11. The Road to the Super Bowl

The road to Super Bowl is long and rigorous. Without outstanding technique and play strategy the Super Bowl is an unattainable goal. Keep polishing your skills and use your best play strategy to achieve victory.

TECHNIQUE SECTION

Running Plays

Avoiding a diving tackle

When the COM is about to make a diving tackle, the defensive player will get ready to dive, then he will attempt to tackle your player. To avoid being tackled get out of the way just as he is getting ready to dive.

* If the defensive player gets ready to dive, — get out of the way.

Make the most of your running back's talents

Some running backs like to use their strength to bowl over the defense and plow straight ahead, while others like to use special techniques and speed to avoid tackles. When you are controlling a powerful runner (a runner with great hitting power), have confidence in his strength and run him straight at the defense. When you are controlling a skillful running back (a runner with running speed and rushing ability), head upfield by eluding the defense's tackle attempts.

Pass Plays

Look for an open receiver

Don't throw a pass to a receiver who is well covered by the defense or the pass may be knocked down or intercepted. Look for an open receiver and then pass the ball to him.

The success of your passes depends on the ability of your quarterback and receiver

The greater the ability of your quarterback and receiver the easier it will be for you to complete passes. With talented players it is possible to make passes even when your players are covered. However, if your receiver is not talented, he might drop the ball even though he's wide open. Likewise, if your quarterback isn't talented, he might throw the ball so badly that your receiver can't catch it.

Use your ace receiver when it really counts

If you have an ace receiver on your team who is extremely talented, try throwing the ball to him in situations where it really counts.

Defense

Intercepting the other team's passes

Move your defenders into the area that the offensive team's pass is heading. Then, if your defenders are talented enough, they might be able to make an interception.

STRATEGY SECTION

Make the most of your team's talents

There are many different types of teams — good passing teams, good running teams, strong defensive teams, etc. Find out what your team's strengths are and then make your play choices based on those strengths.

Take away your opponents strong points

Study your opponent to discover his strengths and weaknesses.

During the game concentrate on shutting down your opponent's favorite plays and upsetting his game plan.

WEATHER SECTION

The weather condition is an important factor of the game. The weather will be determined as follows.

In preseason and pro bowl games:

You are able to choose the weather conditions. You can simulate your team-ability under snow and rain conditions, and can develop a plan of tactics under any weather.

In the regular season game:

The weather condition is determined by the season, by the region where the game is being held and by the probability of rain or snow. For example, a winter game, played in a wet northern area will have a high probability of snow. On the contrary a game played in a dry southern area is likely to have nice weather.

To win the game under bad weather conditions, you must consider a plan of tactics for your team by playing preseason games under bad weather conditions.

When playing in rain or snow, the player you are controlling may slip and fall.

Play Patterns

The five basic play patterns used in Tecmo Super Bowl III.

T-formation

Formation where the running backs line up side by side behind the quarterback, forming a "T" shape.

I-formation

Formation where two running backs are placed directly behind the quarterbacks, resembling an "I" shape.

Oneset Back

Formation where running backs are placed just behind the quarterbacks.

Double Tight End (TE)

Formation where tight ends are placed on both sides of linemen. Running back can select the direction freely in this formation.

Run and Shoot

Formation where a fourth wide receiver takes the place of a tight end to enable a better passing offensive.

Shot Gun

Formation where the quarterbacks are placed 7 yards behind the center, enabling the center to make a long snap.

This formation allows for better passing offensive. The lower position also gives the quarterbacks more room to maneuver. Running play can also be conducted in this formation.
