-----IMPORTANT NOTICE-----

08/04/00 - A minor change.

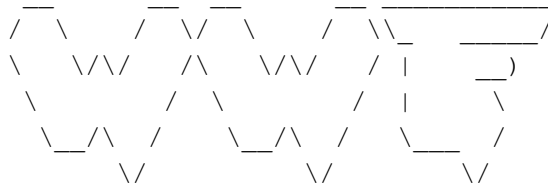

(352K)

If there is anyone out there who would care to count how many I have, I would appreciate it! I'd even give you credit for it!

E- mail address: red_phoenix_1@hotmail.com

There is a section towards the bottom called "HELP." I need someone to tell me what category already listed they would fall into. Most of them would fall into the ECW or Misc categories, but I forgot where they belong.

If you've come looking for my WWF Attitude Strategy Guide, you've come to the wrong place. Quite a while ago I decided to separate the creations from the move lists and general game information. It just looks better this way I guess. On with the creations.....

As for the moves and all that other stuff, use your imagination, I used Undertakers moves, but Godfather and Mark Henry's moves will work as well. Also, important to do the SHIRT FIRST, and the OVERALLS LAST. If you don't, the overalls will be under the shirt.
