Story

One evening, a timid youth named Mortimer Oyamada encounters a strange boy playing with a ghost in a graveyard. The next day, the boy transfers to Morty's school. His name is Yoh Asakura. Yoh reveals a secret about himself to Morty: He is actually a Shaman. He explains that a Shaman is someone who can speak with spirits and form a link between this world and the next. At first, Morty does not believe all the crazy things Yoh is saying. But in the course of his adventures with the young Shaman, he experiences unexplainable events and meets other Shamans, leading him to finally accept the existence of Shamans and spirits.

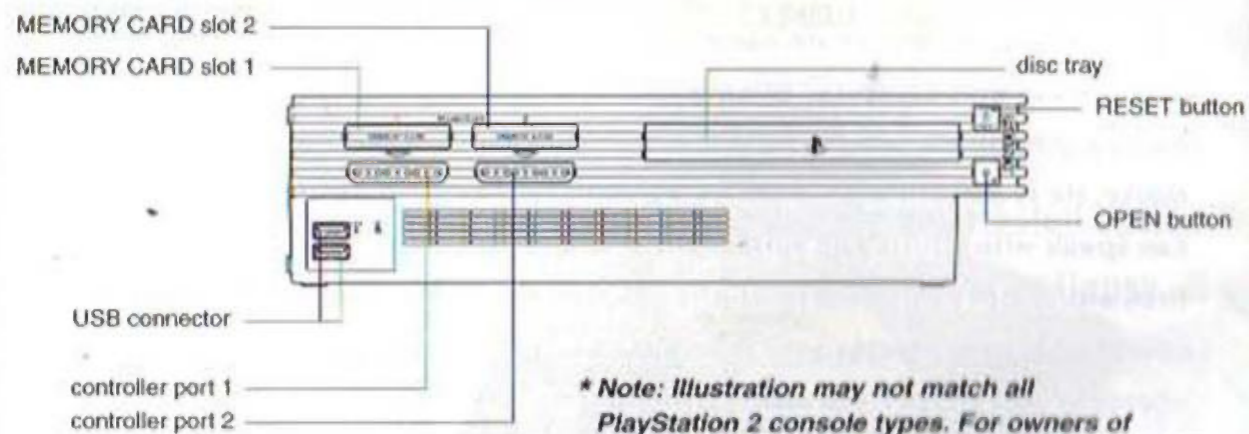

In the course of his adventures, Yoh meets Tao Len, a powerful rival, followed by Len's older sister Jun, with her kung-fu master guardian ghost; Rio, who he initially battles against but later becomes friends with; and Anna Kyohyama, who becomes Yoh's fiancé. In the course of meeting these people, a huge event is unfolding: the Grand Shaman Tournament, held only once every 500 years to crown the greatest Shaman of them all. The tournament is about to begin.

Shamans from all over the world are gathering in Tokyo, where the Grand Shaman Tournament will be held. Among them is a strange, enigmatic group. Amid this vortex of conflicting agendas, what could fate possibly have in store for Yoh? Only the stars twinkling in the heavens above could possibly know. And they are not talking...

Simulation Section

Control Yoh and his friends in an attempt to figure out how to fight enemies in the Battle section (see pages 16 to 21). Develop a strategy by carefully considering the capabilities of your teammates and enemies.

Gameplay in Simulation Section

The Simulation section is turn-based. Each turn consists of a player phase and enemy phase. During the player phase, you can select and execute Character Commands, such as move and battle, and System Commands for each character. You clear a battle stage by satisfying the Strategy Goals (see page 13).

Multiple Character Battles

When the following three conditions are satisfied in battle, a fight between multiple characters may result. You can have up to two characters join the battle.

- There is a teammate in the battle area where Yoh is fighting.
- The Battle Points of a teammate are within Yoh's Battle Rank.
- The action has not ended.

Experience Points (EXP) and Level Up

Characters gain experience points by defeating enemies and clearing the Strategy section. Once characters accumulate enough EXP, they can level up, thereby enhancing their capabilities and gaining Strength Points (see following page).

Strength Points

Strength Points are gained when a character levels up. Strength Points enhance a character's capabilities, and you can allocate them to a variety of parameters. See page 11 for the parameters to which you can allocate them.

Screen Layout

Your team's characters and the enemy characters are displayed on the Simulation Screen. Pressing the X button displays Character Commands (see page 10 to 12) and System Commands (see page 13 to 15).

Perform a Strong Attack by pressing the △ button. Although they take more time to execute, Strong Attacks are quite powerful.

Jump Attack

X button + □ button / △ button

Battle Section Controls

Guard

Pressing the ○ button while being attacked enables you to guard. This can reduce damage and raise Vitality (see page 16). But you must be careful, as there are also techniques for breaking through the guard.

Special Technique / Extra Special Technique

When Furyoku and Vitality exceed a certain level, you can use Special Techniques by entering special commands. Special Techniques can deal massive damage, but they use Furyoku and Vitality. Also, some characters can use Extra Special Techniques that are even more powerful. Extra Special Techniques use more Furyoku and Vitality than Special Techniques.

Clearing a Battle Stage

You win a battle by satisfying the conditions displayed by the Strategy Goals (see page 13) in the Simulation section. (There will be times where you will not clear a battle stage, even after satisfying some of the conditions.)

Earning a Bonus

You can earn an Experience Point bonus by clearing a battle stage. However, characters that lose in the Battle section will not get a bonus.

Battle Evaluation

In the Battle Evaluation, your score based on Turns to Clear and Teammates Remaining will be displayed. You can also obtain items. Generally, the fewer turns it takes you to clear a battle stage, the higher your evaluation will be.

Teammates Remaining	The more teammates remaining, the fewer the points subtracted.
Total Damage Taken by Player and Teammates	The less damage teammates take, the less points will be subtracted.
Items Used	The less items and map weapons used, the less points will be subtracted.
Total Attacks Used	The shorter the battle time, the less points will be subtracted.

Yoh Asakura

A laid-back boy who dreams of becoming Shaman King. He aims to live a peaceful, stress-free life. Morty and Len, the new friends he made in Tokyo, are the most important things in his life because they are the first friends he has ever had.

Amidamaru

The spirit of a samurai who died in battle 600 years ago. He was once greatly feared and known as "The Ogre." Amidamaru joined forces with Yoh to exact revenge on Rio, who desecrated his grave. That led to him becoming Yoh's guardian ghost. He is extremely loyal to Yoh, and the two are bound by a powerful friendship. With his beloved Sword of Light available for Spirit Control, Amidamaru enters the Grand Shaman Tournament alongside Yoh.

Anna Kyohiyama

Raised by Yoh's grandmother, Kino Asakura, to be a Spirit Medium, Anna is Yoh's fiancée. She is a skilled Spirit Medium and Exorcist, and boasts other Shamanistic capabilities as well. She comes off as quite stern and sometimes acts cold toward Yoh, but she believes in him and cares for him more than anyone else. There is nothing that could break the bond between them.

Mortimer Oyamada (Morty)

Yoh's classmate, as well as his first human friend. He is not a Shaman, but he has the ability to see spirits. He has faced countless dangers since meeting Yoh and is becoming deeply involved in the world of spirits and Shamans. Morty is the eldest son of the owner of Oyamada Company, Japan's leading electronics manufacturer.

Character Introduction

Tao Len

The eldest son of one of China's oldest Shaman clans. His guardian spirit is Bason, a Chinese military commander who once served the Tao family. Before meeting Yoh, he thought nothing of killing people, and destroyed all in his path with cold efficiency. Thanks to Yoh, he has become a more compassionate person. He thinks of Yoh, who possesses powers that directly contrast his own, as his best friend and greatest rival.

Bason

A Chinese military commander who served the Tao family while he was alive. He is a softhearted warrior who calls Len, "Master Len," and is always worried about him.

Rio

Possesses a strong sense of loyalty and friendship. Rio seeks his Sacred Hang, the place where he belongs. After meeting Yoh and being possessed by Tokageroh, the Lizard Spirit who was once a thief, he discovered the way of the Shaman. He idolizes Yoh as his master-so much so that he wants to enter the Grand Shaman Tournament.

Tokageroh

The Lizard Spirit and former thief who possesses Rio to exact revenge on Amidamaru, the samurai who defeated him 600 years ago. After finally making peace with Amidamaru and becoming Rio's guardian ghost, his sly, dishonest personality starts changing.

Trey

A nature-loving Shaman who came from the north. His guardian ghost is Corey of the Minutians, an elf of the earth. Noble and honest, he always speaks his mind. Trey also has a strong sense of friendship and cannot abandon a friend in need.

Corey

Minutian who lives under a butterbur leaf. She may look small and cute, but when it comes time to fight, she serves as a powerful partner for Trey.

Meryl Dnugami

Girl who suddenly appeared before Yoh and his friends one day. Much is unknown about her, including her origin, but such mysteries are cleared up little by little as she adventures with Yoh and his friends.
