Low Meadow Mage

Location: Meadow Shrine
Recomended Card: Millenium Shield, Dragon and Thunder Cards, Equip Card
AMA: 0-2700
AMD: 1800-3500
Strategy:

1. Low Meadow Mage isn't that hard if you have the right strategy.
First you need to buy Millenium Shield (0/3000) so his monster can't hurt your life points (check the bottem section). Why do you need Millenium Shield? Because when he change the field to Meadow instead of making his monster stronger he also make your Millenium Shield stronger.

2. Try to make as many Twin Headed Thunder Dragon (2800/2100) as you can. Check the Fushion section for more information on how to make him.

2. You don't have to have a lot of equip magic cards but it'll really help. You can get Kunai with Chain from Jono 1 and other good cards from him.
