Story

Doctor Scott and the Witch Doctor have been individually working on a new cure that potentially could help millions of sick people every year. There is only one problem with their approach; neither of them can seem to work together to finish the research. Things get even worse after Ursula and Magnolia got sick and only their cure could help them. A heated confrontation ensues which sends their research flying high into the air where a curious Tookie Tookie grabs it and flies away. As the precious papers fly into the distance the pages begin to fall and scatter throughout the jungle. With the papers now hidden in some of the most dangerous terrain imaginable, their only hope is George. George and his friends set out on a grand adventure to rescue the precious pages.

Characters

George of the Jungle

Apes raised George. By growing up in the jungle environment, George learned many crucial survival skills. He also learned the ability to talk to jungle animals and made many new friends. He quickly worked his way to the title of "king of the jungle" and vowed to help anyone who may be in need of his overzealous hero ways.

What George lacks in common sense, he makes up for in bravery and an intuitive sense of all things jungle and animal. He never gives up and is always ready to answer cries for help. He is relentlessly enthusiastic, zealous, loyal, and positive.

Ape

Ape and George grew up together as brothers. They are best friends. Ape is very intelligent and knowledgeable about the jungle ways. He likes order and rules. Although he is highly intelligent he is by no means an egghead. He simply approaches things in a much more logical manner than that of his best friend George.

Shep

An elephant is a man's best friend! Shep is an elephant of many tricks like fetching, digging and the ability to go through anything he wants! He is also able to carry George to any locations within the jungle! Unfortunately, he thinks he's a dog.

Tookie Tookie

Tookie Tookie bird is one of George's best friends. He will show up in the strangest of places to help George as well as deliver messages. This little cute bird is also quite a trickster. Better watch out for his antics.

Ursula

Ursula arrived at the jungle with her father Doctor Scott, who is researching wildlife looking for useful medical plants. She grew up in a big city setting, much different than that of the jungle. She is savvy and she believes that she knows all about the jungle, when really she does not. She is fun, funny, and likeable. She will often try to do things and fail but will blame it on a faulty item rather than her own lack of ability.

Magnolia

Magnolia is the daughter of the Witch Doctor. She was raised in a tribal village in the jungle. Although Magnolia was raised in the jungle, she is infatuated with city life. She is very much a girly girl who enjoys dressing up and wearing various jungle plants. Although she grew up in the jungle, she daydreamed about the city way too much during jungle class and actually is a bit clueless at times.

Dr. Scott

A man of science, Doctor Scott is dedicated to using the vegetation of the jungle to create new scientific formulas. He conducts his research while living with his daughter in the jungle. Doctor Scott is a logical thinker. He believes in finding a scientific approach toward all problems he faces. He is kind, but often bickers with the Witch Doctor as they argue over their methods.

Witch Doctor

A man of faith, the Witch Doctor was raised in the jungle. He works by using plants to create curing potions for animals and humans alike. The Witch Doctor is short and grumpy. He does not cut George any slack and will scold him often. He believes in faith over science and will bicker a lot with Doctor Scott.

Locations

Monkey Village

Deep within the jungle exist a village of monkeys. A baboon king who used to live near a human tribe leads the monkeys. The Baboon king spent many days observing the life and culture of the tribe and uses his knowledge to apply it to the monkey tribe in a monkey see monkey do kind of way. Although George has gained many friends within the jungle, this tribe is not one of them and they will attack him if they catch him trespassing on their territory.

Swamp

Deep in the jungle lies a swampy region that is home to many water dwelling creatures such as turtles, lizards, and snakes. The swamps are overrun with jungle vegetation that allows for many traps and natural hazards. The creatures of the swamp always welcome visitors, how else would they get their food? George will need to battle against large snapping turtles, crocodiles, and even whacky lizards that run at him with spears. It is also rumored that a giant snakes also inhabit the farthest and deepest region of the swamp.

Tiki Ruins

The tiki tribes worship the giant volcano deep within the jungle. They have villages with carved wood ornaments and totems. The tribe themselves consist of carved wooden creatures that wear grass skirts and painted masks. They are a very observant society and this makes it impossible for George to sneak around them. Their village lies at the base of a giant volcano in which the tiki tribe worships on a daily basis. They believe that the volcano is a giant fire god who they must please at all times or else it will rain havoc down upon them. The tribe is always looking for a good stranger to roam into their camp that can be used as a good sacrifice to the volcano.

Shep Road

These treacherous roads connect the various locals within the Jungle. Along these roads, there will be obstacles such as boxes, broken road, and rivers that Shep will have to navigate through. Only the toughest of souls can travel these dangerous roads.
