Flo: John Connor was right!
     It was a human mind
     that did it.
     That turned Skynet
     from a tool into an
     army of Terminators.
     A human mind...
     Merged with software...
     Then linked to Skynet...
     It was a man...
     A cop named
     Alex Murphy.

Flo activates the
time displacement
equipment.
Transporting her
back before it

```
all started.
Back before Skynet, Terminators, and
the war.

The woman has
made it back...
Make no mistakes.
Everything is in peril...
Prepare the Terminators.

         injured. Lie
         still.

Flo: It was you...
     The whole world
```

```
        was destroyed
        because of you!

Robocop: Ma'am, that
         thing that shot
         at you was not human.

Flo: You don't get
     it do you?
     When they plug
     you into Skynet
     in a couple of

Robocop links into
the OCP network.

As he enters the system. He realizes something is wrong.

A cleverly laid
trap is sprung.

Robocop's mind is forced into the Skynet mainframe.

In the hands of
the Terminators,
he is made a slave.

All he can do is
watch as the spark
of his mind gives
life to a machine.

An orbiting defense
system called Skynet
becomes self-aware.
```

Decades rush by like a fever dream. He is forced to watch...

As Skynet wages its relentless war
against humanity.

After what seems like an eternity of
searching, he finds
an opportunity...

An unsecure system
at a factory...

A factory that builds Terminators.

With the factory
under his control,
he has the ability
to make a new body.

He uses cloned flesh.
To build a face...

Time enough for
vanity.

He builds a weapon
that has a grip he remembers finding comfortable...

A weapon now
powered by the technology of the future.

Robocop looks
over the ruined
city. He realizes
what he must do.

He must destroy Skynet once and
for all.

```
With a deafening explosion,
Skynet erupts into a ball
of flames.

Robocop's mission is completed. The Terminators will no longer wage their war against mankind.

To stop the Terminators
he had to destroy Skynet
and the time displacement
equipment.

Robocop must help rebuild
a world he has helped destroy.

And from the ashes
of destruction, a new world will form.

As long as humans need
protection, he will follow
his directives...

To serve the public trust.

To protect the innocent.

To uphold the law.

Wherever, whenever,
he is needed.
