used to rule the world. But after the Dragon Campaign, it was called the Forbidden Land as it became ruins for years.

*At this time, the seven human beings who later were chosen to be Dragon Knights were born. Two of them were Rose - the Dark Dragoon and Zieg - the Red-eyed Dragoon, also Dart's father. According to her age, she might be born 11026 years ago. About why they could still live in the earth for more than 11000 years, refer to their plot analysiss.

--> 11000 YEARS AGO

There was a war of the species to get each own liberation and to rule the world, especially between the two most perfect kinds: Humans and Winglies. In legend, that tremendous war was called the Dragon Campaign. It took place in Capital Vellweb. Now this place is just a ruin. But people's mind and souls are still around here.

Dragon Knights, the seven heroes who led the Dragon Campaign to the victory 11000 years ago, crossed the sky and cast spells. The leader of Winglies, Melbu Frahma, was killed by very the Red-eyed Dragoon Zieg. After they fulfilled their roles, the Dragoons vanished with the Dragoon Spirits as if it were some unavoidable fate. But where were they? The truth was that only the Dragoon Spirits remained, and the Dragoons... they died. Rose was the only survivor... She witnessed Zieg who was being stoned by the curse of Melbu Frahma.

There's a small episode which is also needed to tell. At this time, the Divine Dragon - the Lord of Dragon who has seven eyes and a great power, was sealed in the Mountain of Mortal Dragon by the Winglies. He was uncontrollable and tough which he can bring destruction to creatures.

*As saying above, the Dragoons just appear whe legends need them. So, the Dragoon Spirits take the role of choosing their owners when the time comes. After the Dragon Campaign, they scattered everywhere in the world. The Dragoon Spirits gleam at anyone whom they choose to be the owners.

After the war, within their victory, the Humans became the new ruler of the world. And the Winglies, can't stand the tarnishing of losing, disappear in the earth. As we know, they have lived in hidden shelters all over the world and no one has seen them since then.

--> 70 YEARS AGO

Haschel was born in Rouge.

--> ABOUT 37 YEARS AGO

Kongol was born in Home of Gigantos.

Some years later, within the rule of Human beings, the Gigantos were nearly killed, and Kongol became one of the Giganto child who survived. Along the ride, Emperor Doel found him lonely in the Gigantos Home. For some unknown reason, Doel has taken Kongol and trained him into one of his strongest and loyal servants.

Also around this time, Emperor Doel, as the rule of Sandora in the South Serdio, might be preparing for the battle against Basil and King Carlo to get his throne to rule Serdio.

--> ABOUT 34 YEARS AGO

Lavitz Slambert was born in Basil.

Also around this time, Emperor Doel became more firm at his leading position in Sandora.

--> ABOUT 26 YEARS AGO

Albert was born in Bales.

Mirranda was born in Mille Seseau.

Also around this time, there were wars between North Serdio (Basil) and South Serdio (Sandora). Emperor Doel gave up his soldiers to harm the civilians of Basil.

--> ABOUT 23 YEARS AGO

Dart was born in Neet, Mille Seseau.

Maybe around this time or later, King Carlo - the king of Basil - died. Emperor Doel had a lot of good conditions to defeat Basil. The son of Carlo, Albert, became King of Basil, continued his father's harmony.

--> 20 YEARS AGO

Princess Emille of Tiberoa was born.

--> 18 YEARS AGO

The princesses of Mille Seseau - Shana and Louvia were born.

--> 17 YEARS AGO

The tragedy happened. The Black Monster came to Neet in Mille Seseau, in order to kill the Moonchild who was Shana. It asked and killed the people who tried to hide the Moonchild. The Mille Seseau soldiers and the villagers in Neet were killed miserably by the Black Monster. The whole Neet was burnt in fire. There were very few people who survived. Some of them are Dart's family.

Dart's father, Zieg, decided to help the people. He ran and disappeared into the fire, and so did Dart's mother.

Still being a little child, Dart was all alone. Around him, Neet remained to be a ruin. Dart wandered solely, and he found something glowing in the ruin - a gem which was his father's memento. It was very the Red-eyed Dragoon Spirit. But at that time, it did not prove its true power yet. Dart kept it for his mine and managed all the way to live. He came to Seles village in Serdio.

At the mean time of this event, the Black Monster also attacked the Saint Louvia ship. Princess Louvia was taken in the ship, her sister was lost. Louvia got killed by the Black Monster when she had been still a baby. Maybe because the two princess are twin, the Black Monster got deception to kill Louvia, while the true Moonchild was Shana, not Louvia. Then the ship was mysteriously lost in the sea without anything remaining...

Louvia's twin sister who was Shana, by some way has been lost and people found her in Seles. She was grown there and was Dart's sweetheart.

--> 16 YEARS AGO

Meru was born in Wingly Forest.

--> 6 MONTHS AGO

There was a strange accident happening in Tiberoa. The royalists went to the forest to have a ride trip, including Princess Emille, Princess Lisa and the other members in the royal family. But then something happened which made Emille get confused with her riding. The horse crazily dashed through the wood and disappeared. Other people tried to chase after her. But when they caught up with her, they saw Emille lying on the ground. King Zior thought it was just an accident. He was happy because his daughter was safe. But since then, Princess Emille has become another person. She wasn't gentle and kind anyway. Vice-versa, she became a freaky and naughty lady.

--> PRESENT

This is the time where the game takes. I have written the long story of the game for this part. It's here:

Serdio is suddenly split into two countries: Sandora is ruled by Emperor Doel; Basil belongs to the young King Albert. King Carlo - the former king of entire Serdio - was killed by Doel. He was Albert's father. There were a lot of rumours that war would be happened between these two. Now Sandora becomes stronger under the control of Emperor Doel. He is trying to invade Basil to combine into the whole Serdio ruled by him.

At that time, Seles~a small village of Serdio is destroyed by Sandora soldiers under the control of Fruegel. But this guy also did following another mysterious guy in black hood. No one knows who this guy is. They destroy the village mainly catch a girl named Shana. She made some trouble before their eyes when Fruegel uses the Moon Gem on her. They brings away.

A villager named Dart who is hunting in the forest quickly comes to the village to know what is happening. But he is suddenly attacked by a giant dragon. It's lucky for him when a passing female warrior saves him from danger. He doesn't know that this warrior would be an important person with him later. She sees something strange in Dart...

When Dart has gone to Seles, everything is in ruin. The Mayor lets him know that Sandora has come here to destroy the village and brought Shana away. Dart is her childhood friend. He thinks that he must save her. Then he decides to get out of the village and head to Hellena Prison - where Shana is held.

Passing the forest, with some intelligence, Dart could enter the prison in safe. He knocks all the wardens on his way to look for Shana. In the cell area, he suddenly sees the wardens taking some Knights of Basil. One of the knight turns against the wardens and knock them out. He gets there to support the brave knight. After beating them up, the knight introduces himself as Lavitz - the head of the first Knighthood. He was suddenly caught here and trying to escape. He wants to join Dart to help him find the girl. Spending a lot of challenges, finally they could find Shana. She doesn't know why she is here. Now three of them must get out of here as soon as possible. Even the bad Fruegel can't stop them, the three people run on their way to the nearest prairie in Serdio. The Hellena wardens still try to chase after them til there. But with some intelligence and calmness, Dart and his companions get out of their sight easily. They rest in a shack and tell each other about their problems. Dart says he was a survivor from the tragedy in Neet. His parents were lost with the Black Monster. What he got from it was the memento of his father - a red shining stone. He doesn't know the meaning of the stone for his father, but he always brought it with him. About Lavitz, he says now he must get to Indel Capital in Bale to report everything to King Albert. Dart wants to go with Lavitz for his main purpose : find out about the Black Monster to get revenge for his parents. Shana wants to go with them just because she wants to help them. The three people continues on their way. They pass every challenges on the journey, from the prairie to Limestone Cave. In this cave, Shana doesn't know that she has just showed everybody see something strange on her. The incident is that the three people are attacked by a huge worm. When it intends to kill Shana, she suddenly casts a strange shining light that kill the worm at once. She doesn't know anything about this. Dart tries to calm her. Then they have come to their destination - Capital Bale.

Lavitz is welcomed very heartily by the people in Indel Castle, including King Albert. At that time, Dart and Shana know that King Albert is a very faithful friend of Lavitz in the court as in the ordinary life. Lavitz's father was the most loyal knight of Albert's father. Albert is a kind king who is admired by people in Serdio. He takes peace as the "standard" to rule his country. He is the opposite of violent Doel. Here Dart could find out more about the Black Monster which is told by Minister Noish~a regent whose brain is full of knowledge. Now Lavitz has a new mission to do - get to Town of Hoax to help the Eighth Knighthood defend from Sandora. Dart and Shana wants to join Lavitz. This is war, that means this affects everyone, not only the Knights of Basil. They want to contribute to this battle to wipe the war. Lavitz couldn't stop them. Then he lets them stay in his house to prepare for the next battle.

Next day they get to Hoax. Dart and Shana are surprised to feel that it's not like a town. It's a fortress. Can't imagine how strong the Sandora is. Shana would take part as a back supporter. Dart and Lavitz replace the positions of the soldiers in the night. Suddenly Dart hears the sound from owns. It's the signal for a battle to be going to happen. And then he is right to know that's the truth. Sandora soldiers run to the fortress in a very sudden that many knights of Basil are killed in the first time. Dart and Lavitz must fight the Sandora Elite when the others must solve the small soldiers. Even defeating the elite, they must fight another strange enemy from Doel either, Kongol~a Gigantos who survived from Human killers. Kongol causes a lot of troubles here. With the great strength and stamina, he easily knocks out Dart and is ready to kill him. But at that dangerous moment, a black winged creature flies to Kongol. With the sword on her hand, she quickly makes Kongol lose his huge axe. Then she draws her sword at Dart and claims: "Dragoon Spirit of Red Eyed Dragon, wake up !!!". What an incredible moment ! The stone of Dart's father shines on his chest and turns him into a strange knight in red armor with big wings. Dart collects the power of fire and shoots Kongol away. After that, the black woman lands on the ground and lets everyone see her. Dart regconizes she was the passing warrior who saved him from the dragon in Seles. Kongol runs way and promises to revenge. Everyone is surprised by Dart's power. But he is too tired...

He wakes up in the inn. The passing warrior introduces herself as Rose - a mysterious traveller. She tells Dart about his shining stone - The Dragoon Spirit of Red Eyed Dragon which accepts Dart as its owner. And Rose, she is the Dark Dragoon who was accepted by the Dragoon Spirit of Dark Dragon. She says she wants to join Dart's party to "change the atmosphere". Dart and his partners feel strange about this woman. But they also accept her, because she is one of the Dragoons who is chosen by fate. The same as Dart, she could solve this war by the power of Dragon Knights. At that time, Kaiser - the head of Eighth Knighthood in Hoax - returns with much injuries on his body. Our Dragoons accept to help them stop this war and they continue on their way.

Now they must go to Marshland, another place of Knights of Basil. This place is also being beaten by Sandora Soldiers. But when the party has come and finished up the Sandora, all the Knights of Basil were dead. Some of them were killed by special poison of a dragon. Rose guesses this must be the Green Tusked Dragon Feybrand which chased after Dart in Seles. After that, they decide to get out to find out the truth.

Passing the Volcano Villude, they have met a person named Dabas who is an owner of a big Antique Shop in Lohan. He introduces them to go there to see his shop. But Dart must go on his journey with his partners. There is another trouble with Shana. Here they are attacked by an ancient creature of Winglies - a Virage. Shana is called by this monster while everyone doesn't feel anything.

When getting to Nest of Dragon, Shana again has something strange in her body. But she still hides from others. All the party members are suddenly trapped in the nest. Here they find out about the dragon - Feybrand which poisoned the Knights of Basil. But it has a controller behind it - Greham. Lavitz regconizes him soon. He was his father's best friend with integrity and talent. Greham says that very he killed Lavitz's father to have the strongest power and the best integrity because he never passed over him. And now he has got that power~the Dragoon Spirit of Jade Dragon is shining in Greham's hand. Without saying a word, he attacks the party with his Green Tusked Dragon.

In the battle, Lavitz proves the strength of his father Servi, for Greham to see his mistake. With the spear on his hand and help from his party members, he defeats Greham and the Green Tusked Dragon Feybrand on his father's honour. "Power" is not everything for a person. A people who considers himself as the servant of power is just only a cowardice. Greham finally sees his mistake, even it's too late. And Lavitz derserves to be the new Jade Dragoon.

But at that time, Shana really feels unwell. She begins to faint. Dart tries to bring her to the nearest town: Lohan.

The doctor in Lohan says that she is affected by the poison of Dragon. Only the Dragoni Plant could cure her. But this herb is heard in legend, he doesn't know if it's true. But Dart still decides to find it for Shana. There's another path in the nest they didn't search because of a strange plant blocking there. With the help of Rose and Lavitz, Dart finds Dabas in his Antique Shop in Lohan. He lets Dart know about the Life Water that can kill that plant. It's the holy water in the nest. So they buy an empty bottle in Lohan and return there to collect the water. Then they could kill the strange plant to pass the new way.

The new path takes them to the Shrine of Shirley. Hear they face a strange bandit named Drake. This guy doesn't want to hear Dart explain his cause and attacks them. But then the soul of the shrine - Shirley appears to stop them. Rose might know about her. She doesn't have any Dragoni Plant. But there is another way to save Shana. She was the White Silver Dragoon in the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago and was dead. Now she could give this Dragoon Spirit to another owner. But Dart and his partners must overcome her challenge to deserve it. They must prove that they have the true love to people and they fight to protect people with real courage and passion. Dart would save Shana no matter what, but he would fight for the peace of people. Lavitz would save Shana even he has many thing else to do. Even he is a knight, the person he would always protect is his mother. Rose, she spends his lonely life for fate without thinking about herself. All of them have great courage that Shirley accepts to give them the Dragoon Spirit of White Silver Dragon.

And yes, the Dragoon Spirit heals Shana and accepts her as its next owner. Now the party want to take a sight~seeing about this commercal town Lohan. Dart takes part in a hero competition and he meets an old friend of his ~ Haschel, an old man who is full of martial art experience. He also takes part in this match. But his real purpose on the journey is to find the runaway daughter named Claire.

After the match, Dart is in the second place and Haschel is the third. Both of them was defeated by a platinum~hair guy named Lloyd. They don't mention much this guy. Then they take a play around the match before returning to Bale with Lavitz to report the incident about Feybrand. But when they intend to go, a Knight of Basil whose body is full of blood and wounds try to use his last strength to see Lavitz, telling him that King Albert was caught to Hellena Prison for the safety of people in Basil. Lavitz becomes insane and he wants to get to Hellena as soon as possible to save his King. Haschel tries to calm him down and decides to join him in this journey. All the party gets to Hellena Prison.

King Albert is being played with by the bad Fruegel. He accepts to die if Sandora doesn't touch his people. This bad Fruegel wants to hurt him as long as he likes. He would kill the King soon when the sun just rises. Lavitz and his party easily defeat the warden and pass the their plan to get to the place for punishment ~ where Albert is held. A battle happens here and of course , the dead must be Fruegel. But when everyone hasn't prompt to calm, a man in black hood appears and steals the Moon Gem from Albert's body. Lavitz is very angry about that action. He turns into Jade Dragoon and runs to punish the mysterious guy. But this guy extraordinarily thrusts a sword through Lavitz's heart. That weapon could get through the armor of Dragoons. It seems that Rose might know about it. But it's too late to save Lavitz's life. The guy is opened his face - Lloyd. He runs away before everyone's sight. Lavitz dies in honour, dies for the peace of Serdio. His Dragoon Spirit flies to Albert...

Albert is a good king. He is a faithful fellow of Lavitz. Lavitz died mainly because of him. So he decides to abandon the position of a king temporarily to join Dart's party. One reason is because of Serdian War, but the main reason is his fate chooses him as a Dragoon. Lloyd has been Albert's minister. There are a lot of mysteries about that man. The King thinks that Emperor Doel might know about him. About Rose, she realizes the weapon Lloyd used to kill Lavitz is the Dragon Buster which was made to kill Dragons only. Anyway, the next destination would be Kazas~Black Castle where Emperor Doel is.

Emperor Doel orders Fruegel to catch Shana as Lloyd's demand. But the reason is unknown. When the party gets to Kazas, they know that this place is preparing for the war by renting young mercenaries. Some of them are just very small children such as Popo~the boy who helps them to access the castle. Wandering in the castle, they have known that there are a lot of research about magic here. But their main purpose is asking Emperor Doel about Lloyd. Even they must overcome the annoying Gigantos Kongol, they still come to their end. Doel is waiting for them. This guy is the same as Greham. He killed King Carlo for his ultimate power and greatest talent. He gets the Dragoon Spirits from a guy who claimed to be Emperor Diaz. Rose is sure that Diaz was dead after the Dragon Campaign. But now they must talk to each other by weapons. Yes, Albert proves to Doel the strength and integrity of Carlo. He is strong as much as his father. He must be his pride, must teach Doel to know what the real "power" is. Power is nothing to rule people. People needs peace and love, not power. Of course, finally Doel also receives a worth death for himself because of his mistake. But before dying, he tells Dart that Lloyd has gone to Tiberoa, to get the next Divine Moon Object. Everyone, Dart, Shana, Albert and Rose all want to continue this journey to find the answers for all the mysteries. Haschel thinks that now he is not necessary in this journey anymore. But the Dragoon Spirit of Violet Dragon which has just been owned by Doel, suddenly flies to Haschel. Then he says : "I think I have had the answer...".

Dart and his partners have been in Fletz - the capital of Tiberoa with a great twin castle. They ask people here about Lloyd. But they almost don't know. Albert has heard about beautiful Princess Emille of Tiberoa - who is famous with his gentle attitude and kindness. And Princess Emille suddenly appears in front of the castle before his eyes: rude and naughty. That's all Albert has seen at her(+_+). But the party is also lucky to meet Mr.Fester - an astrology researcher in Fletz. This man tells them about the Moon That Never Sets which Lloyd told Doel about involved the reason why they caught Shana. The god who involves the moon is the Moonchild - who is born to give some blessing to the world. After that, this place doesn't give anything useful to them. They decide to head to another city.

On the way, they must pass the barrens to go to the flower city Donau. But a group of gangs block them whose leader is Mappy - an ugly guy with sharp claws on his hand. Although Dart's party could defeat them easily, Mappy is wise enough to steal Dart's Dragoon Spirit and disappears as a real thief. They can't do anything more except to continue to go.

Donau is a beautiful city with flowers everywhere. But it has been visited by the gangs recently. Before the party has come, Lloyd was here and he saved a special lady from the gangs. That would be the Third Sacred Sister of Mille Seseau named Wink.

When Dart comes, he meets a lady named Kate. Her fiance~Lynn has gone to meet the Gehrich gangs for the safety of the town. Now she needs the help of Dart and his companions. They pass the letter from Lynn to the Mayor of Donau - his father. But they also have to go to meet the gangs, too for the stolen Dragoon Spirit. Here they meet Meru - a pretty dancer of Donau. This young girl has just accepted to help Kate and she wants to join your party. Rose and Albert might not like her joking attitude, but they can't stop her eager joining. The only way to get to the gangs is passing the Valley of Corrupted Gravity. But they can't go without a pass of King Zior in Fletz. Meru says she could help the party in this area. So they decide to return to Fletz.

With the help of Mr.Fester, they could be given the pass and stay at the castle for night. They also have a chance to hear Princess Lisa - the younger sister of Princess Emille - tell them the truth about her sister. Yes, Emille has really been a kind princess who is loved by people in Fletz. But half year ago, that incident happened. When Lisa and Emille is riding the horse for a play in the forest, Emille's horse suddely became lose control and ran to the deep forest. Every soldiers and servants were ordered to find her. In the forest, they saw Emille fainting on the ground. She was still alive. But since then, she became another person :rude and caddish not like the one before. Lisa has learnt about astrology. His feeling lets her know that there is a relation between her sister and the gangs. The party promises Princess Lisa that they could help her find the answer when they meet Gehrich gang.

Next day, they get to the Valley of Corrupted Gravity. Here the history is repeated: another Virage wakes the fear of Shana. Her power again saves the party from the deadly hit of the ancient creature. "What on earth is it?" - she wonders.

Finally, they also have a chance to meet Gehrich. Haschel realizes the gang as his old people in Rouge school. He has learnt the martial art of Rouge and was got rid because of his bad behaviour. Now Haschel wants to teach how the Rouge martial art is. The battle is happened and ended by a powerful fist of Haschel to Gehrich. The punch is strong enough to make the stone pillar fall on them. It's too sudden that the whole people couldn't prompt to run. At that time, anothe guy appears, keeping the stone and throws it away. It's Kongol.

The Gigantos says that he needs a leader for the fight, the fight for the equal of all species. Doel has been his leader. And he thinks Dart is. Kongol wants to join Dart's party to help them in this fated battle. It's okay.

The party has found Dart's Dragoon Spirit and Lynn. About Gehrich, he couldn't live any longer. Before dying, he regrets his mistake and tells everyone that the Princess Emille is fake. The real one is hidden somewhere in the castle. After that, they return to Fletz to report to Princess Lisa.

This is the 20th birthday of Princess Emille. It means the Moon Dagger is given to her today. Every guards in the castle are arranged by the fake Princess Emille. They are all gangs. That means Dart and his companions must enter creepily. They try to find Princess Lisa and tells her everything. Then they continue to find Princess Emille in the other chamber. The princess was hidden by some strange magic. That means the fake one is not an ordinary person. No one could understand why only Albert's voice could wake her up. But the certain thing is that he has some feeling with the Princess (^ ^).

Finally, Princess Emille and the party prompt to stop the birthday ceremony. But the fake Emille is fast enough to steal the Moon Dagger from King Zior. She turns into her true self as a platimun~hair woman named Lenus. This woman attacks strangely with special spells that nearly confuses the party. But anyway, she is cornered with no way to escape. But she is not Human. That means she still escapes with the wings on her back. Yes, she is a Wingly - the species which was known to disppear in this earth.

Now King Zior really needs the help of King Albert's party. The Moon Dagger is a precious object for the liberation of Humans. Only Dragon Knights are the best people to take it back. The party is accepted to use the great ship Queen Fury of Commodore Puler to pursue Lenus.

On the way to find the female gang, the Queen Fury is stopped by another mysterious ship. It seems a royal ship from Mille Seseau. About Rose, she seems to know very much about it. But she doesn't tell anyone. While the Queen Fury is being fixed, the party decides to wander the strange ship for a while. Dart realizes Shana is lost. But then they find her in the strange ship with some mysterious soul. It might be a phantom ship. On wandering the party finds out a lot about the Black Monster - who killed Princess Louvia on this ship. All of the ghosts here are forward Rose strangely. About Dart, he feels angry about this cruel monster. At the end, they reach a room with the Ghost Knights and Ghost Nanny, they see Shana and think that she is the princess. And then they disappear. Shana is very hopeless and she wonders what the relation ship between her and this princess. But at that time, the spoiled ship begins to sinking. Everyone tries to get on the Queen Fury as soon as possible. Rose and Dart are the last. Rose could reach the ship but Dart doesn't. She's still on the bar outside and to hold Dart's hand. But then the heavy vibration of the ship makes both of them drop into the sea. Shana cries the captain to stop the ship but it's too late...

Rose and Dart are still safe. Now they are in an unknown cave at the seashore. Rose feels something familiar at Dart. He seems like Zieg~his father. Rose tried to hold his hand to keep him. It made her remember a memory in the past. Yes, it was the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago. Rose was the Dark Dragoon in that fight. And Zieg was the Red Eyed Dragoon who bravely killed Melbu Frahma - the leader of Winglies. The other Dragoons fought the Virages and they didn't return. Rose was the only survivor. Zieg, he was spelled by Melbu Frahma to turn into stone for thousand of years. Rose thinks that if she could promptly to pull Zieg's hand, maybe he couldn't suffer such a fate. Then she sleeps with Dart in the cold cave...

Next morning, there is a little child who finds Dart and Rose in the cave. The boy takes them to his house at the nearest village ~ Lidiera.

Dart thanks the child and his mother about saving them. Pete~the name of the boy - says that they fell in love together in the cave. But Dart tries to explain that he and Rose are looking for their friends. There are seven of them. Pete's mother is sick. The boy wants to take her to the neighbor town Fueno but he's afraid of the monsters in the Undersea Cavern. About Dart and Rose, they must go there anyway because the other party members might be there either.

When Dart and Rose are going out of town, Pete changes his mind that he would take his mother to go with them to Fueno. All of them set out.

They have come to Fueno. Pete's family thanks them for having accompanied and Pete again jokes that Rose would be in love with Dart. Then the two travellers get to the port of Fueno where the Queen Fury has stopped. After some moments, Dart and Rose could find their friends in the city. They were very surprised and happy, especially Dart and Shana. At the mean time, the party collects more information about Lenus~who has gone to Prison Island where the legendary Sea Dragon lives. There's an only way to get there : north path of Undersea Cavern. Dart decides to return to Lidiera, asking the Mayor to open the way. Then they get there as their purpose. Finally they also see Lenus giving the Moon Dagger to Lloyd. So he is here, too. But now he doesn't fight you. The coward gets away through the Illisa Bay : "Now I head to Mille Seseau. Pursue me if you can survive !". Lenus loves Lloyd in a crazy love. She stops your way, turning into a new Dragoon~the Blue Sea Dragoon with Water element. She doesn't fight alone. Her supporter is the legendadry Sea Dragon Regole. But even how strong the enemies are, Dart's party could handle everything and get the victory. Now Lenus has no way to go. She couldn't live longer. At the end, she tries to throw the pair of boomerangs as her last strength to kill Dart. But Shana runs to him and protects him to avoid one of them. But the other is going straight to her. Dart uses his sword to stop it. And Lenus, she dies for the worst coward. Meru feels sorry for her~the Wingly who is the same species as her. Meru is also a Wingly, but she doesn't let everyone know. Can't believe that the Dragoon Spirit of Blue Sea Dragon flies to Meru and accepts as its owner ~ a coincidence of fate. Now the party must return to Fletz to tell King Zior that they couldn't bring back the Moon Dagger.

When they have just got in the Twin Castle, they are welcomed by the guards, then King Zior and the two princesses. They have defeated the Sea Dragon that dispels people's fear about it. Even the Moon Dagger wasn't brought back, King Zior has nothing to be sad because that thing just represents the secret that couldn't bring happiness or peace to people. After that, he decides to hold a big banquet to welcome the seven heroes from the east for defeating the Sea Dragon, bringing happiness to Tiberoans. Before the party, each character has their own feeling about fate and life. But anyway, the party is still held and everyone all has fun, okay? And do you know, Albert promises to marry Princess Emille after the journey. (This is a good sequel for him...)

As the last sentence of Lloyd, Dart and his friends on the Queen Fury head to Mille Seseau. They get off at Furni the water city. This is the port and also the only gate to enter Mille Seseau. The city is fully covered by water. Currently here there is a big prize for anyone who kills a wolf monster called Kamuy and bring back Teo~the child who is following the monster. Teo is the son of a family in Furni. Dart seems not to mention this. He gets a boat to go around the city and is asked to meet the Mayor. The reason is the Mayor's daughter involves the monster Kamuy. As he says, Kamuy was a lovely wolf whom Fa~his daughter and Teo played with as a close friend. But one day Fa is attacked by some monster, Kamuy protects her and becomes a mad monster either because of the other effect. The wolf loses control and runs around threatening the people. And Teo still tries to follow him to protect him and calms him down but it has no effect. Dart and his party decides to stay at the Mayor's house for a night. Also in that night, Shana has trouble when seeing the Moon That Never Sets. She faints...

Next morning, she wakes up ordinarily, saying everyone that she is okay. Then they get out of Furni.

To get to Deningrad - the capital of Mille Seseau, the party must pass the Evergreen Forest. Here they suddenly meet the wof monster Kamuy and Teo. A lot of competitors of the prize tries to kill the monster and catch Teo, including Dart's party. But most of them are thrown away by Kamuy, the party still survives there and fights the monster. Kamuy is wounded heavily by them. But then Shana uses the healing power from the Dragoon Spirit of White Silver Dragon to save the wolf. It not only is revived but also returns to itself, a lovely wolf. Then Teo and Fa could play with it again. They thank Shana very much...

When getting to Deningrad, Rose says she has some errand to do and wants to leave the party for while. Then so does Meru. The other members straight to Deningrad~the famous capital with the great Crystal Palace.

Here Dart's party finds out a lot about the mysterious legend of Divine Tree~the plant which gave birth to all the species in the world in creator Soa's plan. The Bishop says it's just an imagination. No one sees the real tree. Then the party has a chance to visit the National Library which contains a great deal of world knowledge. And Dart has a chance to hear the Library Ute tell about the Black Monster and the Moonchild. The Moonchild is the God who would give some blessing to the world. The Black Monster wants to kill the Moonchild. Then he tells Dart that The Second Sacred Sister of Deningrad was a survivor from the tragedy of Neet. But Dart still doesn't understand why the Black Monster ruined Neet...

Meanwhile, Rose is going to Neet. Can't know why she goes here. But here she meets Luanna - the Second Sacred Sister of Deningrad who has a special sensation to feel people's thought. Then Rose knows that Luanna was also a survivor from Neet. She was blinded after the tragedy. But since then she began to have the special ability: read other's thought. Luanna says she could help people to forget their sadness and fear in her effort. Then Rose wants to return to Deningrad with her.

About Meru, she uses her own magic to get to an unknown place called Wingly Forest~her hometown. But here she received a terrible welcome from every Wingly, even her parents and Ancestor Blano. But anyway, this returning of her is not in vain. Guaraha - a Wingly who is her childhood friend - tells her that the Divine Dragon - The King of Dragon which was tied in the Mountain of Mortal Dragon by Winglies now wakes up and flies away. Then Meru decides to find her friends to inform them as soon as possible.

Dart and his friends have finished work in the library. When they intend to go out, Rose and the Second Sacred Sister Luanna have come either. Then Dart has a talk with the Luanna who had the same situation 17 years ago. Luanna feels somet strange power in Dart. Then Dart feels somewthing strange in his body. It's not a coincidence...

Yes, the seven eyed Dragon King~Divine Dragon wakes up. He is flying around the Crystal Palace of Deningrad. He destroys a very small part of the palace and flies away.

This incident is really a sudden. Then Dart introduces his party as the legendary seven Dragon Knights who have special power. Luanna thinks that now Deningrad might need their help. Then she lets them enter the Crystal Palace to meet Queen Theresa - the queen of Deningrad.

When the party has got into the Queen's chamber, The First Sacred Sister Mirranda is blaming a knight who couldn't do anything to stop the destruction of Divine Dragon. Mirranda is a very loyal servant of Queen Theresa. Dart talks to Queen Theresa about the Divine Dragon and how to defeat him. And the sharp Rose says that one of the party members is a Wingly who knows that and shows Meru. Everybody is surprised about this. Meru is a Wingly, but she has hidden it for a long time from everyone. No way to explain, Meru can only confirm that's the truth. The Winglies have two special weapons : The Dragon Buster and the Dragon Block Staff which were made to beat Dragons only. But the Dragon Buster was stolen by Lloyd. Then the Dragon Block Staff would be the only way. It is hidden in a secret place that Wingly Ancestor Blano would know. That means Meru must take the party to Wingly Forest to ask for the Ancestor's help. Of course, she is reluctant to do that. Then Mirranda wants to join them, too. One reason is because of Queen Theresa. In addition to this, she doesn't really believe in the party's power and wants to see how they are. Mirranda is an arrow shooter just like Shana.

When Dart and his friend are going out, they realize that Shana is missing. Where is she and what is she doing?

Shana has found a secret room in the Queen's chamber. The party finds her there. Then she feels something troubled when seeing the light sphere in the air. Mirranda says it's called Signet Sphere which has been used to seal some power for 10000 years. She says she doesn't know much about it. After that, the Dragoon Spirit of White Silver Dragon suddely gets out of Shana and flies to Mirranda...

Shana wakes up in the palace. Now she couldn't go with Dart without the Dragoon's power anymore. She feels that she becomes useless. But she couldn't anything except trusting Mirranda to stay in her position in the party.

Now their destination is Wingly Forest, and the target is the Dragon Block Staff. Meru takes her friends to a hidden place in Evergreen Forest. Then she makes some magic that a magical path appears in the air. Then the whole party goes to it together, reaching Wingly Forest. Of course, they also receive a similar awful welcome of Winglies. But Meru tries to explain to them about getting the Dragon Block Staff to kill Divine Dragon. After that, they receive a message from a Wingly that Ancestor Blano wants to talk to them. So the party could get into the house. On the way, Meru also has chance to meet her friend Guaraha and explains the situation to her parents. Winglies or Humans were all born from Creator Soa. Both lived in the same world and the same ear. There's no reason to turn against each other. She sees the Humans are not barbaric and terrible as the Winglies think. Finally, her parents must accept her daughter to have her own "world". Reality, they both are proud of her.

Dart's party can't avoid meeting the Bardel brothers who want to get revenge Humans of their dead baby sister. Younger Bardel seems to have some plan... Dart anyway also meets Ancestor Blano. Now the Wingly Ancestor also understands the current situation and the waking of Divine Dragon. He accepts to let them go to the place where the Dragon Block Staff is put~Capital Kadessa. Now this place is called Forbidden Land because it has become a ruin for years after the Dragon Campaign. In the ancient era this place is the strongest city of Winglies when they ruled this world. After telling the party about Kadessa, the Ancestor uses the special teleporting magic of Magic to take them to that ruin of Kadessa.

Now it's really deserted and wild. The whole city uses teleporting device to move. There Dart's party has found a lot about Winglies. This city is controlled by magic only, including doors and teleporting device. Here they also found a "guest" ~ a spoiled super Virage which slept for years. They don't know that they have just woken it up. And what happens then is so clearly...

Of course that creature is not strong enough to defeat our party. And it's not the target to see. Finally, Dart finds the Dragon Block Staff either. The special weapon is hung strangely on the ceiling. Meru tries all the way to take it out but no effect. But then the ceiling is suddenly shaking, revealing a Grand Jewel which kept the Dragon Block Staff. The party must destroy that thing to get the weapon. This is annoying for them. The jewel uses the power of the Dragon Block Staff to block the power of Dragoons that our allies can't fight it in Dragoon form. This battle must be done by their strength and intelligence only. But even how dangerous it is, our allies still pass and they could get the Dragon Block Staff as their victory.

When the party is coming out, in a sudden they see Divine Dragon passing. Oh no, he is heading to Deningrad again. Mirranda and the party hurrily returns to the teleporting pillar where Ancestor Blano is waiting. The old man also knows the situation and tries to pull out all his power to make a quick teleport taking them to Deningrad as soon as possible. But he is too weak to do. At that time, the other Winglies, including Meru's parents, try to help him. It seems that they realize the important thing between the species. The combination of many powers finally succeeds to help Dart's party return.

Divine Dragon again destroyes the Crystal Palace in bigger damage which affects the surrounded houses of population. But he would fly away after satisfying his insanity. Queen Theresa and the other Sacred Sisters are all right. Thanks to Shana. No one knows why the mysterious power in her body protected Queen Theresa from the destruction. But then she fainted again. About Mirranda, she blames the knights very much and cries a lot when seeing everything is okay (because she was so worried. She considers Queen Theresa as her mother).

Now it's time for the party to kill the Divine Dragon with the special weapon Dragon Block Staff. Mirranda must choose between staying to guard the queen or joining the party. But Queen Theresa allows her to go, because it's her fate as a Dragoon. She promises that she would return, anyway. Then the party heads to Mountain of Mortal Dragon over the Evergreen Forest.

In the first sight they saw some terrible corpses of animals. Rose says they were killed by the Dragon Buster. That means Lloyd is here, too. They get into the mountain by the climbing paths and caverns. Until they are going over the range of mountains, they sees some power cast by the Dragon. Next, they hear some clashes of weapons. When they come to the end, it's Lloyd. The Divine Dragon is fighting Lloyd. Why is he here and what does he want? Now it's not time to find the answer. The party must kill the Dragon as soon as possible. First, Dart throws the Dragon Block Staff and it reduces the power of both Dragons and Dragoons. Then it is broken because getting out of limit. That means the allies can't turn into Dragoons either. They must fight by their own strength. This is the only time Dart and Lloyd fight at the same side.

Although the Divine Dragon is very strong, its power can't defeat the party and they could be the winner in that desperate battle.

And now you know why Lloyd kills Divine Dragon. Before your eyes, he jumps to the Dragon's corpse, using the Dragon Buster to cut his main eye. A gem drops from they eye. It's the Dragoon Spirit of Divine Dragon-the King of Dragons. This might be for the strongest Dragoon. But now it is in Lloyd's hand. Yes, the Dragoon Spirit doesn't accept Lloyd. But he still gets it and run away to continue searching the Three Divine Moon Objects. But Dart and his friends don't know anything about this third object, except Mirranda as she is the First Sacred Sister of Deningrad. They try to chase after him. But they fail. Lloyd prompts to use magic to push Dart and Rose drop into the lava lake. But it's lucky when they land on a rising ground...

Rose is unconscious. And Dart, he begins wondering. What happened to him when the Divine Dragon first appeared? What about the Three Divine Moon Objects? He feels that Rose might know a lot about these mysteries, even the tragedy from Neet 17 years ago. Dart always wants Rose to tell him. He wonders why she hides him...

Finally, Meru finds them. With her wings, she tries to bring them to the ground. Then Dart requests Mirranda to tell them about the third Divine Moon Object. Finding that this can't be hidden, Mirranda says that is the Moon Mirror which was held in the Flanvel Tower in Kashua Glacier. Only Queen Theresa knows about it. At that time, she realizes the most important thing: Queen Theresa is in danger. Then the party runs to Deningrad in a hurry...

They were right. But Lloyd was before them...

While The Third Sacred Sister Wink and some knights are going to find out about Mirranda and the party, they were faced by Younger Bardel. This guy wanted to get revenge Humans of having killed his baby sister. All the knights were defeated. Wink was so afraid, waiting for the next hit. But Lloyd was there. He protected Wink from Bardel's hits and killed him at once. Lloyd has even saved Wink once in Donau. So she was willing to bring him to Crystal Palace for some treatment...

When Dart's party comes to the Crystal Palace, it was late. Queen Theresa wasn't there anymore. The Third Sacred Sister Wink is crying for her action...

Lloyd was treated in Crystal Palace. He thanked the queen for her kindness, then tells her that Mirranda and other Dragoons defeated the Divine Dragon and they are coming here. At that time, The Second Sacred Sister Luanna came. With her special ability, she easily knew that Lloyd was not good person. She asked him what he wants to do. Then Lloyd quickly caught Queen Theresa and disppears immediately...

Okay, their next destination is Kashua Glacier. They must get back the Moon Mirror and Queen Theresa before Lloyd can do anything. It's not far away from the west of Deningrad. What an icy place !!!

When the party gets in the underground area of the Glacier, they must pass a lot of annoying monsters on the way. But anyway, they must reach the Flavel Tower in time.

Here Lloyd could force the Dragoon Spirit to fit in him, then force Queen Theresa to show him the Moon Mirror. She couldn't do anything out of obeying him. But at that time, Dart's party has come. It's the same time that Lloyd holds the Moon Mirror in his hand. However, the party must fight him to bring back the three Divine Moon Objects and to get revenge for Lavitz and a lot of lives killed by him.

Now Lloyd becomes a great swordman. He has his own powerful strength, the magical power of Winglies and the strong power of Divine Dragon. It's hard to beat him up. Even though Lloyd has more advantages, he misses an important thing: unity and honest. Even though how strong he is, he could defeat Dart with the unity of his friends. Yes, Lloyd is defeated. Now there are only him and Dart in the top of tower. And it's time for Dart to finish him here.

Without saying a word, Dart coldly runs to Lloyd to play the finishing touch to Lloyd. But..."Aahhhhhhh!" ...That's not Lloyd's cry...It is Wink's. Why is she here ? "Because the truth is that he saved me twice !"

Dart's slash has hurt Wink. Wink is a sensitive lady. Just because she still remembers that Lloyd has saved her. She says even if he is killed, we couldn't bring back the poor lives killed by him. Nothing could be brought back. Nothing...

The other party members are waiting for Dart in the bottom. They trust that he would know the best solution for Lloyd. And yes, Dart has come. He didn't kill Lloyd, because nothing could be brought back even if we killed him. This is a correct choice. At that time, he receives a message from Queen Theresa that Shana was caught by a guy named Emperor Diaz and sent to Capital Vellweb. So this is the guy Lloyd got the three Divine Moon Objects for. Then anyway, Lloyd would join your party for a while to get to Vellweb.

On going there, they must pass a Snowfield - the place covered by snow and blizzard. There is a tremendous blizzard today, Lloyd suggests the party to rest in a cave and hear him tell about what he has been doing.

Yes, he doesn't try to escape. He tells everyone honestly. Everyone knows that Creator Soa was the creator of this world and all the species. Currently there are 107 species living in this world as 107 fruits dropped from the Divine Tree. But there is still an incomplete fruit-the 108th fruit. Lloyd hopes that this species would be a special one that could change the future of the world. He and Emperor Diaz decided to do this when having seen the ruin of Capital Kadessa. They think that this world would be degenerated again. So it needs a new species to make a balance on this world. Lloyd himself can't answer all the questions of the party about the three Divine Moon Objects. He says they would know everything when seeing Emperor Diaz.

Next morning, the party leaves the place and heads to Capital Vellweb. Now this place is a ruin just like Kadessa. It was the first place where Humans got their liberation to rule this world. There are still remains here show that historical victory. There are seven towers of the former Dragoons who had died after the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago, except Rose. But the target is Emperor Diaz.

Finally the party also meets the guy who claims to be the Holy Imperial Gloriano. Shana is here either. Dart accepts to give him the three Divine Moon Objects to take Shana back. Yes, he tells him that he wants to create the 108th species as Creator Soa's plan when giving birth to this world. The evidence is the Moon That Never Sets. Then he reveals his hidden face for you to see...

At that sudden moment, Dart can't believe in his eyes. Rose is surprised for the person she loves who was lost for thousand of years: Zieg - Rose's fiance and also Dart's father. Then Dart knows that Rose and Zieg were the only survival Dragoons in the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago. So maybe you are also surprised why Rose could live so long. You would know soon. Zieg would tell the party what he really wants to do.

First, he begins at the point where the world was nothing... until this current world full of various species. In the Dragon Campaign, Humans had destroyed the Crystal Sphere along with the royal capital of Winglies, Kadessa. This causes the Virage Embryo's soul to be released with a human body, heading to the Moon That Never Sets. It was the Moonchild who would give some "holy blessing" to this world. And when the Moon grew red, it would happen, "a destruction for the world". Yes, the Moonchild would destroy this world by giving the birth to the 108th species- The God of Destruction. There was a Dragoon who knew about this. She tried to kill the Moonchild to prevent from that terrible future. The Black Monster, it was her-Rose. Everybody is surprised about this, especially Dart. So the guy who he wants to revenge has been with him for a long time. Rose admits that's right. She confirms she had killed everyone in Neet or they would be the servants for the Moonchild-Princess Louvia. But Zieg says she killed the wrong target. Louvia has a twin sister-Shana. Yes, Shana is very the real Moonchild who is still alive in front of everyone. Then Zieg takes Shana to him again. Rose can't do anything on him or kill Shana...

The party wanders day to day, night to night. They don't where to go next. They have been in a large desert of the Death Frontier-a hidden country which is far away from Mille Seseau and Gloriano. It was too far that they have no way to return. Just continue. On the way to get out of desert, the party members discuss a lot about such the sudden incident that has just happened. About Rose, she's still there. Nothing was happened to her. Didn't Dart want to get revenge with her? Now it's not time to worry about that. They must get out of this place and find the nearest destination. Rose says it's Ulara-another city of Winglies. It's not so hard for the party to pass. Because they have passed so much places like this.

Then they also reach another deserted place. Rose would tell you why she could have lived so long like this. That's the spell from her choker she is wearing. The sight before everyone is another desert. But when Rose uses her choker, the place turns into a green town which is full of colourful flowers. They reach there by a teleportting device. Rose wants to meet a Wingly friend of her - Charle Frahma. She asks Caron where she is being.

The party talks to some Winglies. Here they know some more clues about the Dragon Campaign. At that time, the younger brother of Charle - Melbu Frahma looked down on every species and ruled the world due to Wingly's power. Accumulated anger led to the Dragon Campaign we have known. Dart also hears about Faust who was the right hand of Melbu in that historical battle. Being a powerful magician, Faust makes an apparition and only a Vanishing Stone can make it disappear.

Rose and the party also meet Charle Frahma any way. She seems to know much about the relation between Rose and Zieg. Charle is also the person who created the Signet Spheres to prevent the power of the Divine Moon Objects to give birth to the Moonchild. Actually, there are five Signet Spheres. The main one - Crystal Sphere at Kadessa was destroyed in the Dragon Campaign. The second one at the Birth City was lost after the destruction of Divine Dragon. About Zieg, Rose is the person who understands him much. Zieg is not this kind of people who just follows such a fate. There is something wrong with him.

Charle tells you that The Moon That Never Sets is almost the 108th species that Soa planned - the 108th fruit that Divine Tree dropped. The Sphere which contained the soul of the God of Destruction in Kadessa was destroyed. But the Human body it brought was still alive-Shana. And it would reborn the God of Destruction giving the end to this world.

Dart wants to know about Rose and his father. Charle accidentally tells him that Rose was his fiance. But at then Rose says she would give a punch to Charle if she continues.

Melbu Frahma wanted to rule this world with the magical power. Charle created the Signet Spheres in order to seal the power of the Crystal Sphere in the Kadessa to prevent Melbu getting out of his limit. So he made the three Divine Moon Objects to destroy the spheres, but now The Signet Spheres could be destroyed without three Divine Moon Objects. That means Zieg could still destroy the Signet Spheres by his own power in order to help bearing the God of Destruction just because now he has the Moonchild - Shana in his hand.

Then Charle tells you the location of the three remaining Signet Spheres. One is at the Magical City Aglis - the place for Winglies studying and researching about magic. The second is at the Law City Zenebatos - the place where Winglies could establish their law. And the last is at Death City Mayfil - the place all the death souls must get to. Then she lets you know that Rouge is the key to get there. It's Haschel's hometown...

That night, everybody split into many groups to visit the town of spring. Dart, he is sitting on the flower platform, thinking about something. "Do you really forgive...?" - asked Rose. Then they remember night when they practised swords together. Even Rose has spent many experience in her long life, she couldn't defeat Dart who has become stronger. Then she asked him to kill her as his wish. Dart, he drew his sword at Rose...then...he put in in his basket. "The Black Monster was dead" - he said.

Rose and Dart both are sitting. They remember the time when they first meet. The Black Monster was dead. And here is Rose. They are friends. Nothing could change it. That's all...

After that moment, Rose and Dart join together to gather other party members. They must prepare very carefully for the next journey. They will begin next morning to find the way to Magical City Aglis - where the first Signet Sphere is held.

Just next morning, all the Winglies of Spring Breath Town Ulara gather at the exit teleporting device to good bye the seven heroes who would save the world from destruction. Charle sent a message to King Zior to allow the party to use the Queen Fury again and he accepted.

The party is taken to the way to return to Tiberoa by Charle's power. Passing Home of Gigantos, Valley of Corrupted Gravity and Barrens, they have been in Fletz. When entering the twin castle, they are welcomed by everybody in the castle, including King Zior, Princess Emille and Princess Lisa. The King allows the party to use it freely. It is being put in the way to Rouge. Before getting on board, Kayla tells them to do her a favour. "Please save Miss Shana!". Of course, that's what they must do. Poor the lovely child!

Okay, the party has reached Rouge easily by crossing Endiness sea. This is Haschel's hometown where his daughter Claire ran away and lost forever. Haschel tells the Mator about their purpose to be here and asks him if there is something strange in this area which Humans couldn't do or anything. The Mayor reminds about something like a stick among the sea which can be seen from the top yard. After that, the party climbs the yard to see what it is. Oh no, it's not only a simple stick as the Mayor said. It has become something big and impressive. Or this is the sequel of the party's coming ? Rose says that the only Wingliy city in this area is can only be Aglis the Magical City. Then she explains to the party more about the five ancient cities of Winglies:

---Capital Kadessa---

The royal capital of Winglies which was dominated by Melbu Frahma. It was the center of politics and military. But it was destroyed during the Dragon Campaign became a ruin which is called "Forbidden Land".

---Birth City Crystal Palace---

This city now is the Crystal Palace of Deningrad. Long long ago it was the Birth City of Winglies where the babies were chosen to be born. The Winglies has special magical power. Only the babies who had the strong power enough could be allowed to be born. If not, just abandon.

---Magical City Aglis---

A mysterious city of Winglies where magic is researched and studied.

---Law City Zenebatos---

It was the city where Wingly laws were made. The laws were claimed for justice but actually they were used to judge other species. It is the place where executions and trials were carried out.

---Death City Mayfil---

It is the place where all the souls of the dead must go.

After that, the party gets down. Then Rose says that she feels someone watching after the party. Just then an earthquake happens. Everybody runs to the top yard to see what happens. Oh! The strange thing becomes bigger which seems like a real city. The sea is split reveal a path to reach there. Without hearing the Mayor's recommend, they just go there with the small boat. This is their only chance. They have nothing else to do except continuing.

The party has been in the undersea city. Just like the usual cities of Winglies, it uses teleporting system to move and transport. Here they meet a lot of strange lovely creatures which were made by magic. One of them named Ruff notices them to go deeper. Then the party meets a lot of other creatures doing some research related to something called Psyche Bomb and Moot. After passing a lot of areas, the party meets an ancient Wingly - Savan - who claims to be waiting for Rose for thousand of years until the day she comes here to save the world...

Savan has known the current situation of this world. Zieg wants to destroy this world that he thinks to be Creator Soa's plan. But all of them think that fate doesn't belong to the creator. It is all in their hands. They could change their fate, not the creator. This work needs courage of all people. These "courage" combination would become a power to face against the bad thing. It's the Psyche Bomb. Savan and his creatures have searched about this multi-hit bomb. It is only made by the courage of the party. That means the party must pass a challenge to prove their courage. Each character must pass one:

KONGOL

He has known the right thing and hasn't followed the bad thing. He tries all his effort to make an equal between species. He doesn't let himself lose self-control at any outside bad control. We have seen the courage of a Giganto.

MIRRANDA

She fights for this world, for everyone she loves. She doesn't accept to die when she hasn't done anything for this world. She knows when she could die satisfactorily. This is also a kind of courage.

ALBERT

Even he knows his country Bale is being in danger, he couldn't return anyway when the world is threatening by the biggest destruction. We have just seen the courage of the King - who knew what is more important to do.

MERU

She has played with Humans as a Wingly. The Bardel brother hates Humans for having killed their sister, so they hate Meru as the same as those. They want to kill her as killing a Human. But she refused to die because she cannot die in this serious situation. That is also the courage of a person who knows when is needed to die.

HASCHEL

His daughter Claire has gone away for 20 years because he couldn't keep his anger. He admits that even if the past returned, he couldn't save her. That's the courage of a real father who accepts his mistake in the past.

ROSE

Now the world is going to the end. Everyone is afraid and does nothing else except requesting for blessing. "No"- Rose confirms: We cannot just stand to see the end of the world. We have our strength, our fate. We must change it anyway. She proves the courage of a person who doesn't let her life decided by others.

DART

He loves Shana as himself - an eternal love. Even if Shana is a Moonchild who would give birth to the God of Destruction, even if he must take sword against her, Dart would save her no matter what, even losing his life for her. Their great love could change such a fate.

All the party members pass their challenge easily because they prepare for them a real courage in this journey. All of those are collected by Savan to create a extremely strong power : The Psyche Bomb X. This would be one of the weapons to fight Zieg. Now the next thing is Moot. This thing can be used to seal the Signet Sphere which Zieg wants to destroy. It is being protected by the sea creature Last Kraken. But when the party has entered the place where the Signet Sphere is, Last Kraken becomes lose control and insane. Oh no, they are slower than Zieg just one step. This creature is being controlled by Zieg and begins to destroy the Signet Sphere as fast as possible. Dart and his friends try to stop the violent creature. But it's too late. Last Kraken has destroyed the Signet Sphere as Zieg does. Even though they kill it, Zieg still succeeds in this part. The explosion of the Signet Sphere takes the explosion of the whole room. Savan tries to use all his last power to teleport all the party members out of the room and dies inside. You also have courage, Savan !!! "I would give the you the wings to everywhere" - what does he mean before dying ?

It's not time to feeling sorry. Now the party must head to the Law City Zenebatos to destroy the next Signet Sphere as soon as possible. When seeking the way to go out, they have met the lovely magical creatures who are preparing to die. Buckle, it has just threatened Mirranda to die with it. Mirranda asks if it jokes her again. No, this is thr truth: "Buckle die, uck!". Lulu, Spino, Phewy and Decal all dies before the party comes. And Ruff, it uses all his last power to open the way to the party. Poor thing! "We won't let your death in vain". As the new way, the party finds a teleporting device taking them to The Law City Zenebatos.

In this city, Dart and his friends must face a great deal of confusing laws which even a Wingly like Meru can't understand. At that time, a flying creature called Coolon comes to them. It says it would take Dart and his party to anywhere they want. So this is the Wings Savan reminds them before dying. Thanks to him about this!

However, the party also finds out how to use the law. And they also reach the Signet Sphere by it. But Zieg is before them again. Nomos - the guard who protects the Signet Sphere here was controlled by him. It attacks you by casting the three dark monsters Selebus, Kubila and Vector. Even the party could overcome them, Zieg has much time to destroy this second Signet Sphere easily. "The sky is my road" - said Zieg. No one believes that he could fly in ordinary state, even Rose. No, he is not Zieg. Zieg is not that type of people. Something wrong happens in him. Now the party just has a last chance: The Signet Sphere in Death City Mayfil. They must use the law to connect the teleporting device between Zenebatos and Mayfil. Then they come there.

Zieg has got here before them. He might be very satisfied of his plan and now it's going be successful.

Everyone is surprised by this place. It's dark and fear. This place is gathered by the dead souls from the earth. When wandering in the dark city, the party faces a lot of familiar guests: the three spirits of the three Dragons killed by them: Feybrand, Regole and Divine Dragon. They had received an incomplete death because they were killed by the species which is considered to be weaker than them very much. Although Dart and his friends have their target Zieg, they still try to kill the Dragon Spirits again to help them get the pride of species. Yes, but an unexpecting incident happens. They see Lavitz - the faithful fellow of Dart and Albert - the friend who died in honour. Lavitz is glad to see his friends again, too. Although they are very happy, Lavitz reminds something like Devildom in his life at this city. But then, he suddenly changes into a monster who tries to get rid of Dart and Albert. No, he doesn't let them touch him. It seems Lavitz is being controlled by someone else. Then he disappears through the teleporting device. The party chases after him. He holds his spear turning against everyone. Dart tries to call him, call his name. Then Lavitz feels a headache...Hey, there's something strange on his back - Rose feels wrong. But then he becomes more insane and attacks the party.

Dart doesn't attack him. He tries to call Lavitz, call the real sefl of him, their faithful fellow in battle. Lavitz feels trouble again. He turns his back to the party. And now it's time get rid of the strange thing which is controlling Lavitz.

After some moments, it also turns its true self as a Devildom - Zackwell - the guy who likes to joke on other spirits in this city. He plays on Lavitz's spirit and jokes on his worrying about his friends. That is unforgivable. As soon as the party must get rid of this devil creature to rescue for the spirits who were its victim. But then, Lavitz wakes up again. He is still controlled and intends to kill a party member. "Lavitz!" - Dart's call. It seems to persuade the real Lavitz in the flesh of Devildom. Lavitz holds up his spear and...thrust it through very his body and finishes the life of the sticking Devildom on his back.

"We are friends!". Dart, Lavitz, Albert. They are friends and nothing could change it. Lavitz says he must thank to Zackwell because he gives him this chance to see his friends again, even in the death. Poor him! Now there's no way to reach the Signet Sphere. Lavitz uses all his last strength to open the way for the party to do their mission. "You are not dead. You live forever in us..."...

The party is eager to find the Signet Sphere. But Zieg is here at the same time. Dart intends to fight Zieg to seal the Signet Sphere before him. Just one hit of Zieg could throw Dart away and he has time to destroy this last Signet Sphere. Then he disappears with a big laugh.

Do they fail ? Do they really have no way ?...

Nope, they must chase after him...until the limited end. They can still change their fate. They must stop Zieg doing the next work. They must find Shana and bring her back...

The Moon That Never Sets is falling onto the Divine Tree as a fruit. The Virage Embryo - which is woken up when the time has come - gets out of the Moon and flies around.

Now Dart and his party come to the dead end of Mayfil. They have no road to reach Divine Tree. Not yet, Coolon has come to pick them up. The huge Moon is on the top of Divine Tree that is easy to see. But the surrounding Virages shoot one another continually that Coolon couldn't fly fast. It seems to be wounded. But it tries all its last power to take the party to their destination...then it dies at the root of Divine Tree. "Your death won't be in vain." Then Dart and his party begins climb the Divine Tree to reach the Moon That Never Sets.

On the way, the party again faces a lot of challenges. The monsters are always around the tree. The butterfly monster who is a special fruit of Divine Tree stops their way. But they still keep their courage and patience. They have come to the Moon anyway...

The Moon That Never Sets is so huge that contains a lot of miracles. Now the party must reach its core where Shana is held, giving birth to the God of Destruction. But when they first enter the Moon, there are a lot of strange events happening to them. Each character faces their own past and tries to overcome them.

MIRRANDA & DEATH ROSE

Mirranda sees a rose in the forest of her hometown. She hates roses very much, because it is her mother's favourite flower. Then she remembers her past. When she was young, her family was very poor. Her father rarely works but he is always drunk. Her mother couldn't suffer a terrible husband. She follows another man, leaves Mirranda forever and never returns. Mirranda hates her mother. Queen Theresa rear her as her real daughter so she always considers Queen Theresa as her mother. She works as a Sacred Sister to forget her own pain. Then the rose changes into a monster. No, it's Mirranda's mother. Her mother in the Death Rose tries to explain the situation for the poor daughter.

She still loves her daughter. She couldn't stand a terrible husband like that. Mirranda says she is a terrible mother. She leaves her and her father that the two father and child had to live miserable poverty. Even though her father was not good, he was still with Mirranda, not like her mother. The face in the Death Rose tries to say that Mirranda's father works less than he drinks. He always beats her in drunk. A mother like her had to get away. But she returned to take Mirranda with her. But her father kicked her out. "It hurts..." - the mother always repeats those words. It's really hurt.

"I'll forgive you..." - that's what the daughter could do now...The Death Rose smiles satisfactorily. Maybe she could tranquilized now...and it disappears...

Mirranda - the daughter had to keep a big pain for years. But she didn't think of the other's pain, such as her mother. Mirranda misses her mother very much...

HASCHEL & CLAIRE

Haschel sees a little girl wandering in the Minitos world. Dart comes to her, but she is suddenly away. "It's Claire. She hasn't known you yet...". Then Haschel comes into the illusion Claire made.

"I hate you, Dad..." - the girl cries.

She is really a lovely girl. But just a moment, she is suddenly changed into a killing machine losing self-control. Even trying to wake up his daughter, Haschel is reluctant to fight her.

"I'm not Claire. I'm the War God..."

The girl continuously attacks Haschel. The father is hurt to turn against his daughter. He tries to wake her daughter up. It was all his fault. He really regrets and has looked for her for twenty years. And Claire, she says that he didn't love her. He tried to make her become a martial art machine while what she needed are love and freedom. But Haschel, he doesn't need to know what happens. He just wants to wake her up. The little "War God" plays a heavy hit to Haschel: The Four Gods Destruction. Even being wounded by that daughter, Haschel still tries to explain that he loves her and nothing could change it. He doesn't need how much she beats him, he just wants her to understand and forgive him.

The girls many times beat Haschel heavily. But the true love of Haschel for his daughter can't be changed. After some moments, she becomes mad and really lose control. The War god and Claire is exchanging position. It seems Claire understands her father and wants to return to herself. She is fighting the War God to get her flesh.

- Mind's eye, awaken ! - Haschel cries

Yes, the call of the father makes an enormous effect on the poor daughter.

- \dots Thank you, father \dots - It seems that Claire forgives his father. She disappears \dots

KONGOL & INDORA

Kongol was the only survival Gigantos from Human's killing. But now he is fighting, for the survive of this world, for the coexistence of all species. He has ever considered Doel as his leader. But now Dart is the real leader for him. Dart needs his power. He proves that power to Dart. He needs power to help Dart. Then he sees Indora - his Gigantos brother. Indora was the strongest Gigantos in Kongol's mind. Kongol wants to fight brother, to have that strongest power. Yeah, the little Kongol now must prove himself by himself. Indora is really so strong that it seems that Kongol can't win. But he could do that. He has to save this world as his friends does. He can't lose.

Indora, at the end, is the loser. But Kongol would be his pride, the pride of Gigantos. Kongol is inheritted Indora's Axe. Yes, he would use this weapon to save the world. Dart needs him, this world needs him...

ROSE & MICHAEL

Michael, the Vassal Dragon of Rose suddenly appears in the Moon That Never Sets. It splits everyone and corners Rose and Dart to its world. Rose realizes this place where is full of dragons. She was first here. This was the place where she first saw Michael.

It was a Dragon which uses Dark-based attack. In the Dragon Campaign, it became the tool of Humans to fight against Winglies and Virages. Humans had to sacrifice it for the war. Rose, she defeated it and has got the Dragoon Spirit of Dark Dragon from its body. It returns to a baby Dark Dragon. Rose named it Michael and she was always with it during the war...

Can't believe now Rose could meet Michael in this place. But it hasn't regconized her anymore. Michael attacks both Rose and Dart. Rose has loved it as her real friend. She didn't want to kill it. But Michael is the strongest Dragon which has the highest speed, strength and defense in species. Every of their attacks have no effect on it. After a lot of dangerous moments, Rose tells Dart the weakness of Michael: the blind spot. This thing just appears after Michael uses the dark laser. Of course, they must kill the Dragon anyway.

Dart asks Rose why she could easily kill a Dragon which was very faithful to her. Rose says that it's still a Dragon anyway. Dragon is a creature which has no love and feeling. It's just a kind of wild animals. It might be obey its controller at the young age. But when growing up, it realizes its wildness, it would return to wildness...

ALBERT & EMPEROR DOEL

Everyone is surprised about Doel when he let Kongol join him and didn't kill the Gigantos. What did he really want to do? Albert still feels puzzled why Doel killed his father - King Carlo. Then he enters the Black Castle in the Moon That Never Sets to find out about the past of himself. Doel is waiting for him. Albert at once asks about what he always wonders. But Doel wants to talk to him by weapons:

Doel, he only needs the power. He and Carlo were close friends for a long time. Carlo was a king of integrity and talent. He was always the best in people's mind. And Doel, he never got pass Carlo about strength and talent. If he didn't kill him, he could never rise up. When Albert asks, Doel just says Serdians needs him because he is a real emperor than Carlo. He rules them by power. He needs the strongest power to rule people.

Albert says that's not all. People don't need power. People need love and peace. Doel thinks it's just a stupid thing. He confirms that people cannot live without power. And now he has the strongest power, he isn't afraid of anyone...

But after the fight, Albert almost defeats Doel. What's wrong with his power ? - Doel wonders. Why can't his power defeat a young aged guy as Albert ? He is really the loser...

- "...It can't bring happiness to people..." - said Albert. Power is nothing for him. Although being a King, Albert himself never mentions power. He likes to live in peace. He likes to live with his people in happiness. Yes, he doesn't possess the strong power as Doel. But he has his courage, he has his friends who are always with him in troubles and challneges. That's all he possesses in this battle. Doel has made a mistake. He lost his self-control because of power. Very his power defeats him...

MERU & ARCHANGEL

Archangel is the ancient guardian of Winglies who has divine power of light. And now Meru - a Wingly must face her guardian and turn against her. Archangel is the ancient Wingly angel who keeps the all tradition that Wingly is the most noble species who deserve to rule this world. Those barbaric Humans are just their servant. And Meru, she says her guardian is a persistent guy. All the species in this world are equal. There's no reason to turn against one another like that. Archangel considers Humans as the terrible and useless species who have no magical power, inoble and bad. Meru says they are very cool. They are better than Winglies a lot of points. They have courage, they have friendship, they have peace. All of those help them to have the liberation to rule this world. They play with Meru even she is a Wingly the species turns against them. At that time, the persistent Winglies just hide themself in their secret small world just because the old imbalance opinion. Archangel many times punishes Meru about her opposing. But finally she must lose the little brave girl...

All those challenges take the party to the core of the Moon That Never Sets. Really ? They are closing to the last destination. Dart begins to hear Shana's cry. Although they must pass over the gate keeper Virage, they have come to the end.

Shana is held here. Her power is being used to create the God of Destruction. Zieg is waiting there so long. Now this is the challenge for Dart. The anger of Dart turns him into the Red Eyed Dragoon and runs to fight very his father. But Zieg is faster enough to steal the Dragoon Spirit from Dart. Rose thinks that that bad person can't be accepted. But the Dragoon Spirit regconizes Zieg before everyone. He turns into the legendary Red Eyed Dragoon in the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago. But now his target is not Melbu Frahma. It's his son Dart. This is an incredible fight between father and son.

The battle lasts very long. There is no winner or loser. And Zieg, he says he doesn't need to hide anymore. At that time, Zieg suddenly faints. Behin him is rising a shadow - a very familiar face of Rose - Melbu Frahma.

Yeah, the famous leader of Winglies in the Dragon Campaign - Melbu Frahma - is still alive. It seems that he has been waiting for this moment for over 10000 years ago. In the Dragon Campaign, Zieg did not completely killed Melbu. He just destroyed his flesh, not his soul. When he was being petrified, Melbu transmigrating his soul into Zieg's Dragoon Spirit. When Rose - the Black Monster came to Neet to destroy everything. Zieg used the Dragoon Spirit to transform. Melbu possessed Zieg's body since then.

Now Melbu Frahma has succeeded. He then absorbs the power of Shana and becomes the God of Destruction himself by merging with the Virage Embryo. The God Of Destruction has been born.

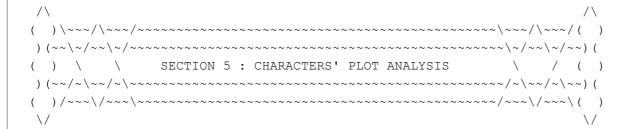

At that time, Lloyd appears to get revenge with Melbu for having deceived him. Even how strong he is, Melbu could still kill Lloyd with just one shot... Before dying, Lloyd gives Dart the Dragoon Spirit of Divine Dragon and gives Rose the Dragon Buster to fight Melbu. Now Dart is the Divine Dragoon. He would lead the party to take part in this fated battle which decide the lives of all species and this world...

...Til the end of the battle, Melbu is almost destroyed. The Moon That Never Sets is going to explode. Dart tries to bring Shana on his huge hand of Divine Dragoon armor. And Rose, she slowly comes to see her fiance - Zieg - the only person she loves - the only person she has been waiting for over 10000 years. Melbu, he tries to use all his last power to kill Dart - the guy who had just destroyed his plan.

- Would you come with me, Rose ? said Zieg is a weak voice
- Yes, I have been waiting for this moment... Rose answers

At that time, Zieg holds the sword of Red Eyed Dragoon. Rose, with her wings, brings him fly into Melbu Frahma to play the finishing touch. Dart and other Dragoons try to fly out of the Moon. The end of the God of Destruction is the end of the Moon. They just fly, fly, fly to the outside. The Moon begins exploding itself.

- Rose !!! Father !!! cried Dart
- Farewell... that's what Dart could hear from the explosion. Rose had died. But the most happy is that she could die with his lover Zieg. Their long lives finally should go to the end a beautiful end...

Here in this section, I still keep on analyzing the game plots, but on each exact character with their exact events. Reading this section will give you a deeper look on the complicated story of the game.

What is the Plot Event of Dart ?

The important event of Dart is his past or the revenge with the Black Monster.

As I said above, Dart lost his parents 17 years ago when his hometown Neet was destroyed by the Black Monster. He soon became an orphan and during his life, his desire is to avenge the Black Monster for what it did to him.

Dart's childhood

There are not many clues about Dart's childhood given in the game. But according to what we know, he was an orphan and by someway, he was taken to Seles and grew up there. His closest friend, also his sweetheart is Shana. But if you pay attention to the Haschel's lines in the game, you'll see. When Dart met Haschel before the Heroes Competition, Haschel claimed him to be the "lonely wolf". We can think that he didn't have many friends besides sweet Shana. But now, he has got a friend, a real friend Lavitz.

Who does Dart love ?

Well, although there have been many girls appearing around Dart. But the answer must be Shana anyway. Many people think differently, but I don't think so:

- With Shana: Dart's love for Shana doesn't change and never changes. In childhood, they were close friends and he always protected Shana as if she were his baby sister. But now, that love isn't changed. Dart is always kind to Shana and he does everything to save her and protect her from danger.
- With Rose: You should refer to Rose's plot analysis to know more, but here I attempt to Dart. I agree that Dart is grateful to Rose when she saved him from the Green Tusked Dragon Feybrand. But Dart just considers her as a close partner with him. He doesn't love her as he does with Shana. In the opposite of this, Dart wonders about Rose, about her mystery and her knowledges of the world history more than gets any emtional feelings with her.
- With Meru: Well, I have no idea with this dancing babe. Refer to Meru's plot analysis to know more about her, but I assure with you that Dart has nothing with this girl, although she always tries to be his tail.

What is the Plot Event of Shana ?

The most important Plot Event of Shana is her true identity. Shana herself is not an ordinary child born in the Seles. She was a royalist, a princess of Mille Seseau.

Shana's Identity & her childhood

There's no proof about the real name of Shana, as I don't know Shana is her real name or the name given by people who reared her up in Seles. But anyway, Shana was one of the princesses of Mille Seseau. She had a twin sister - Princess Louvia. But the majorer fact is that she was chosen to be the Moonchild who would give birth to the God of Destruction. Just because of this, Shana brought the tragedy to people in Mille Seseau, or creatures living on the earth. The God of Destruction will take the world to annihilation when it is born. And it's a calamity for everybody. So this made the appearance of the Black Monster. The Black Monster's true purpose is to kill the Moonchild to prevent the world from annihilation. But its barbaric actions for people in Mille Seseau is considered to be terrible, and then it has become a symbol of ultimate evil.

Shana and Louvia were separated. By some way, Shana was lost and drifted to Seles. But The Black Monster was still destroying everything to pursue the Moonchild. Louvia and the royalists escaped on the Saint Louvia ship. But they couldn't get out of Black Monsters : They were all killed, even the baby princess Louvia. The Black Monster thought that he had killed the Moonchild, so there has been no info about it since the tragedy. Eventually, the Moonchild - Shana was still alive, living happily with Dart and people in Seles.

There are no clear clues about Shana's childhood either. But we can think she has got a very beautiful memory with Dart in her childhood.

Why did the Sandora want Shana ?

Emperor Doel ordered Fruegel to catch up Shana. But in fact, he did this following a Man in Black Hood whose name is Lloyd. Refer to Lloyd's plot analysis to know about him. But that's not all. Lloyd needs Shana for Emperor Diaz. This guy has a darker purpose that you'll find out at the end of the game. You can refer to the Story and those character's plot analysis to know about them.

Why did Emperor Diaz want Shana ?

Refer to Story and Melbu Frahma's plot analysis.

Who does Shana love ?

Of course, the answer must be Dart. Although in the game, there's an optional episode in Basil that Dart makes couple for Lavitz and Shana . But Shana still loves Dart, as you can there are many lovely romantic scenes between the two scaterring in the game.

LAVITZ

What is the Plot Event of Lavitz ?

Lavitz's appearance is pretty short in the game. And he himself doesn't have major plot event. But we can take a drill about his honor as his pride about his respectable father - Servi.

Lavitz's father - Servi

Servi doesn't appear in the game, as he died with King Carlo in the wars with Sandora. But there are a few proofs about him given in the game.

Servi was a loyal knight of King Carlo. He was talented, a person of integrity and justice who was respected by people in Basil. He made many victories in wars, and was the person of success. Greham was a close friend of Servi, who later was Emperor Doel's knight. Greham was also talented. But he did never get over his close friend Servi. Servi was always shining, and he felt that he was living under his shadow. So because of that, when Emperoe Doel betrayed the kingdom, Greham followed him and fought against Basil and Servi. As Lavitz said, his father Servi was killed cowardly by very Greham. Greham finished Servi's life as if he had got rid of a powerful rival. If Servi was a person of justice and intergrity, so Greham belonged to power and strength.

Servi died. Lavits continued his harmony by becoming the leader of Knights of Basil, as a very loyal knight of King Albert - the son of Carlo.

Who does Lavitz love ?

Lavitz is a soldier who always gets away from home. He never minds about himself or his own life. He wants to devote his life to the peace of Serdio, as his father's wish. But anyway, if he must choose between Lordship and Mother, so his mother is the person he loves best. He is his mother's pride, and he always works hard to deserve that, to deserve to be his father's honor. This can be proved by the battle between the party and the soul of former White Silver Dragoon Shirley.

What is the Plot Event of Rose ?

The major Plot Event of this mysterious character is very her mystery, or her true identity.

Rose's True Identity

Rose was the first and the only Dragoon of the era who has survived during over 11000 years since the time of Dragon Campaign. With thick experience within her life, she has a huge wisdom of knowledges about the earth and historical events.

First of all, she was the Dark Dragoon who joined the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago. She, and the Red-eyed Dragoon Zieg were the only survivors, as the other Dragoons were killed. Refer to Zieg's plot analysis to know about him. Here I attempt to Rose. She has lived on this earth until now.

Second, she was very the legendary barbaric Black Monster who caused the tragedy in Dart's hometown. She had already known the appearance of the Moonchild, and decided to kill it as soon as possible before the God of Destruction could be born to annihilate the world. Since she met Dart, she has guessed the result if Dart knew her as the Black Monster. She tried to hide everything. But the fact is that she couldn't hide her own mystery. Being the evil Black Monster was the destiny she chose for herself as the only survivor from the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago with the desire of saving the world from Doom's day. So we can have a relative conclusion that what the Black Monster was just for the good, but the way how she did it was just the most unforgivable sin.

Rose's Secret Love

Rose was truely Zieg's fiance. Zieg and Rose loved each other 11000 years ago, and they became fiances. But the Dragon Campaign separated them from each other, and Rose thought that Zieg was dead, as she witnessed him being stoned and his hand was left from hers. So with the question "Who does Rose love?", the correct answer is Zieg, not Dart.

Rose's Romance

You have played through the game, and maybe you have seen the event after Rose saves Dart when the Phantom Ship disappears. Dart was unconscious. At that time, Rose has got back her memory about 11000 years ago and accidentally said about Zieg. She thought that Zieg was dead. But by this episode, we can be more sure that Rose loves Zieg very much. Dart looks like Zieg very much. He has Zieg's face, but he is not Zieg, and he couldn't replace the Zieg she loves... the eternal love which has lasted for 11000 years...

Another strange episode about Rose is that when she is waiting before the party in Fletz. Before that, Haschel complaint why she couldn't make a smile even a little. Then Rose replies by a funny answer: "I...don't remember how to smile." Before the party, Rose has stood in the bedroom, saying to herself: "I did laugh..." or she said about her past, about her lost happiness. When Zieg was with her, she did smile, she did laugh. But since the Dragon Campaign, since she wore the magical choker to live until now, she has stopped laughing. And now, she even doesn't remember how to express her happiness, since it was lost along with Zieg.

How does Rose live so long ?

Rose has spent an eternally long life. Until now, she is about 11026 years old. So maybe many of you wonder about that. That's because of the choker she wears on her neck. Charle Frahma has made it for her to keep her immortal, because Rose was given the duty to kill the Moonchildren whenever they were born, as the Black Monster. Anyway, I think that the choker just has the role to disarm the time and it can't keep Rose invulnerable to deaths by physical forces, proving by the fact both Zieg and she died at the kamikaze final blow in the end of the game.

HASCHEL

What is the Plot Event of Haschel ?

That's about his daughter Claire, who ran away many years ago.

Haschel's daughter Claire

Claire is Haschel's only daughter. According to the events in The Moon That Never Sets, the reason she left him was because she needed love and freedom. Haschel is the master Rouge School - a martial art school. When Claire was young, Haschel all the way trained her into a talented martial artist like him. Of course, being his daughter, Claire obeyed and tried to work hard. She learnt martial arts pretty well. In school, Haschel told her to consider him as her master, not her father, and he always kept her in discipline. That was all Haschel did for her. But anyway, she was still a young lady, who liked to dream and to be loved. She didn't feel her father's love for her. One day, while practising, Claire accidentally punched her comrade fatally, so then Haschel angrily blamed her of not controlling her fists. She was too hurt and ran away. It has been many years, and she has never returned...

Haschel himself always regrets about that. Claire lost her mother very early, so he tried to rear her as well as he could. But he made her run away. In his challenges in Aglis and The Moon That Never Sets, Haschel has honestly confirmed that he could not get back the past, but his love for her daughter never changes.

But anyway, Claire's Plot Event is also short but not simple as Haschel's story. If you want to know, refer to her plot analysis. I'll analyze her more clearly there.

What is the Plot Event of Albert ?

This character is pretty similar to Lavitz. His life also doesn't have a major plot event, but he has the pride of his father King Carlo - who was the former king of Basil.

Albert's father - King Carlo

Albert is also Emperor Doel's nephew. Many years ago, King Carlo was the king of the whole Serdio. He ruled his country in peace. But inside his court, Emperor Doel had plan to betray. Just like the relation between Servi and Greham, Emperor Doel is a talented person who thought that he was living under the shadow of King Carlo. He guessed he must be better than Carlo. He needed power and strength to become better. So he gathered his own troop and betrayed, creating the Sandora which is South Serdio, spliting Serdio. He made many wars with Basil to get Carlo's throne. And now he is still doing it. Next to Carlo is Albert. And of course, Emperor Doel still continues his plan, and Albert still fights against him to wake him up. Doel rules his people by power, but Albert opinions that power is not everything. He understands that his people need peace and love. People loves make him stronger.

Who does Albert love ?

Of course, needless to say, the elder Princess of Tiberoa, Emille. They have married each other in the ending of the game. I think there's nothing to tell here. It's too clear.

MERU

What is the Plot Event of Meru ?

I think there are not many clues given about her life. But at least, we can take a look at what we know about her: She is a Wingly.

Meru is a Wingly ?

We first met Meru as a dancer in the Flower City Donau. But no one knew that she had been a Wingly. She tried to hide that fact because she was afraid that they wouldn't believe her or they would stay away from her. Her real home was the Wingly Forest - a hidden shelter of the Winglies on the earth. They used magic to seal the place and that was the reason why humans couldn't find them. But before Meru reveals the truth about herself for the party, we have seen many scenes proving her to be a Wingly. Let's see:

- If you have paid attention to all the scenes in the game, maybe you still remember the ones with Lenus. When we defeated Lenus the first time, the party said that she had no way to go. But then Lenus pointed at Meru and asked her what she would do if she were her. Why Meru? Because Lenus had already known that Meru was a Wingly. She recognized her, because she herself is also a Wingly. And then she flew away with her wings. Although this episode is not very clear, we can see that the game has partly wanted to show you that Meru is not so ordinary as she looks.
- The second scene is when Lenus dies in Prison Island. You remember ? Lenus lies on the ground, calling Lloyd. Dart and Shana are still frightened by what she did. But let's pay attention carefully to Meru. She stands by Lenus, looking at her with a sympathetic stare. This scene is shown pretty clearly. It also proves to you that there must be a relation ship between Lenus and Meru: They are both Winglies.

Meru is a young Wingly who wants to fit in the human world. Without telling anyone, she left home and lived in the human world as a dancer in Donau. Since she got acquanted with Dart's party, she realized that humans were so kind and cool. They were not barbaric and rude as the former Winglies told her. She thought that her race was so persistent and old. Being a naughty and stubborn girl, Meru has tried to change the Winglies' opinions about humans, making the two races to live with each other in peace.

Meru's Romance

Meru's sweetheart is Guaraha - a Wingly who has grown with her in the Wingly Forest. Guaraha likes Meru very much and no matter what she does, he always supports her all the way. I don't know much about the relation between these two, but maybe they could make a couple.

Since Meru joined Dart's party, she has paid much of her attention to Dart - the leader. But I think her feeling about is not like a love. She is still a child who loves joking and playing, just too young to understand what love is truly is. But it seems that she is very interested in romance. She chases after Dart when he is talking to the girls (Shana or Rose), and then she can whisper anything about them with Dart, or even pick him up. She is kidding !!!

What is the Plot Event of Kongol ?

Kongol is a playable character of the game, but his role is not very big. There are very few things about his life given in the game. But the important event is that how he became Emperor Doel's knight.

Kongol joined Emperor Doel

As I said in the above section, Kongol was the one of the few Gigantos who survived after being killed by the humans. He was alone, no friend, no relative. At that time, Emperor Doel passed by the Giganto Home and found him. After knowing what had happened, he told Kongol that in the future, he would make Humans, Gigantos and all the existing races will be equal to one another. And then he persuaded Kongol to join him to be his servant. Emperor Doel's words are so effective, because that was also what Kongol wanted. So he joined Doel at a very small age. Since then, Kongol became the strongest servant of Emperor Doel, and he did whatever Doel ordered. He fought like a killing machine who had no heart. Many times Kongol were sent in Sandora troops to fight against the Knights of Basil. And he became the nightmare of Basil for his great power and vitality.

Kongol joined Dart's party

In Disc 2, after the party defeats Gehrich Gang in Giganto Home, the powerful fist of Haschel made the statues collapse. And they drop on everybody. But then Kongol has come to save them. With the extreme strength of a Giganto, he stops the huge statue and puts it out of people below. Then he tells Dart that he wants to join the party. Maybe there are two reasons:

- Kongol always needs a leader to take him fight for the equal of species. Emperor Doel has died, as Dart defeated him. And he thinks that Dart now is the strongest leader of him. He joins Dart in order to do his childhood desire.
- In the event before meeting Emperor Doel, Dart's party got a fight with Kongol. And Kongol lost. He should have been killed because of this. But Dart gave up and let him live. Maybe that action of Dart partly woke up Kongol, making Kongol trust him more.

Kongol's brother - Indora

I really wonder about this brother. I don't see him in Kongol's past. When little Kongol was taken away by Emperor Doel, I wonder where he was. Or had he been killed by the humans either? Kongol met the image of Indora in The Moon That Never Sets, but there is no info about the true Indora. But according to the events in the Moon, this is what I can say.

Indora might be a true Giganto who got powerful strength. He hoped a lot in his younger brother to become the true Giganto like him, also to prove the pride of Gigantos. So we can think that this was also one of the reasons why Kongol joined Emperor Doel. Kongol himself is very proud of his unwashed brother Indora. He thought that with Emperor Doel, he would get more training and improve his strength as his brother wanted. And in the challenge of the Moon That Never Sets, he has really faced Indora and he has satisfied his brother.

MIRRANDA

What is the Plot Event of Mirranda ?

Not very much. But I think that's her childhood past.

Mirranda's childhood

Mirranda has spent her childhood which she thought to be painful and unworthy to be remembered.

She was born in a poor family. Her mother alone reared her. The father got drunk all the time and always beat her mother. One day, Mirranda witnessed her mother going with a strange man. Her mother said that she could stay at home any longer with a bad husband like that. Then she went away, leaving Mirranda and her father. She never saw her mother return again. The father and daughter lived in poverty and misery. But according to Mirranda, although her father was always drunk, he did love her very much and always stayed by her. No matter what happened, she loved her father and hated her mother very much for leaving her in misery.

But it seems that Mirranda's father also died after spending his miserable life in poverty. The daughter was alone. But then, she was adopted by Queen Theresa - the Queen of Mille Seseau. She worked hard to forget the pain of life. And maybe because of her great ability of fighting, she was chosen to be the First Sacred Sister of Deningrad. For her, Queen Theresa is like a respectable mother who has reared her up.

Mirranda hates Rose

"Rose" here has both meanings: The character in Dart's party and the name of a flower type. Mirranda hates both.

She hates roses because her mother loved roses very much, as she extremely hates her mother for having left her in poverty. She told this to Haschel in the bar in Ulara.

She hates Rose, partly because of her name coinsides the hated flower. And the other reason is that Rose doesn't seem good in Mirranda's opinion: "What a clumsy woman!". Fortunately later, after having understood what Rose has spent during her eternal life, Mirranda has changed her mind and fought alongside with her.

What is the Plot Event of Lloyd ?

There are two events I think to be important:

- The relation between Lloyd and Emperor Diaz.

- The relation between Lloyd and Lenus.

Lloyd and Emperor Diaz

Well, this relation still has many mysteries. But first, discuss about Lloyd's self.

Lloyd is a young Wingly (of course) who wanders around the earth. He is the man of ambition. With his young age, his desire to do something big has taken him to Emperor Diaz. About this, you can refer to Emperor Diaz's plot analysis to know why Lloyd got contact with him instead of with anyone else. Both Lloyd and Emperor Diaz have the same desire. There are currently 107 creature kinds on the earth, as 107 fruits given by the Divine Tree. But there is an incomplete 108th fruit as a new creature, which they think to be born to change the world. Within the current chaos, the world will be degenerated again. So it needs a new species to rebuild the balance which was first given by Creator Soa. Well, they began their first explore at Capital Kadessa. And Diaz told Lloyd to collect the three Divine Moon Objects to him. Lloyd himself knew nothing about this, and he just did what Diaz told him to do. He also ordered Lloyd to bring Shana - the Moonchild to him. Lloyd did all the way to do Diaz's order without realizing that he was becoming an evil.

Many players wonder about how Lloyd obtained the Dragon Buster - the powerful weapon which was only used to kill Dragons. So then the answer is that Emperor Diaz gave it to him. Again, refer to Emperor Diaz's and Melbu Frahma's plot analysis.

Lloyd and Lenus

Lloyd and Lenus are both Winglies. There's no clue about how they met each other. But Lenus loves Lloyd to death and she's willing to do whatever he orders to satisfy him. But Lloyd just considers Lenus to be a protective gear, a sacrifice for his ambition. First, he orders her to find the Moon Dagger for him. And then, when he is pursued by Dart's party, he leaves the rest for Lenus then cowardly runs away. Lenus fought alone and died. She didn't know that she had loved the wrong person even when dying. What love !!! :(

Well, you can refer to Lenus' plot analysis to know about her.

Lloyd - The Man in Black Hood

The Man in Black Hood who followed Fruegel, and the one who was Albert's general are all the same: Lloyd. About the reason why he had to cover himself like that, is to find the things as Emperor Diaz wanted. He followed Fruegel to see what this did to catch up Shana. And he tried to be Albert's general in order to steal the Moon Gem the Albert was having.

Lloyd and Wink

In order to collect the Moon Mirror located in Mille Seseau, Flanvel Tower, Lloyd had to find all the ways to catch a person in Deningrad. On the way to there, he has saved The Third Sacred Sister of Deningrad - Wink from gangsters and Younger Bardel twice and she was very grateful to him. In the second time, Lloyd was injured. So Wink brought him to Deningrad, accidentally making a chance for Lloyd to do his mission. He was be able to contact Queen Theresa and then caught her, ordered her to take him to the Flanvel Tower to grab the Moon Mirror.

Lloyd and the Divine Dragoon Spirit

With the powerful Dragon Buster in hand, Lloyd decides to conquer the Divine Dragon to get its Dragoon Spirit to become the Divine Dragoon. He was very the person who unsealed the Divine Dragon in the Mountain of Mortal Dragon. And then he tried to fight it himself. It was lucky for him that Dart's party also fought the dragon to prevent its destruction for the people. They fought together. But finally, Lloyd got the Dragoon Spirit before the others could stop him. Luckily, the spirit didn't accept him as its owner.

Besides the main characters, the subordinate characters also take big roles to build up the story of The Legend of Dragoon. So I decided to make an own section to analyze them either.

EMPEROR DOEL

He is the Emperor of Sandora, South Serdio. You can take a look at Albert's analysis to know some plot events about him. The major event of this character is that he betrayed King Carlo, making his own troop, and then defeated Carlo to get his throne. But his plan was a failure, as Albert replaced his father to rule Serdio. With the help of his faithful friends, Albert has defeated Emperor Doel and shown him the true meaning of a good ruler.

* Where did Doel get the Dragoon Spirit of Violet Dragon ?

Remember that Doel got contact with Lloyd, and Lloyd got contact with Emperor Diaz. According to what he said, the Dragon Spirit of Violet Dragon was given to him by Emperor Diaz. It seems that this guy owns a lot of things involved with the legend. Lloyd's Dragon Buster was also given by him. And who the hell truely him? Read the next plot analysis below.

Z I E G

Zieg was Dart's father and also Rose's finance. He was the Red-eyed Dragoon who fought in the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago.

Zieg was not immortal like Rose. How could he live so long like Rose ?

Yes, Zieg wasn't immortal. But do you remember the FMV of Rose's memory ? Rose saw Zieg being stoned by Melbu Frahma's curse. Yes, because of the curse, Zieg has been stoned for thousands of years. But when the curse had came to its limit, Zieg was freed. Then he lived in Neet, got married and gave birth to Dart.

Why did Zieg disguise into Emperor Diaz ?

That was because Melbu Frahma possessed Zieg's body, not Zieg did. Read Melbu Frahma's plot analysis.

Why did Zieg want Shana ?

That was because Melbu Frahma possessed Zieg's body, not Zieg did. Read Melbu Frahma's plot analysis.

When was Zieg possessed by Melbu Frahma ?

In the tragedy 17 years ago. When the Black Monster destroyed the village Neet, Zieg took his family to a safe place. You all know what happened. Zieg said that he had to help the people. So he ran and disappeared into the fire, along with Dart's mother and left the child alone. I guess that was when he got possessed.

Did Zieg still love Rose ?

Of course, that's true. The true Zieg has finally shown up in the ending scenes of the game and finally the two lovers have reunited after 11000 years of separation and pain.

CLAIRE

Claire is Haschel's runaway daughter, and also supposed to be Dart's mother.

Is Haschel's daughter and Dart's mother are the same ?

Maybe. The game doesn't confirm about this. But according to the episodes, we can be sure that they are the same :

- When you first go to Fletz, let's try to check one of the bridges in the city. One of them is Claire bridge. When Haschel sees the bridge's name, he says that it is his daughter's name. But then Dart also tells that Claire is his mother's name. And then both Dart and Haschel look at each other: "Is this a coincidence?".

- When you get to the Water City Furni and stay in the Mayor's house, Haschel hears Shana singing a lullaby to console Fa. He soon realized that was his daughter's favourite lullaby when she was with him. Haschel remembered that his daughter had said that she would sing this lullaby for her future baby. Then Shana told him that Dart sang this lullaby to her when she was small. And according to Dart said, this lullaby was originally sung by his mother. Well...

So if they were the same, where was she ?

If we accept the fact that Haschel's daughter and Dart's mother are the same, maybe she was dead. In the tragedy 17 years ago in Neet, Dart's mother said that she had to help the people with her husband. Then she disappeared into the fire either. Since then, there has been no info about her. So we can think that Claire did die in that burning village (Is there any different idea...?). Here we can also give up the theory that Dart must be Haschel's grandson which explains their strange understanding of each other. Don't you see that the relation between Dart and Haschel is close and friendly in a weird manner?

LENUS

Lenus is a wandering Wingly who caused the strange accident in Tiberoa and a person who loved Lloyd to death.

How did Lenus cause the strange accident in Tiberoa ?

I don't witness the accident, so I can't tell the details of the accident. But we can report it like this: When Princess Emille went to the wood, Lenus and the Gehrich Gang had waited there and then kidnapped her away. After that, Lenus dressed up like Emille and lay on the ground as if she had fallen. And when the royal people were still searching for Emille, maybe the gangs brought the real Emille back to the castle ans hode her sometwhere. Then when Lenus went to the castle as the form of Emille, she used magic to hide Emille in the painting.

Why didn't Lenus live with her community in Wingly Forest or Ulara ?

Maybe she wanted to follow Lloyd to get him.

BARDEL BROTHERS

Younger Bardel and Elder Bardel are the Wingly brothers who live with Meru in Wingly Forest. They are pretty persistent and unfriendly with Meru.

Why do Bardel brothers hate Meru ?

Because Meru plays with Humans, their most hated species.

Why do Bardel brothers hate Humans ?

Bardel brothers think that Humans are all the same : crude and barbaric. Because of species distinguishing, their baby sister was killed by a human some years ago, so they always have bad thoughts about humans and they dislike Meru when she gets contact with them.

DRAKE THE BANDIT

Remember this guy, one of your toughest bosses in Disc 1 ? I didn't mention this guy in this section because his plots are not remarkable enough to be discussed. Besides, the game doesn't reveal so many information about his background that I don't find it worthy to write here. Now as a reader's request, I decide to let him join this section and I'll explain everything can be known about him and my theories.

So who is Drake ?

Of course, he's a bandit, just as his name implies. Looking at him lets you know that he belongs to Minito race. When we meet him, he keeps boasting on his past as a famous bandit in the zone. Certainly I don't know if this is true or not. But we can make a modest conclusion here: Drake is a Minito bandit, and that's all.

Geez, this is the question asked by my reader who requests to add Drake in this section. Good question, right ? I have read all the related conversations in the game but none of them mentioned Drake's past or the reason why he protects Shirley at all cost. But here is my theory. As you see, Drake fights you simply because he thinks you are some kind of gangsters who come to rob the Shrine - where Shirley rests, so we can think that he's completely not an evil one. Before Shirley, he always expresses some kind of grattitude which must be the cause for his protecting her and the shrine. Drake now is no more a jerky bandit and perhaps the spirit of Shirley did help him to become a good person somehow. Drake was moved since she was so kind to him, and maybe regretting his damn past. Then he decided to devote the rest of his life protecting the Shrine of Shirley so that she could rest in peace.

Who is Emperor Diaz ?

Emperor Diaz was the person who led the human soldiers to victory in the Dragon Campaign along with the Dragon Knights 11000 years ago. He was called with another name Holy Imperial Gloriano. But he did die in the war. You can find his monument in Fort Condor under the Snowfield.

So who the hell is the Emperor Diaz we saw in the game ?

That guy is neither Emperor Diaz nor Zieg as he reveals. He is truely Melbu Frahma. For more information, read Melbu Frahma's plot analysis.

THE FORMER DRAGOONS

Of course, here I mention the former Dragoons who fought and got killed in the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago to bring the victory to humans, not including Rose and Zieg. But we should also take some info about them.

SYUVEIL

He was the former Jade Dragoon. The FMV in Rose's memory doesn't show him, so I can't determine why he died. But when we met him in Vellweb, it seems that he was a researcher or a scientist when he had lived. He loved his work and his tools, that his soul didn't want to leave the earth.

KANZAS

He was the former Violet Dragoon. According to the conversation between Rose and Kanzas, and the room he was in, we can guess that Kanzas was a bloody killer. He loved killing and touching blood. All those who had been killed by him were made into the figures in his room. His soul still wanders in the earth because that was not enough for me. He wanted to kill more, and Rose came to be either his last enemy or his last victim.

In Rose's memory, we can see a scene that Kanzas was alone fighting a Virage. But it seems that he was out of his power. So Kanzas tried to gather all his remaining strength to play kamikaze with the Virage. And both of them exploded into pieces. Rose turned back and shouted his name. But it was too late and Zieg tried to take her away.

BELZAC

He was the former Golden Dragoon, with big body and great strength. According to the conversation between Rose and Belzac, we can guess that Belzac was a person who had got feelings about the innocent people and children in the wars. We can also see him in Rose's memory. In the Dragon Campaign, he and White Silver Dragoon Shirley were fighting a Super Virage. The contruction in Vellweb collapsed, dropping on Belzac and Shirley. Belzac got all his strength to keep the dropping ceiling over, shielding Shirley inside, while the Super Virage still assaulted them outside. It prepared to finish them. But then Shirley has shot an arrow to play the finishing touch. Belzac's strength also had its limited. And all of them did die. But now, his soul still wandered here, as he couldn't believe that Shirley did die, as he had tried to protect her. It seems that he loved her very much. And Rose had to rescue his soul.

SHIRLEY

She was the former White Silver Dragoon. About Shirley's death, I have explained pretty much in Belzac's analysis. And Shirley was the only dead one who accepted to leave the earth. But why was she still around? Because she worried about his Dragoon friends who didn't accept their fates. She asked Rose and Dart to help and rescue their souls. As you knew, her wandering spirit rests in The Shrine of Shirley, which is protected by Drake the Bandit.

DAMIA

She was the former Blue Sea Dragoon. There is no info about her in the Dragon Campaign. But according to the conversation between her and Rose, she was the lonely child who was half-human, half-mermaid. Dart was surprised how Damia could be chosen at a very young age like that (She was dead at 15 years old, even younger than little Meru who is 16). Rose said just because she has mermaid blood in her body she had got a special power to receive the power given by the Blue Sea Dragoon Spirit. Damia still wandered in the earth, because she thought that the Death City would be very terrible and she would be lonely again. But Rose had tried to explain to her that where she had to go, and she wouldn't feel lonely anymore.

LUANNA

Luanna is the Second Sacred Sister of Deningrad who works with Mirranda to serve Queen Theresa. She was from Dart's hometown Neet and she herself has also spent that miserable tragedy like Dart.

Luanna's special ability

The Fourth Sacred Sisters of Deningrad are chosen due to their special abilities. Mirranda is expert at battling and physics, Luanna is good at telepathy and reading others' minds. So how did she get this special ability? It was all caused by the tragedy 17 years ago.

When the Black Monster attacked Neet and killed people. Luanna and her mother was hiding somewhere in the village. But they were sound by the Black Monster. It asked them where the Moonchild was. But they themselve didn't know anything and were frightened. Luanna's mother tried to protect her daughter, telling her to close her eyes to prevent her from being frightened. Then the Black Monster soon burned her mother miserably. Luanna was too young, and she just obeyed her mother and closed her eyes. She heard her mother's scream, and she felt the fire. But she couldn't do anything. She was so frightened, just screamed and screamed... But at last, Luanna was still alive. She didn't know why the Black Monster didn't kill her. But since, she got blinded. But to compensate this, Luanna grew a special ability: reading the others' minds. She could read what the otheres were thinking. She could felt the hapinness and the pains in their minds, and then she could share with them. This was also the reason why Lloyd was spotted when he came to Crystal Palace to do his plan. Luanna soon realized him to be evil, as she could read his thoughts.

MAGICIAN FAUST

Who is Magician Faust ?

This is a side quest of this game. In the Dragon Campaign, human soldiers had Holy Imperial Gloriano as their captain. And the Winglies also have Melbu Frahma as their leader. Melbu Frahma's right hand was Magician Faust. They all had the ambition to have the world in their hand.

But since the Winglies lost, Melbu Frahma was supposed to be dead, Magician Faust disappeared and no one saw him since then. In fact, he hode himself in his own place Taboo hidden in the Tower of Flanvel. According to known information, Magician Faust was the strongest lord of magic. His magical power was unwashed and he was immortal, except if he was affected by the Vanishing Stone.

CHARLE FRAHMA

Charle Frahma was Melbu Frahma's sister and she was a kind Wingly. It seems that she knows a lot about the relation between Rossie and Zieggy - how she called them. She herself was immortal either. 11000 years ago, very Charle created and gave Rose the magical choker to keep her immortal, as she was chosen to kill the Moonchild when it was born every 108 years. Charle knew the historical events very clearly. She had expected the day of the Moon That Never Sets, when the Moonchild would give birth to the God of Destruction. So she created the five Signet Spheres located in the five cities of Winglies. These magical spheres have the power to prevent the Moon from dropping onto the earth, as they could seal the Moonchild to give birth to the God of Destruction. All those events were expected by Charle, and she put a lot of hopes to Dart's party to save the world from annihilation, by telling them to save the Signet Spheres as soon as possible before "Zieg" could destroy them.

MELBU FRAHMA

Who is Melbu Frahma ?

He is Charle Frahma's brother. He was the captain of Wingly soldiers in the Dragon Campaign 11000 years ago.

Did he get killed by Zieg ?

Yes, he did, as we saw in Rose's memory. But Melbu was a Wingly with strong magical power. He was be able to exist without his physical body. When dying, he left a curse that stoned Zieg for thousands of years. And Melbu himself tried to exist without his body for the same time.

Why and how did Melbu possess Zieg ?

Existing without his physical body prevented him from doing anything. So he needed a physical flesh to survive and to do his plan: becoming the 108th creature - The God of Destruction to rule the world. He chose Zieg because he wanted to get revenge Zieg of killing him. He did possess Zieg when the Black Monster attacked Neet 17 years ago.

Why did Melbu disguise into Emperor Diaz ?

To make it easier for him to do his plan. With the name of Emperor Diaz, he could easily persuade and order Lloyd to do what he wanted, and also to cover the fact that he was Melbu Frahma who was borrowing Zieg's body to do his evil plan.

Why did he need Shana ?

Because Shana was the Moonchild who could help him to become the God of Destruction.

Why did he need the three Divine Moon Objects ?

Because the three of them gathered will obtain the power that the Moonchild used to give birth to the God of Destruction.

Why did he have to destroy the Signet Spheres ?

Because the Signet Spheres were created to seal the power of the Moonchild.

I open this section, in order to explain some confusing phrases in the game that you can understand what I'm saying about.

THE FOUR SACRED SISTERS OF DENINGRAD

Anyone who has played this game are not strange with this name. They are the Four Sacred Sisters of Deningrad - Queen Theresa's right hand to rule the kingdom. I list them here since their positions always make me wonder. The phrase "Sacred" seems to imply their special abilities and maybe they were honoured because of them. These are just my theories.

- The First Sacred Sister: This was chosen for Mirranda a playable fighter in the game. She may be an expert fighter who is talented at shooting (as we see). She is assigned because not only of her straightforward personality and the bravery in battlefields, but also her ability to protect the country. Her harsh childhood has formed her a tough lady in both saying and doing. And perhaps she deserves it.
- The Second Sacred Sister: Except the ability of fighting, the blinded lady Luanna can be compared to Mirranda about her being strong-hearted and bravery. She can even be better than Mirranda with her wisdom and experience about life. In my guess, if Mirranda is a great fighter on the real battles, Luanna must be the great oracle in the spiritual combats. Her special telepathy allows her to read others' minds and heartily help them with her admirable understandings.
- The Third Sacred Sister: This is indeed Wink, according to the game. According a few scenes in the game, I guess her special ability is teleport. The proof is that she could make a short flash from the Capital of Deningrad to Flanvel Tower to interfere Dart's battle against Lloyd. Besides that special power, she proves to be completely clumsy compared to her older sisters Mirranda and Luanna in every field. While most of other people around, especially Luanna, keeps a careful eye on the strange guest Lloyd, Wink may be the only one who trusts him at all cost. Yeah, and finally she has to pay for that.

- The Fourth Sacred Sister: Setie is the name of this youngest sister. But what is her speciality? I don't know. She seems to take no major role in the events of the game besides the role of being Sister Luanna's guide and helper. The only clue we can find out about Setie is that she's a very kind one - according to Luanna.

Anyone has your own theories about these honourable ladies ?

DRAGON CAMPAIGN

I have explained about this in Timeline section. It was the war among the world races, especially between Humans and Winglies 11000 years. The Winglies used the Virages as their fighting tools, and the Humans had Dragoons be their leaders. The Dragoons controlled the Dragons to fight against the Virages of Winglies. The victory belonged to Human race and the first time they got their own liberty after a long time living under the rule of Winglies.

DIVINE MOON OBJECTS

They are the three Divine Moon Objects which contain mysterious power. Once their power is gathered, they will raise up the true power of the Moonchild to give birth to God of Destruction. The three Divine Moon Objects are located everywhere all over the world which are:

- The Moon Gem : It is located in Serdio and possessed by King Albert.
- The Moon Dagger: located in Tiberoa, possessed by King Zior.
- The Moon Mirror : located in Mille Seseau, possessed by Queen Theresa and placed in the Tower of Flanvel.

That's the reason why Emperor Diaz - Melbu Frahma ordered Lloyd to find the three Divine Moon Objects for him. Then he can obtain the power of the Moonchild and turn into the God of Destruction as he wished.

SIGNET SPHERES

The Moonchild is gradually supposed to be born to give birth to the God of Destruction. In showing of this, there was a strange event called "The Moon That Never Sets" happenning on the earth, as the God of Destruction was being born within the power of the Moonchild. To prevent this event, Charle Frahma created five Signet Spheres to seal the power of the Moonchild and also to prevent "The Moon That Never Sets". There are five Signet Spheres around in Wingly cities. The main signet sphere - the Crystal Sphere located in Capital Kadessa was destroyed during the Dragon Campaign. The four remaining ones are located in The Crystal Palace in the Capital of Deningrad, Magical City Aglis, Law City Zenebatos and Death City Mayfil. In order to prevent the catastrophe, Dart's party must try all the way to save the Signet Spheres before Melbu Frahma could destroy them to obtain the power of the Moonchild and become the God of Destruction.

THE DRAGON BUSTER

This is one of the two weapons created to kill the powerful Dragons only. The Dragon Buster is known as a sword-like weapon with strong piercing power which can hurt the giant body parts of dragons. Because of this strong piercing, Lloyd used it to slash the Divine Dragon's eye and one thrust of the Dragon Buster killed Lavitz immediately.

THE DRAGON BLOCK STAFF

The magical staff is not used as a fighting weapon. When being used in battle, it will drain all the power of Dragons and Dragoons into it, extremely reducing the strength of Dragons and Dragoons. This is the true function of the Dragon Block Staff. But when it drains the power so fully, it may break out.

CREATOR SOA & THE FRUITS

Contributed by Ouranos Heaven

Soa's intension: Last fruit will destroy the world unless all species unite and do something about it (they did in this game). Soa gave a chance for every species to put aside difference and unite in protecting their world and making the world a better place.

After the seed had grown, she left. No more interference from Soa.

Later people mentioning about God in the game only referred to the last fruit (God = God of destruction = Virage embryo = last fruit). By the way, the last fruit is the moon. (the biggest fruit that appeared on top of the Divine Tree).

Winglies were the first to find out about the last fruit(GOD). In order to stop the birth of the last fruit, Winglies separated the body and the soul of the last fruit. How did they do that? They took out the soul of the fruit and kept it in the spheres. Then, they floated the body (the moon) in the space. They also placed the signets around the body (the moon) so that the soul couldn稚 return to the body in case the spheres broke. The sphere containing the soul of the fruit had enormous power. Winglies drew the power from the sphere (the soul) and grew even more powerful.

Melbu frama abused the power given by the sphere. Human didn't know about the last fruit. So, in order to defeat Melbu Frama, they broke his main power source which is the sphere containing the soul of the fruit (the God of Destruction). The soul is free now. But...

Because of the signet sphere, the soul couldn[†] return to the moon even after the sphere was broken. From that time on, the soul wandered around the world. Finally, the soul reincarnated into human body (as the Moonchild) every 108 years. If the Moonchild was allowed to live and grew powerful, he/she might find a way to return to his body (the moon) and might be born as the God of Destruction (Virage Embryo).

In order to prevent the soul of the fruit from maturing and growing powerful as the Moonchild, Rose (the Black Monster) kept killing the Moonchild as soon as it was born.

THE BLACK MONSTER

An immortal creature who was given the duty to kill the Moonchild when it is born. After the tragedy in Mille Seseau, people always consider that Black Monster is a barbaric evil who touch blood. But once the Moonchild is killed, the world can be saved from annihilation. In this game, The chosen Black Monster was Rose. Charle Frahma gave her the magical choker to keep her immortal to do this important duty. That's the reason why Rose could spend a very long life.

THE MOONCHILD

Born by the God, who is considered to give "holy blessing" to the people. The Moonchildren are born every 108 years to do its function. But the truth was that the Moonchild gives birth to the God of Destruction in order to take the world to annihilation. In this game, the Moonchild was chosen to be Shana.

THE MOON THAT NEVER SETS

As the Moonchild is giving birth to the God of Destruction, the Moon will be lowered to earth, staying on the Divine Tree that is called "The Moon That Never Sets". It's a signal heralding that the world is going to be annihilated.

THE GOD OF DESTRUCTION

Virage, as we know, is the creature that supported Winglies in the Dragon Campaign. But this species is a super Virage - the God of Destruction which would be given birth by the Moonchild. This species has the strongest power which could take the world to ruin. It's very the incomplete fruit that Emperor Diaz/Melbu Frahma mentioned - the new species who "will change the world".
